Conscription Bill

By Richard L. Turner Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 — (AP) — The United States Senate's debate on peace-time conscription began today with Senator Morris Sheppard, Texas Democrat, declaring democracy is imperiled everywhere and Senator Burton Wheeler (Dem. Mont.) solemnly asserting that those who fear a Nazi invasion should not consider conscription to seek an immediate declaration of war on Germany.

A momentary stir was created when Senator Rufus H. Homan, Oregon Republican, seeking to show that Japan, not Germany, is the one threat to our peace, said he had learned from "authoritative military sources" of the "imminent peril of the invasion of Alaska from the Pacific and the endangering of the entire Pacific slope." Later he added, however, that so far as he knew "no one is mobilizing their forces now."

Another defense development was a disclosure that the navy would strengthen its garrison at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, by sending 2,900 marines there from Quantico, Va., next month. Guantanamo Bay is an important base for warships guarding the eastern approaches to the Panama Canal.

The Senate debate began with an exposition of the pending bill—under which all men between 21 and 30, inclusive, would be subject to selective military training. Senator Sheppard, chairman of the military affairs committee, said developments abroad have made conscription "a tragic necessity" for the United States.

Early in the discussion, Senator Hiram Johnson, California Republican, asserted that the draft bill would be "rammed down our throats after very little consideration," adding that "some of us unfortunately in the stress of the moment have forgotten all the precepts of the fathers of this country."

On July 17, the regular monthly meeting of the Bonshaw Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. S. Beaton. Meeting opened by repeating Ode followed by Creed. Roll call was responded to by 11 members. One new member was welcomed to our institute. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. A play from Mr. Heron was held on Monday at which the sum of $11.75 was cleared.

The sick committee reported having sent fruit to several sick in the community. Correspondence was read by the secretary. It was moved and seconded that $10 be paid to Ambulance Fund.

The holding of a festival in the near future was discussed and it was decided to hold a special meeting to make plans for this. Meeting to be held the following Monday at the home of Mrs. J. D. MacEwan. Roll call for next month: "How the Institute May be Helped to the Community." Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Boyce. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

Law Offices And National Registration

The Law Society of Prince Edward Island has been requested by the Federal Minister of National War Services as well as by the President of the Canadian Bar Association to render every assistance in its power in seeing that the registration in this Province for war service of all men and women of the age of 19 years and upwards is accomplished successfully.

In response to this request, the members of the Council of the Law Society have unanimously offered to close their respective law offices on the dates for registration, namely, August 19, 20 and 21, so that they may devote their full time during these days to National Registration. The Council of the Law Society has also, by resolution, passed unanimously, recommended that every lawyer in the Province give similar assistance during the days fixed for registration, and that every law student and experienced stenographer in such offices be set free to assist in such National Registration.

As the questions to be answered in such Registration may need to be explained in order that they may be correctly answered and as this is work which the training and experience of members of the legal profession and of their students and clerks make them specially qualified to perform, the Council of the Law Society hopes that all lawyers and their students and clerks who can give any assistance in such Registration.

The service asked for is, of course, to be performed voluntarily. The Council asks the co-operation of the public in arranging any visits to any law offices they may be contemplating so as to leave the members of the legal profession and their staffs free to assist in such National Registration on Aug. 19, 20 and 21.

Published by order of the Council of the Law Society. W. E. BENTLEY, Secretary-Treasurer, meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Canada's forthcoming national registration is a matter of vital importance to the Dominion and the British Empire. The public is anxious to co-operate with the Government to the fullest extent possible, but indications of some confusion exists as to how it would affect the ordinary person. Guiding itself by the nature of the many inquiries reaching this office, The Bureau is pleased to publish herewith a series of questions and answers to reflect the spirit of the legislation and to clear up doubts. The questions and answers follow:

Q. Why the national registration? A. It is being held in virtue of the National Resources Mobilization Act, which permits the "mobilization of all of the effective resources of the nation, both human and material for the purpose of the defence and security of Canada."

Q. When is the registration being held? A. On August 19, 20 and 21. Industrial and other organizations employing upwards of 100 persons, which volunteer to take the registration of their own staffs, may, however, do so before these dates.

Q. Who must register? A. Every resident of Canada, man and woman, British subject or alien, who shall have attained his or her 16th birthday on or before August 21.

