Club President

Mr. Charles Hogan, who has been elected president of the Kinsmen Club of Summerside for the year commencing Sept. 1.

Kinsmen Win 9-1 From S'side Vets

Garth Gay, allowed the Summerside Legionaires only four scattered hits last night at the High School diamond and the Kinsmen Juniors defeated the Vets 9 to 1. Gay should have had a shut-out but was responsible himself for the Vets lone tally, falling to back up the play at the plate when H. Gallant, breaking for the plate, was being run down between third and home. Gallant had got to first on an error and so there was no earned runs off the youthful right hander.

Gallant, making his first start for the Legionaires, struck out nine but was hit fairly hard. Oatway, Kinsmen first sacker, getting a home run, double and single in four trips.

The feature defensive play of the game was a beautiful shoe-string catch in left field to rob Syl Bernard of a hit in the third. Stewart made two fine catches at third base, one in the sixth and one in the seventh.

—DUE TO ARRIVE, a quantity of John Deere lime and fertilizer distributors. Book your order now. All parts are available. Phone, write or call James A. McNeill & Sons, Summerside.
