In Memoriam

WILLIAM A. MACLEAN

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island hospital, on Sunday, July 29th, of William MacLean of Charlottetown, in the 64th year of his age.

Mr. MacLean had always enjoyed excellent health until about two weeks previous to his death, when he was taken with a serious disease. He was removed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where a medical and nursing staff were called in to attend to him and the above mentioned staff his soul took its flight to his Maker in whom he had trusted as the best of fathers and the best of saviors.

Mr. MacLean was a dutiful father, kind, honest upright citizen, respected and esteemed by all whom he came in contact with. He was especially kind to his children who were always attracted to him and his home. He was a cheerful and kind greeting.

He was an ardent supporter of the Labor party, and took keen interest in the political life of the country. He was an adherent of the Presbyterian Church.

The funeral service which was largely attended was held at the church at Canoe Cove, and was conducted by the Rev. G. C. Webster assisted by Rev. E. R. Wood. The remains of the deceased, after which all that was mortal of a good father and citizen was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, beside the remains of his beloved wife, Isabel Currie who predeceased him by nine years. The floral tributes were many and beautiful testifying to the esteem of the deceased. The hymns sung were all favorites viz: "Jesus in Jesus", "I To the Hills", "Take Comfort Christians" and "The Lord's My Shepherd".

The remains of the deceased were left to cherish his memory, viz: Mrs. James Gorvett, Nine Mile Creek, Edith W. Veitch at home, Alexander, captain on Government, Dredge and Douglass, Fairview, also one sister and six brothers, Mrs. W. MacKay, St. Catharines, Ira, British Columbia, George and Nathaniel in Providence, R.I., John, Alex and Neil, Canoe Cove.

The following acted as pall-bearers and it is worthy of note the same friends acted in a similar capacity at the funeral of his wife, viz: Mrs. James Gorvett, Nine Mile Creek, Edith W. Veitch at home, Alexander, captain on Government, Dredge and Douglass, Fairview, also one sister and six brothers, Mrs. W. MacKay, St. Catharines, Ira, British Columbia, George and Nathaniel in Providence, R.I., John, Alex and Neil, Canoe Cove.

Fine Recital By Miss Lena McLure's Pupils

On Monday evening, Sept. 2nd, in Stanley Hall the pupils of Miss Lena McLure, A.T.C.M., were heard in a recital of their summer work in music and elocution. Pupils on the program were from the communities of Graham's Road, New London, Stanley, Cavendish, North Rustico, South Rustico, Mayfield, and New Glasgow. A large and appreciative audience listened with much interest to the following program announced by Miss Mary MacNeill in her usual inimitable manner. In her opening remarks Miss MacNeill said it was the desire of the pupils in their study of music and elocution to use in the communities or in their work in the years to come the knowledge so gained. From the men and women of those communities they had received a great heritage as citizens and people of achievement. The desire of the younger generation is to carry on the ideals of a people and land we love.

THE PROGRAM
 "The Island Hymn" by Lucy Maud Montgomery and Lawrence Watson, M.A., sung in unison by all the pupils.

At this point Shirley MacKay announced most pleasingly the numbers given by the pupils from Graham's Road, New London, and Stanley.

"Woodland Scenes" — Leon Aubrey, played by Marion Ramsay.

"A Little Chat" played by Lois MacKinnon.

"Waltz of the Raindrops" played by David Bell.

"Southern Nights" sung Duval, played by Helen Simpson.

Schuber's "Lullaby" played by Janie MacLeod and accompanied by Jay MacLeod.

"An Old Folk Song" played by Elaine Campbell.

"So Gay is the Rose", a Canadian folk tune played by Marion Bell.

"The Little Waltz" played by Shirley MacKay.

Music appreciation notes on Brahms and the singing of the Brahms Lullaby by the above group completed this part of the program. From these primary students Miss McLure received a beautiful souvenir—Anne of Green Gables cup and saucer.

Intermission

Miss MacNeill again took charge of the program announcing the following numbers:

"Sonatina"—Louis Kohler, played by Irma Toombs.

"The Wind Fairy"—Isobel Ecclestone MacKay, and Rice Pudding—A. A. Milne, recited by Sylvia Simpson.

"Land of Glad Tomorrows"—Thompson, sung by Marguerite Houston.

"Canadian Born"—Pauline Johnson, recited by Mary MacNeill.

A duet, "A Little Journey", played by Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson and teacher.

"Land of Rustic Piddler" played by Gertrude Fleming.

"Ecclesiast No. 1"—Schubert, played by Helen Greene.

"The Wonderful Fishing of Peterkin Spray"—Isobel Ecclestone MacKay, and "The Lamp-lighter"—Eleanor Fargeon recited by Marie Simpson.

"Song of the Rose" played by Helen Simpson.

"When Daisies Pled"—Arne, sung by Cora Toombs.

"My Bonnie Lies Over The Ocean" played by Ian MacLeod.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go in!

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels each day. If it does not, your food does not digest. It just stays in the bowels. Gas builds up, you get constipated, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

A mere bowl of movement "always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills, and you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of a colic but have no colic or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse any other. Size.

Brewer-Rattray Marriage Rites

(Montreal Star, August 31.)

The marriage of Miss Lillian Margaret Rattray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rattray, and Mr. John Henry Robert Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer, of St. Thomas, Ont., is taking place this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at half past three o'clock. Rev. E. Bruce Hallett officiating. The ceremony will take place in the garden, under an arch effect, embowered in red and white gladioli, with two large garden urns on either side of the arch, an aisle being formed with posts garlanded with southern laurel and gladioli blooms. Mr. Gordon Rendall will play the wedding music.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Audrey Isabel Rattray, as maid of honor, and little Diana Douglas, as flower girl, Mr. Harry Yeandle, will be best man while the ushers are Mr. Douglas Rattray and Mr. Leonard Rattray, brothers of the bride, Mr. Frank Yeandle, a cousin of the groom, and Mr. Kevin O'Connor.

Given away by her father, the bride is wearing a gown of white satin muller, modelled on princess lines with a flowing skirt ending in a slight train. The short sleeves are shirred to match the bodice which features a high neckline and draped back caught with tiny bows. Her full-length veil will be held in place with a halo of orange blossoms, and she will carry a cascade bouquet of white gladioli. The maid of honor is wearing turquoise blue chiffon made with full-length skirt, having a wide softly-folded band at the waist, and a shirred jacket to match. She will wear a coronet of the same material, with a cluster of small pink gladioli blooms in the centre, and long pink streamers. Her bouquet is composed of pink gladioli. The flower girl will be in a shirred pink crepe frock, with tiny frills on the skirt from hem to waist. Her poke bonnet has frills around the brim. She will carry a basket of blue cornflowers and pink sweet peas.

Mrs. Rattray, the bride's mother, is wearing a gown of Queen's blue crepe, made with long full skirt and matching jacket, with which she will wear navy blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Brewer, the groom's mother, will be gown in deep navy chiffon with long full skirt and matching jacket, worn with black accessories and a corsage cluster of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the garden. Gladioli blooms decorate the bride's table and are arranged throughout the house. The couple will spend their honeymoon on a trip to Prince Edward Island by motor. For travelling the bride will wear a silver grey beude dress trimmed with lilac and a corsage bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Brewer will make her home in the Town of Mount Royal.