Q. Are there any exceptions? A. Yes. Treaty Indians and Eskimos need not register. Does a member of the naval, military or air forces in Canada have to register?

Q. What about persons away from home, but within the boundaries of Canada? A. They may register at the nearest registration booth, but must satisfy the registrar they are unable to attend at the polling booth in their own district.

Q. What about residents of Canada absent from the country during the registration period? A. They must register at a post office in Canada within 30 days from the date of their re-entry into Canada.

Q. Will persons under the age of 19 years not have to register at all? A. Not during the above-mentioned registration period, but they must register at a post office within 30 days from the date of reaching their 16th birthday.

Q. Where does one register? A. At registration polls to be set up in the federal electoral constituency in which a person ordinarily resides. The registration polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. during the three-day period.

Q. Are there any exceptions? A. Yes; two. Where, to the knowledge of the deputy registrar a person is ill or incapacitated and cannot attend the registration booth in person, the deputy registrar may have a duly appointed voluntary assistant deputy registrar attend on such person to complete the registration in the usual manner. One may also register at one's place of employment if working for an organization with upwards of 100 employees if such organization has volunteered to take the registration of its own staff.

Westmoreland-Gemmill Summer Wedding

One of the season's loveliest weddings was performed at Westminister United Church, Regina, on Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and united Miss Marie Elizabeth Gemmill and Lloyd Arthur Westmoreland, the former the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Gemmill, and the latter the son of Mrs. Amy Westmoreland Thomas, Toronto (formerly of Cornwall, P. E. I.) and the late Rev. Ernest A. Westmoreland. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Misses Peggy and Shirley, and her cousin, Miss Rannis Davidson, of St. Thomas, Ontario, played the wedding music and accompaniment for Miss Eleanor Dolan's solo. The groomsmen were Barry Wood, and ushers Ernest Casson and Murray Edgar.

A bover of gladioli and banks of fern graced the foreground of the church forming a background for the service performed by Rev. Cardigan, of Swift Current. On the guest pews tulle bows were tied and spatters and ribbons of white sandpaper, the bride's wedding dress was lovely fashioned with a long-sleeved jacket buttoned down the centre front and ending in single points back and front. Her long lace veil was held in place by a crescent of sweet peas in pink and white, and she carried a bouquet of pure white carnations and pink roses tied with a pale pink ribbon.

Miss Peggy Gemmill, who was bridesmaid, wore a pretty dress of pink sheer, the long skirt dotted with daisies and the sleeves short and puffed. With it she wore a green mohair picture hat trimmed with a bow of green tulle also to harmonize with the pretty costume. The flower girl, Shirley, dainty in a peach tulle dress with blue bow hat, trimmed with red flowers and streamers, carried a princess basket of daisies.

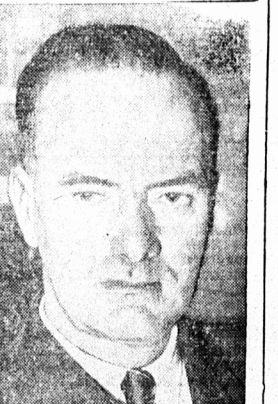

Dr. and Mrs. Gemmill entertained at a reception at home, 2275 Montague Street, after the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Thomas, the groom's mother, and the bride and groom receiving with them Mrs. Gemmill's pretty gown was of cocktail blue sheer and with it she wore an attractive Leghorn hat. Her corsage was Tallisman roses. Mrs. Thomas had chosen flowered silk with a black picture hat and corsage of white gladioli.

The living-room was artistic with a profusion of summer flowers, a large basket of gladioli in front of the fireplace and trellis baskets of white and pink flowers. In the tea room the bride's table was floral decoration of white sweet peas and smilax, and as central motif, the tiered wedding cake in a bed of tulips. Assistants, looking after the guests' pleasure, were Mrs. M. A. Currie, Mrs. A. W. Edgar, pouring coffee; Mrs. E. T. Casson, Miss Betty Whyte and Mrs. C. H. Weicker, serving. Mr. Cardigan presided at the bride's toast.

The bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to Clear Lake, the former wearing a travelling dress of blue with wine and blue accessories. On their return to Regina Mr. and Mrs. Westmoreland will live in the Huntingdon apartments. The out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mrs. A. D. Price, Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davidson, Cowan; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walker, Moose Jaw; Seth Flannery, Toronto, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Thomas, of Toronto; Mensell Beach, Vancouver and Miss Davidson, St. Thomas—Regina Leader Post.

