ON GUARD AT THE READING GATE!

It is a fine thing to guard our homes against alien soldiers of whose purposes we are all aware. But it is also very important to guard them against other insidious foes that creep in under the disguise of friendly entertainers to plunder and destroy the cherished ideals, the lofty standards, the clear values that have given the home its character.

If you will familiarize young people with the best reading, they will not be likely to crave what is inferior and demoralizing. The Youth's Companion is a powerful influence in awakening a taste for what is best in reading. It is on guard at the reading gate! Nothing cheap, mean or hateful passes its challenge. But neither does the crabbled and dull and austere. Cheerful idealism is the Companion's counter sign. Put it on guard at your reading gate!

The Companion is $2.25 a year. If you do not know it, by all means send for sample copies giving a Forecast of what the next volume will bring.

Our offer includes, for $2.25:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues of 1918.
2. All the remaining issues of 1917.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1918.

KITCHENER, Nov. 29.—Secretary G. M. Debus, of the Kitchener Manufacturers' Association, forwarded the following message to Sir Robert Borden, which was signed by about 60 members of the association:

"We the Kitchener Manufacturers' Association, desire to express to you our most sincere regret and tender your our heartfelt apology for the unseemly and unfortunate disturbance, which took place in Kitchener last Saturday night.

"We wish to assure you that the parties who took part in the interruptions did not represent the respectable element of this community, but rather these ill-informed and prejudiced.

"Please accept our assurance that we deplore very much this unfortunate occurrence."

LEFT FOR MONCTON.—Mr. T. B. Grady, superintendent of the P. E. I. Railway system, Mr. Peter McQuaid, mechanical superintendent, and Mr. James Monaghan of the mechanical department left yesterday for Moncton on business in connection with the Island system.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE.—In the early days of filmdom it took Italian pictures to thrill the audience. The hold is still strong, as is evidenced by the splendid attendance which greeted the first appearance last night of that wonderful 5 act pioneer drama, "The Hidden Children," a dramatization of that popular novel by Robert W. Chambers. This is the most powerful story, with an entirely new plot and wonderful scenic effects and was much enjoyed by the large audience. The sixth chapter of "The Seven Pearls" brought Creighton Hale again to his local admirers and the closing number, a rollicking good comedy, was an fitting close to a splendid bill.

ANXIOUS ENQUIRY.—On Saturday night December 1st a postal card reached the Charlottetown Post Office, addressed to F. J. Nash, from his son Lieut. Nash R. F. C. reported a "Prisoner in Germany." This postal never reached its destination and Mr. Nash has not yet seen it. As it is the first word direct from his son it was most eagerly and anxiously looked for. Besides it likely contains Lieutenant Nash's address in Germany. If anyone got it in the Post Office, by mistake, he or she will confer a great favor by handing it—not mailing it—to Mr. Nash.

A SPRIG OF HEATHER.—The Guardian has received from Private John S. Stewart, No. 712931, 14th Batt. Canadians B. E. F., France, son of Mr. M. Stewart, Postmaster at Caledonia, greetings from Glasgow, where Private Stewart was enjoying a furlough. This young hero, who eleven months in France, was granted a fourteen days leave, which he greatly enjoyed. The letter in which Private Stewart sends greetings to the Guardian was a lovely sprig of heather. The Guardian hopes that good luck will follow this young man and that he will be spared to return to his Island home.

KILLED IN ACTION.—The sad news has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Moriarty of Bear River, that their gallant son Lieut. Peter J. Moriarty was killed in action on Nov. 14th. This brave Bear River boy who was only 23 years at the time of his heroic death, enlisted about two years ago in Port Arthur, where he left a good position to answer the call of king and country. After training at Valcartier he crossed to England with the 94th Battalion, but on arrival in France was transferred to the 52nd. He spent eight months in the trenches, never receiving a wound till the time of his death, after taking part in the heaviest battles. There are left to cherish the memory of his heroism and sacrifice, his parents, four sisters and two brothers, namely: Mrs. Michael Dinehey, Charlestown, Mass.; Mrs. Harry Morris, Medford, Mass.; Mrs. D. Poland, Somerville, Mass.; and Mrs. W. Acker of Medford, Mass. and Patrick and Thomas of Port Arthur. To the grief-stricken parents and relatives the Guardian and the community wishes to extend their deepest sympathy.

