THE MORNING GUARDIAN

FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1900.

THE INDIAN FAMINE.

It is indeed a painful fact that while the British nation is spending hundreds of millions of dollars in war in South Africa and China some millions of British subjects in India are suffering, and many actually dying for want of food. The wars have been forced upon Britain, no doubt, but war is a work of cruelty and destruction at best. It is inhuman and un-Christian to destroy life except under the most imperative necessity. It is always humane and Christian to feed the hungry and clothe the naked, whether they be friends or enemies, people of our own race or of another, foreigners or fellow-subjects.

The sufferers in India are our fellow-subjects, but of a different race and mostly ignorant of the true God. Too frequently the nominally Christian nations have appeared to the heathen world as cruel invaders and conquerors, carrying fire and sword; or as traders introducing the rum curse and the vices of so-called civilization. These transactions have put the religion of Christ to shame, and have imposed the most serious barriers to prevent the conversion of the heathen. Now the famine offers a noble opportunity to the Christian world to present their religion to the heathen world in its true light. To feed these starving ones is an act of charity and mercy, noble in itself, but of greater value because it is one of the good fruits of the Christian religion and shows that we regard all men as brothers.

We draw the attention of GUARDIAN readers again to this matter because the extent of the suffering is greater than ever before. More than six millions of our fellow subjects—a population greater than the entire Dominion—are in want of food while we have abundance. Surely we ought to help them! Much has been given by various parts of the Christian world, but it is little in proportion to what is required. The wars going on, the Patriotic Funds, Red Cross Funds, the Century Funds of some religious bodies, have made demands which have to some extent diverted attention from and dried up the source of supply for the Famine Fund. A sense of relief comes to our minds with the report that rain has fallen in the famine districts. But it will be months yet before the harvest can grow. In the meantime the awful want of bread continues and must yet increase. To those whom a sense of duty may move to contribute we would say that THE GUARDIAN is still receiving contributions.

IGNORING THE MAIN POINT.

In an article on the partisan press in yesterday's GUARDIAN we said among other things:

"As a matter of fact both Mr. Wise and Mr. Pineau had turned their backs on the parties they were respectively elected to support."

The esteemed Examiner quotes from our article and goes on to say:

"It will be observed that our discreet pretender to independence treats the two cases as if they were similar! It is true that each had turned from one party to the other."

The Examiner here says in other words the same thing THE GUARDIAN said. And this matter of turning over was the only similarity that THE GUARDIAN pointed out. We said nothing as to the merits of the men, or the parties they are now attached to. But what he did

Tourists and others wishing quiet, comfortable, homelike rooms, and board, good bathroom in connection should call on Mrs. Wellner, Upper Hillsborough Street. 18 tf clearly point out, and what the Examiner chooses to ignore, is the fact that its abuse and caricature of Mr. Pineau, which was intended to help the cause of the Opposition, really had the effect of increasing the Government majority at the recent by-election.

We were illustrating the point that extreme and over-zealous partisanship often defeats its most desired object. It would have been easy to have given other illustrations, but because the Pineau-Wise matter was recent, near at hand and apparent to all we selected it. We knew from previous experience that the illustration would not be pleasing to our contemporary. It had made a serious tactical mistake, and did not like to have attention directed to the fact. A number of Liberal journals are making the same blunder in their daily abuse of Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Foster. We are quite sure the majority of the better classes of both parties are entirely in accord with THE GUARDIAN in its plea for calm, moderate and dispassionate discussion of public questions and public men. The Examiner has simply ignored the main point of our argument, but it is quite clear to intelligent and fair-minded readers.

There are some things to be said for the Chinese and Russians that we would little expect of them. For instance, when the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals thought of introducing its work into China, Mr. Burlingame, then American Minister at Peking, informed them that cruelty to animals is unknown in China. This appears to result from their belief in the transmigration of souls. And in Moscow, Russia, there is a law prohibiting the use of a whip by drivers of cabs, carriages and all sorts of vehicles. That both Chinese and Russians are upon occasion horribly cruel to members of their own race we all know, but they have a merciful regard for the humbler living creatures.

The Christian people of Manitoba are evidently not without a grateful appreciation of the action of their Government and Legislature in enacting a prohibitory law. They have appointed a day of general thanksgiving to the Author of all good for this boon. As for a bountiful harvest, a great national victory, or for the return of peace after war, they will assemble in their places of worship and return thanks. It is indeed a great victory to have the liquor traffic forbidden by law—to have the law against the traffic instead of authorizing and protecting it. The people of Manitoba seem to realize this, and do not belittle the law because it is merely a provincial one.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND And Its Attractions to Tourists.

Prince Edward Island's summer climate is delightful, and the scenery is beautiful and quietly picturesque. Surrounded by the Gulf of St. Lawrence, it enjoys all the coolness of the sea breeze, and the advantages that can only be derived from sea bathing, at about 65 degrees. Charlottetown has over 12,000 inhabitants, and is the capital. It has many great retail stores, besides a large wholesale trade. It has a Gas Light and Power Company, two Electric light plants, and a street railway in embryo. It has a first class water works and sewerage system. It is famed for its wide and shaded streets, its many pleasant drives, the principal of which is the new Park Boulevard, its attractive surroundings, pure water, and clear, cool and bracing air. It is widely known as one of the healthiest cities in Canada. It has two hospitals, many churches and a large and elegant new Opera house. It also has several fine public buildings and a market which is one of the chief sources of the citizens' here. It has one of the largest and best equipped pork-packing establishments in the Dominion. On its west side is Victoria Park—a favorite summer resort—while on the east are the magnificent new Exhibition Buildings and Driving Park. Chief among its public squares is Queen Square in the centre of the city, beautifully laid out with blooming plants of every description, fountains, and well arranged walks, and enlivened with a band of music during the summer evenings. The rural scenery in the vicinity of Charlottetown is charming, and horses for driving are abundant at very low prices. Boats can also be hired, and steamers run regularly on the bays and rivers, affording most pleasant excursions. The principal hotels are Davies, Queen, and Revere.

Summerside has about 3000 inhabitants. It is situated on beautiful Bedeque Bay. It has the largest and finest departmental store in the Maritime Provinces, besides having other large retail stores. It has an Electric Light Plant, and a water works system and sewerage are being agitated for. The hotels are—Clifton, Queen, Russ Strathona and Campbell.

Georgetown and Souris have a population of about 1,000 each. In the former are the Aitken, and Tapper hotels and in Souris the Sea View.

At Cape Traverse, a very pleasant summer resort, is the Landsdowne hotel; in Alberton, the Albion Terrace and Wisner; in Tignish the Railway and Bellevue; in Kensington, Clark's and Commercial; in Montague, McDonald; and in Mount Stewart, Clark's and Manson's.

The following hotels open for the summer season: At Hampton, Pleasant View; at Stanhope, Mutch's and Cliff; at Brackley Point, Shaw's; at Rustico, Seaside; at Malpeque, North Shore; at Tracadie Beach, Acadia; at Alberton, Seaford; and at Powna, Florida.

In addition to those already mentioned there are other towns and villages in the Province with hotel accommodation, while many farm houses prepare for the reception of tourists. The rivers and streams teem with trout, the bays with mackerel, while game of every description bounds.
