The case against Mrs. Sarah Martin for violation of the Prohibition Act, was adjourned for one week, no dismissal.

A sad death occurred at Mount Carmel, the two year old son of Benjamin Gallant, picked up a piece of turnip on the floor, and while eating it, choked to death.

A good deal of inconvenience and loss to business men was occasioned by the cancelling of trains on Wednesday. The cause was absolutely unnecessary.

The funeral of the late William F. Riley will take place Saturday afternoon at one o'clock.

The gale of Wednesday last cleared the western straits of ice. From Cape Richmond to Summerside the ice has been swept off close to the shores, and not a particle is to be seen from the Island side.

Joe. Read & Co are loading the schooner Telephos with potatoes this week. Farmers who have potatoes to dispose of had better haul before the ice breaks up, as prices are better now than later on.

The death occurred at Sherbrook, yesterday morning, of Wm. T. Riley, son of Wm. F. and Mrs. Riley. The deceased was 29 years of age and had been ill for several weeks.

Wednesday afternoon's blizzard will be remembered in Summerside, as one of the fiercest ever experienced here. Following a snowstorm of quite respectable proportions, in the morning, and a dead calm with rain and sleet at noon, the wind suddenly sprang up from the north, accompanied by a blinding snowfall.