DEBATING SOCIETY.—A Debating Society under the auspices of the Men's Club of Sacred Heart Parish, Mr. Ryan, held their first debate on Wednesday, 28th inst. The new church basement which is being fitted up for a Hall and not being completed the debate was held in the school room at Johnston's River. The subject for discussion was, "Which causes the most misery in the World, War or Intemperance." The line up was as follows: For Intemperance—David MacDonald, Chas. Cumiskey, Wm. Trainor, Daniel Fisher, Joseph Driscoll, James Campbell. For War—Peter Trainor, Chas. Walker, Hugh Trainor, Wm. Walker, John Gauthier. Mr. Anthony Beagen occupied the chair. The school room was packed and a good interest taken, shown by the good order which prevailed. Both subjects were well criticized and ably defended in turn. The debate was opened by the President of the Club, Mr. David MacDonald, who pointed out the miseries caused by Intemperance on P. E. I. and elsewhere. He was followed by Peter Trainor who delivered an able speech on the miseries caused by War. They being followed by the other speakers in order. With a three-hour discussion the debate closed after an enjoyable evening and a vote of thanks to the Chairman. The decision, which with the consent of the chairman was left to the audience; resulted in favor of war by a large majority. The subject for the next debate to be held on Dec. 5th will be, "Which is the more preferable: City or Country Life?"

TRONE POWER

POSSIBLE LAURIER CABINET OUTLINED

Bourassa, Cannon, Marci May Have Place.

(Canadian Press Despatch) NEW MARKET, Ont., Dec. 1.—"Will you send help to my Daddy?" Father's fighting overseas." That was the inscription on a bouquet presented to Sir Robert Borden by little Rosie Woodhead at a great Union Government mass meeting here tonight, in the interests of J. A. Armstrong, Unionist candidate for North York.

The Premier, who was escorted to the meeting by a large number of returned soldiers, was cheered to the echo when he rose to speak, the band playing "See The Conquering Hero Comes." A civic address of welcome was read by Major Eastes. Several denunciations of French Canadians were enthusiastically received.

Mr. Armstrong declared that all the most prominent Liberals of the Dominion were in the Union Government. "If Laurier is returned what is left?" he asked. "If Laurier wins out what would you get when he comes to form a cabinet?" "There would be Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mackenzie King, if he were elected—but he is not going to be."

"There would be Lucien Carron, of Dorchester, who has declared continually that we owe nothing to Britain."

"There would be Tancred Marci, one of the most rabid of the anti-conscriptionists of the Province of Quebec."

"There would be Henri Bourassa, Armand Lavergne, and perhaps the leader of the Berlin riots who refused a hearing to the Prime Minister a few days ago."

Sir Robert Received an Enthusiastic Reception.

"Is there a man who will tell me why there should not be Union Government?" he asked. "Is there not union among our men at the front? Does the man going over the top ask whether his comrade is a Gri or a Tory. And after all, are we here not the reserve line on which our country has depended in this war?" The Liberals in the cabinet, he said, had given up premierships, one a leadership, to join it. They haven't abandoned their party any more than I have abandoned my party, he said.

AUSTRIAN TROOPS FOUGHT EACH OTHER

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ITALIAN ARMY IN NORTHERN ITALY, Dec. 1.—Details have been officially received of one of the most sanguinary fights in the northern zone, in which two Austro-Hungarian regiments fought until they almost exterminated each other. The fight was back of Asiago during one of the main attacks against the Italians.

The enemy advanced from the two flanks, and toward night a regiment of Hungarian Czechs became engaged with a regiment of Galician Poles, both wearing a different uniform and speaking a different dialect. The rifle fire was followed by a bayonet charge and then a hand to hand struggle with grenades being thrown throughout the night, until the two regiments were disintegrated after heavy losses, when it became known that they belonged to the same side.

The general situation is not materially changed to-night along the northern Piave fronts.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poison from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
