Remembrance Day At O'Leary

Despite inclement weather, there were very impressive Remembrance Day services at O'Leary. Under the command of Dr. George Dewar and marshalled by Ira Ellis the veterans paraded from the O'Leary Hall to the War Memorial where a two minute silence was observed. Also in the parade were the school children led by their teachers, Lewis MacKenzie, Principal, Miss Pearl Craig, Mrs. John Matthews and Mrs. Mae Palmer. The First O'Leary Troop of Boy Scouts were also in the parade led by their Assistant Scoutmaster Douglas Hardy.

At the War Memorial a short but very eloquent address was given by Mr. Peter Pate, after which wreaths were laid by the Legion and by relatives who lost loved ones in the two great struggles for freedom.

Then the parade marched to the O'Leary Hall where a short but very interesting program was greatly enjoyed, Mr. Peter Pate in his witty and humorous manner made an excellent chairman. Present on the platform were: E. B. Ellis, O'Leary, president of the O'Leary Legion and the three resident clergymen of O'Leary, who were heard in brief but appreciative and appropriate remarks. The Ministers are: Rev. W. G. Dickson, Rev. H. M. Burgess and Rev. C. O. Howlett who lost a son in the war.

The junior pupils had an exercise: "We Remember Them" and they sang the hymn, "Land of Our Birth We Pledge to Thee". There was an exercise by three senior pupils, Peggy Ellis, Billy Matheson and Arthur Seaman. Carolyn Burgess recited "In Flanders Fields". The final number by the school children was a recitation, "In Memoriam" by the primary pupils. The children all did splendidly. The organist was Mrs. H. M. Burgess. One member of the Legion, Robert Justice, had passed away since last Remembrance Day. The ceremonies concluded by singing the National Anthem. In the evening there was an enjoyable supper at the hall.

The following wreaths were laid at the War Memorial:—To our departed comrades by the O'Leary Legion; In memory of Robert Howlett by his family; In memory of William James Wedge by Brother Cyrus and wife and family; In memory of Alfred Dennis by Father, Brother, Sister and Aunt Florrie; In memory of Edith Smith and Ralph Boulter by loved ones; In memory of West Point boys by the Women's Institute; In memory of three former Boy Scouts, Ernest Tredenick, Alfred Dennis and Wallace Dennis, by the O'Leary Boy Scouts; In memory of Ernest A. Tredenick and Fred Matthews by Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews and family; In memory of Ralph K. Silliker by Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers; In memory of Ralph K. Silliker by Sylvia and Opal Silliker; In memory of Edward Basil Harris by Mother, Father and Brothers.

Alberton W. M. S. Hear Trinidad Missionary

Alberton Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the United Church Hall on Tuesday Evening, November 1. The Associate Members were specially invited to attend this meeting where all were privileged to hear an address from Miss Elma Inman, missionary on furlough from Trinidad. The opening worship service was conducted by the Associate Members' Secretary, Mrs. Charles Johnston.

The president Mrs. Green, then conducted the business meeting. First she extended a cordial welcome to the Associate Members, visitors, our missionary guest. There were twenty-two Active Members, eight Associate Members, and four visitors present. A nominating committee to bring in a slate of officers for the coming year was appointed as follows: Mrs. James Hodgson, Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick, and Mrs. Alvin Bell. Plans were then made for the Christmas meeting. Mrs. Pike was apointed to take charge of the Christmas program and Mrs. J. W. Waugh volunteered to bring the Watchtower Report. Mrs. Carl Weeks, Temperance Secretary then gave a short reading on Temperance, and the Watchtower report was given by Mrs. Pike. The Community Friendship work for the month is as follows: 2 books read, 53 home calls made, 9 hospital calls made, 17 cards and letters sent, 8 treats, and 7 bouquets of flowers.

Miss Inman gave a very interesting address, telling of her work among the people of Trinidad. She said they try to get their people to sing. They teach hymn choruses both in English and Hindi, so that when the children sing them in the homes the grandparents who speak Hindi will understand the words as well as the parents who speak English. She spoke of the beautiful silver and gold handmade jewellery made by the East Indian people, showing that they can both appreciate and create the beautiful.

She also told of the rum manufactured which, of course is a by-product of the sugar refineries. She told of the effort to teach the Christian Young People in Trinidad the evils of intoxicating liquors, and she said she hoped that as these young people come to Canada to attend our universities they will not be taught to drink by Canadian youths and thus go back to Trinidad to undo all that the missionaries have struggled for years to accomplish. She urged Canadian parents who might entertain these students in their homes to show them what a Christian home is like.

After the meeting a social hour followed, during which Miss Inman chatted informally with the ladies present, and showed pictures of some of her East Indian friends and samples of their beautiful handmade jewellery. Refreshments were served by several of the ladies.