NORTH WILTSHIRE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE The July meeting of the North Wiltshire W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Goady. With the president presiding, the meeting was opened by singing O Canada, followed by the Club Woman's Creed, read in union.

The members of the Kingston W. I. who were the guests of the evening, were welcomed by the president after which the usual business was proceeded with and correspondence read. The lunch committee for August is Mrs. Gordon MacLean, Mrs. Bruce Youmker and Mrs. Bruce MacDonald. It was decided to hold the annual shore picnic on July 16. The program consisted of readings, a singing and contests. Mrs. Katie Berrigan invited the members for the next meeting. Ice cream and cake was served to all present and the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Four months after he won the honor, Capt. John Short Pinkney, British merchant skipper learned he had been awarded the O.B.E. for his action at Narvik. Without convoy, Capt. Pinkney successfully conducted a fleet of 40 merchant ships from the Norwegian port to England. He received the news in a cable from his "owners."

Lt. Haakon M. Joergensen is another Norwegian officer who managed to escape from Norway and make his way to Canada. He is at present engaged in the work of training a force of Norwegian fliers at Toronto.

In Memoriam

MR. EDMUND DUNBAR DOULL

The community of New Dominion was saddened on Monday, August 5, by the sudden passing of one of its most loved and respected residents, Mr. Edmund Dunbar Doull, aged 61 years. The late Mr. Doull had spent the day with his daughter at Long Creek and on his return was suddenly stricken with a heart attack. A nurse who lived nearby was immediately summoned, and tenderly cared for him while the doctor was called, but he passed away before further aid could reach him.

The very largely attended funeral took place from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon at New Dominion church, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Blessie. He paid tribute to the fine character and kindly disposition of the deceased, whose life had been an inspiration to his family and friends.

The late Mr. Doull, who until recent years, farmed extensively, was predeceased by his wife and one daughter, Blanche, and is survived by two daughters, Dorothy, Mrs. Bramwell Chandler, of Charlottetown, and Helen, Mrs. George MacLean, of Long Creek, to both of whom is extended deepest sympathy.

Pays Tribute To Island Province

"A visit to Prince Edward Island," is the subject of an article in the Aug. 8 issue of the Springhill, N.S. Record, the writer, Miss Bertha I. Scott, having been a recent guest in Charlottetown of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scott, Grafton St. The following quotations from Miss Scott's article will be read with appreciation: "Prince Edward Island grows on"

Cartoon titled 'OUT OUR WAY' by J. R. Williams. A man says 'NOW I TAKE A LONG LAST BREATH WHILE I'M IN THE AIR, DON'T I?' and another replies 'YES, IF YOU WANT IT TO BE YOUR LAST ONE'. The cartoon is signed 'THE CLOSE FINISH' and 'J. R. WILLIAMS'.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By J. R. Williams. "and one here", until the whole length is outlined; mostly pointers, which have a strangely detached appearance of primeval survival. "But here I shall set a grove of lovely cool hardwood — sweet and clean."

With a Minor Hoop

"I'll see to it that you're not lonesome, Major, or what? Remind me after dinner, to tell you another of my hunting reminiscences — one time in Burma, or was it Sumatra? No, it was Burma, was it? Well, anyway —"

Cartoon titled 'OUR BOARDING HOUSE' by J. R. Williams. A man says 'JOVE, BUT SIR CECIL IS A TERRIFIC TRENCHERMAN! THERE HE GOES, SPEARING THE LAST CHOP, AND I HAD DESIGNS ON IT MYSELF IN THE GOURMAND!' and another replies 'THINGS SEEM PRETTY QUIET WITHOUT THE BOYS AROUND, EH, MAJOR? THEY PULLED OUT THIS AFTERNOON ON THEIR VACATION. BUSTER BEQUESTED YOU A RUBBER COLLAR, JUST IN CASE YOU GET HOT UNDER YOUR OWN! BOY! THAT SIR CECIL'S A REGULAR TABLE WOLF!' The cartoon is signed 'YOU'LL HAVE TO CATCH HIM, SIR CECIL' and 'J. R. WILLIAMS'.
