Georgetown and Vicinity

Mrs. Raymon Solomon and young son, were in Charlottetown on Friday.

Mrs. Richard Hearn, visited her husband who is a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital on Saturday.

Mr. William Murphy, local C. N. R. section man, is at present in O'Leary, where he will be relieving foreman for the next few months.

Mrs. Walter McLean, Water Street, had the misfortune recently while walking in her yard, of severely spraining her ankle. Her many friends hope for a speedy and complete recovery.

The Red Cross Society, Georgetown Branch, held a meeting on Wednesday, April 3rd. Due to the small attendance at recent meeting and the numerous other organizations claiming the attention of members, it was decided to disband the local branch.

Mr. Chester "Bill" Liewellyn is busy engaged in moving the building recently purchased from Mr. P. J. Henry on Water Street. Mr. Liewellyn plans on swinging this building lengthways with the street and equipping it as a garage, which he will operate along with his present service station.

Among Georgetownians visiting Charlottetown on Friday and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McQuillan, Mr. Adolphus Scully, Mr. Walter Walker, Mr. Victor Rafuse, Mr. Chester Liewellyn, Mr. Frank McPhee, Mr. Earl Rafuse.

Mr. Herbert Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allister H. Stewart, a veteran of the Second World War, spent the weekend at the home of his parents here. Mr. Stewart is taking a plumbing and sheet metal course under the veterans' training scheme, in Charlottetown.

Mrs. Mabel Lavers, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Landry, was in Charlottetown on Friday and Saturday, where Mrs. Lavers met her son, Spr. Richard Lavers, who returned on the Ile de France from overseas and will spend his thirty days' leave at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ross, arrived in Georgetown on Saturday and will spend some weeks at the home of Mr. Ross' mother, Mrs. Lettie Ross. Mr. Ross recently received his army discharge, having served overseas and has purchased a farm in Wheatley River, under the Veterans Land Act, which he plans on occupying early in May.

John and Ivan Stewart, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Allister H. Stewart, have returned to Halifax for their discharge, having completed their leave, after serving overseas. Both boys enlisted in the N. N. S. Highlanders early in the war and served in the Italian Campaign and North West Europe campaign.

The recent return of King Winter has put somewhat a damper on fishing preparations. Fishermen here had commenced painting their boats in preparation to launch. With the prospect of even higher prices for lobster, almost a certainty, the weather will bring renewed and feverish activities along our waterfronts.

Mr. Emerson Liewellyn, who recently resigned as Engineer of the Georgetown Lower Montague ferry, has accepted a position with his father, Mr. Chester N. Liewellyn, local lobster packer and cold storage operator.

Mr. Angus McLean, who recently completed the building of a 30 foot fishing boat, is now busy engaged in the preparation to launch, which he plans on finishing before the opening of the fishing season. —GW

In Memoriam

MR. FRANCIS DUFFY

Emyvale and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened when they learned of the sudden passing of Francis Duffy, at the early age of 37 years, on January 28th, 1946.

Fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, by the pastor Rev. Leonard Ayres, he passed peacefully away. Although not in robust health for some time the end came unexpectedly. His contracted flu and feeble medical aid he passed to his eternal rest on the above mentioned date.

He was a man of quiet and reserved disposition, sober and industrious. Born and brought up in Emyvale, he spent his entire life except about a year and a half when he worked in Moncton, returning home about the middle of December, 1945.

He leaves to mourn two brothers and two sisters namely: Joseph, with whom he made his home, and Annie, both of Emyvale; (Mary) Mrs. E. J. Malone, Regina, Sask., who had the consolation of seeing him buried; (Catherine) Mrs. A. Gilmore, Dorchester, Mass.

His funeral which took place on the morning of January 31st, to St. Ann's Church, Lot 61, was largely attended despite the cold weather. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Leonard Ayres and all that was mortal of a kind and loving brother was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The bearers were: Amos Callaghan, Peter Murray, William McCloskey, Frank McCloskey, James Woods, Cecil Murray.

May his soul rest in peace.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duffy wish to express their sincere thanks to their friends and neighbours who assisted in any way during their bereavement, also to those who sent Mass Cards and Messages of Sympathy. 4-10-46.

ROBERT EMMETT BELL

The many friends of Robert Emmett Bell of Kensington Road, Parkdale, were saddened to learn of his death at the Montreal Neurological Institute where he had undergone a serious operation after the death of his wife, who passed peacefully away on January 19, 1946, at the early age of 43 years. He was a devout Catholic and his funeral was held at the Parish Hall, Kensington, on Monday, April 8th, at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Charles Cahill of Montreal was administrator. The last rights in Holy Mother Church.

Mr. Bell was employed by C.N.R. for the last twenty-three years. He was a loving husband and father and leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing wife formerly Eunice Callaghan, and three sons from sons of C. N. R. Express Co., Robert Jr., and Rupert and four daughters, Delight, Eleanor, Arlene and Margaret; also his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Charlottetown and six brothers and four sisters.

On Thursday, January 24th his funeral under the direction of Mr. Frank Hennessey took place from his late residence to St. Dunstan's Basilica where a High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. Francis MacDonald who also officiated at the grave.

The pall bearers were P. W. MacNeven, H. E. Moore, C. L. MacDonald, T. L. Mahar, B. T. Myers and P. C. Trainor.

The numerous Mass Cards, floral tributes, messages and telegrams which arrived, testify the esteem in which the deceased was held. May his soul rest in peace.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Robert E. Bell and family wish to thank very sincerely all their kind friends who in any way helped in their bereavement, also those who sent Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets, flowers, cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy. 4-10-46.

In Memoriam

In fond and loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Roland White of Murray Harbour, who died April 10, 1946.

In the lonely Murray Harbour cemetery. There in a mound of clay, There they laid my darling mother, On that dark and stormy day.

Some, they say I have forgotten, That the wound has long been healed, But they little know the sorrow, That is in my heart concealed.

Lovingly Remembered by Son, Keith. 4-10-46.
