The late Miss McCormack was a daughter of Mrs. Angus McCormack, of St. Eleanora. Besides her sorrowing mother, there are left to mourn one sister Emma at home, two brothers, Oliver and Richard at home. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 2.30.

—RENEWING FRIENDSHIPS.—Mr. John A. McPherson of Maynard, Mass., passed through Summerside Saturday on his way to Charlottetown, after making a trip through the western part of the Island where he once resided. Mr. McPherson, who is a brother of Mr. George McPherson of the Summerside Post Office, is one of the Island boys who has made good in Uncle Sam's Country, but although living there for 35 years he still has a warm place in his affection for the land of the Maple leaf, and speaks in glowing terms of the Island and the wisdom and prosperity to be seen on every hand with a crop far superior to what he expected to see, he regrets being unable to remain longer to enjoy the rural scenery and invigorating breezes of the gulf. He leaves for his home on Tuesday morning to attend to business in the mercantile. This is his second trip here since leaving.

—KENSINGTON HORSE NEWS.—Mr. James Brahm, sold last week his 1600 lb. draft mare to Mr. W.S. Newsum. Come again Newsum there is always two made happy when you get a line on the good ones Mr. Brahm has several more 1600 lb. prospects growing up on his farm.—Mr. Brad McArthur filled in one of those well filled out checks last season—Kensington and surrounding country has no equal for good stock of all kinds and good farming every one wears a smile in this section, what else could you expect where every person is successful, of course, Tyndie has more cause to smile than the rest of us. When they keep handing him over the fast ones that they have lost the combination of to ave them readjusted. (Then there is Hiram it would make a whole regiment smile to see him out loose his city going pacer Lady Woodside and surprise some of the wise ones. Hiram will tell you she is green but his friends notice that when he wants to have a fast ride he don't have to borrow one. Then there is Robert with all kinds of speed and if he could only regulate the gas and keep Trouble Maker from boiling over all other speed owners would require gas masks to keep the dust out of their eyes. Not always dust, sometimes mud, of course Brad, who wouldn't smile. No dust ahead of him all behind.
