CITY & COUNTRY NEWS

Not wishing to interfere with St. Andrew's Dinner, the Hospital Concert in the First Methodist Church will take place on Friday, Nov. 30th, instead of Thursday, Nov. 29th, as before advertised.

On Thursday, December 6th, a concert and basket social will be held in Montague Hall, in aid of the library in connection with the Presbyterian Sunday School. An exceptionally fine program is being prepared, and an enjoyable time is assured to those who attend. Home made candy will be on sale. All are cordially invited.

A VISIT TO NASSAU.—In the days of wintery gloom and cloudy skies there is a charm in reading of summer spots, particularly if the story is well illustrated. In the December number of The Delineator the Capital of the Bahamas is described by Laura B. Starr. The next best thing to visiting such a place is to read of it as pleasantly described as Miss Starr has succeeded in doing. One of her snap shots shows an aged negro woman trying to ride a bicycle. The "bicycle face" is in strong evidence.

In furnishing a house, consider where and how you are to live, and the number of pairs of hands there are to do the work, and select your furnishings accordingly. If the articles you are buying are well made and good in shape and color you will make no mistake in selecting them, no matter how simple they are; indeed, the simpler they are the better. Do not be in a hurry to fully furnish your house. When buying a new piece of furniture, a drapery or a rug, keep in mind the fact that it should harmonize with the old furnishings.—November Ladies' Home Journal.

HOSPITAL CONCERT.—There will be a magnificent concert in aid of the P. E. I. Hospital fund by Prof. Watts and other favorites in First Methodist church, on Friday, Nov. 30th. Special anthems imported from abroad for the purpose. Prof. Watts will repeat organ selections, which he will play before a select audience in St. John on one of the greatest organs in the Maritime Provinces. This will be the great musical event of the season. No person can afford to miss it. Tickets for sale at Johnson & Johnson's, or from any of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society. Adults 25 cents, children 15 cents. (So as not to interfere with St. Andrew's Dinner, the above concert is to be held on Friday, Nov. 30th, instead of Thursday, as before advertised).

EASTERN NOTES.—Winter came suddenly and about six inches of snow fell on the night of the 15th inst. putting a stop to ploughing and outside farming operations, though the weather prospects predict fine weather later on. But little of the fall plowing has been completed so far, as the harvest and digging season encroached on the usual time for plowing. The millers are busy at present, and the demand for shingles far exceeds the supply owing to the terrible October gale.—The usual school of cod-fish has not arrived in these waters this fall a disappointment to the fisherman who did fairly well on them the last few years. They may come yet but the weather will be getting so cold and stormy that little can be done. Those experienced fishermen James Robertson, at West River, and George La Pierre at Basin Head are patiently waiting their arrival.—The dissolution of our local Legislature has again infused life into our political parties and convention wire pulling and politics are again becoming lively.—Mrs. Yates of Boston nee Alberta Robertson of Red Point left for her home on the 13th inst. At a party at the house of her brother T. S. Robertson on the night of the 10th inst. prior to her departure, the lady friends of Mrs. Robertson presented her with a beautiful parlor lamp.—At a party held some time previously before the departure of Mrs. Carney, Mrs. Robertson was presented with a useful and interesting musical clock.—Rev. Mr. Gardiner preached with acceptance to a large and appreciative congregation every Sabbath.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches do not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successful used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, this reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers, and powders for months at a time, with only slight relief and had no hope of cure.

Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablet and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh, my head is clear, my digestion all that I could ask and my hearing which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.
