

The ideal inside overcoat

SHREDDED WHEAT

Keeps you warm and healthy
Packed with energy - high in calories
Delicious any way... any meal

WARNING

The following Ranches are Members of THE CHARLOTTETOWN FOX BREEDERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION and are therefore provided with the services of a punnet Blood tested and branded

Persons entering illegally any of these Ranches will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

McLure & McKinnon—Union Vale Ranch, Vimy Ranch.

F. Boyver—Boyver Ranch.

W. K. Rogers—Dalton Ranch, Bellevue Ranch, Flood Ranch, Smallwood Ranch

C. L. McKay—Lawndale Ranch

J. A. McDonald—Bridgeview Ranch

P. A. Farquharson—East Royalty Ranch

Walter S. Grant—Silver Sheen Ranch

E. R. Brow—Brow Ranch

Ed. Saunders—Newstead Ranch

J. A. Webster—General Fur Farms Ltd.

J. Agnew Fur Farms

W. L. McEachern

J. D. Jenkins

J. B. Roper

A. Mutch

The Charlottetown Silver Black Fox Co. Ltd.

Legal Counsel
W. E. Bentley, K. C.
J. J. Johnston, K. C.

The Charlottetown Fox Breeders' Protective Association

Attention Potato Dealers

Be sure and have your Tags ready for Potato Shipping. The Charlottetown Guardian Job Printery is in a position to fill all orders at most attractive prices and can make prompt delivery.

BIG DEMAND

FOR THE NEW ENLARGED DICTIONARY

1 COUPON AND 98 CENTS

Readers of The Guardian are daily taking advantage of the opportunity to obtain a valuable Dictionary at a merely nominal expense.

It contains thirty to forty per cent more defined words than any similar dictionary.

THE BIGGER AND BETTER DICTIONARY

"Your Old Dictionary is out of Date." Clip the Coupon and get the new one by sending at once to

The Charlottetown Guardian

E. R. BROW

146 Richmond St. Charlottetown
Fire, Life, Accident, Sickness and Plate Glass Insurance at Lowest Rate.
Good Strong Stock Companies
Agent at Summerside, Lloyd Lewis.

BAZAAR AT ST. CATHERINES

The Women's Institute of St. Catherines held a very successful Bazaar at the School house on Thursday evening, December 1st. Notwithstanding the condition of the roads, a large crowd was present, to enjoy the programme and profit by the sale of useful and fancy articles. About 7.30 p.m. the audience was called to order and a motion made and seconded that Mr. Walter Shaw be chairman for the evening. This was carried unanimously.

The programme was begun with the members of the Institute singing and Institute Song "It's a Good Time to get Acquainted" in splendid style. This was followed by a reading by Arthur McNeil, entitled "The Kid's last fight," given with his usual fine delivery. A violin selection by Miss Mary Morrow was next enjoyed. A solo by Mr. Will Shaw "Down on the farm" was very enthusiastically received by the audience and an encore insisted on.

Miss Olga McNevin gave a reading entitled "The Face on the Bar-room floor," in splendid style. This was followed by a Tableau "Home Sweet Home" which was sung by Miss Helen Morrow and Miss Gracie Lamont.

The characters of the tableau were, Grandpa—Mr. Dan McNeil; Grandma—Mrs. McLean; John—Mr. Elywn Morrow; John's wife—Miss Myrtle Chandler; The Children—Isabelle and Alexander Shaw.

Here an intermission was given when home made candy and tickets on a quilt were sold.

The programme was continued by having the lucky ticket drawn for the quilt. This proved to be 71096, and held by a young bachelor of Long Creek, Mr. Bruce MacLean.

A dialogue was now given "Raising the Price of Butter," Miss Hilda McNevin taking the part of the Irish lady, Miss Chandler an old maid; Miss Olga McNevin a dutch lady; Miss Gracie Lamont, a stylish Yankee lady; and Miss Helen Morrow Aunt, very hard of hearing. All the parts were well acted, especially Aunt who was very real with white hair bonnet and lace shawl.

A lively selection on the organ by Miss Mary Morrow followed, to which an encore was demanded.

Mr. Walter Shaw now gave a solo in his usual splendid style and responded to an encore, with an old favorite asking the audience to join in the chorus, which was done with much enthusiasm.

A full chorus rendered "Bonnie Dundee" to close this part of the evening's entertainment.

The sale of articles was now put on. Mr. Walter Shaw making a splendid auctioneer and good prices were realized, as bidding was very lively. Lunches were provided with hot tea, making a pleasant ending to a pleasant evening. The proceeds of the evening were a little over $70.00.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

On Friday evening, Nov. 18, the people of Maple Plains assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are leaving Maple Plains and moving to Middleton where they intend to reside in the future.

The night was pleasantly spent in music, dancing and card playing, and an excellent lunch was served by Mrs. John Cairns, Mrs. Edward Murphy and Miss Ina McCarville, after which Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were presented with a purse and a well worded address. Although greatly taken by surprise Mr. and Mrs. Roberts thanked the people for their kindness, reassuring them that they would visit them often, and that they would not forget their kind neighbors and friends of Maple Plains.

The following is the address: To Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts, Maple Plains, P. E. Island.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Roberts: It is with deep regret we learn that you are about to leave this community, so we, your friends and neighbours have assembled here to-night to bid you a fond adieu.

From the time you settled here, you have both, owing to your kind and cheerful manner, endeared yourself to each and everyone of us. To say that you shall be missed from our midst would fair give expression to our sentiment.

No person, either young or old ever went to your cheerful home without immediately feeling that they were a welcome visitor. You have always had a kind word and a cheerful smile for everyone. That is the reason, dear friends, that you have won the hearts of all.

We are glad to know that at though leaving this immediate vicinity, you shall, at least be in your old home parish, and each and everyone of us shall look forward with pleasure to your ever welcome visits to our several homes again.

In token of our good wishes we would ask you to accept this little gift, not for its intrinsic value, but as a little souvenir of your friends in Maple Plains.

Keep Minard's Lintment near at hand.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN COTTON

There passed to her Eternal Rest on Nov. 13th, one whose going will be greatly felt in the person of Mrs. Ellen Ratcliff Glover, beloved wife of John Cotton of Miscouche.

As a citizen and neighbor Mrs. Cotton was much respected and beloved. Her ever sympathetic ear, her open and willing hand to help, her quiet manner and smile, which fell like a benediction upon the tired and troubled, the sick and the needy, will long be remembered.

A devoted, loving and self-sacrificing wife and mother, she shall long be mourned.

Mrs. Cotton was the daughter of the late David Glover and Sarah Schurman, his wife of Travellers Rest. All her brothers and sisters, of which there were five, had predeceased her, except one, Mrs. George Glover of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Cotton's death brought to an end a busy useful, long and happy married life. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, six sons and two daughters—Harry E. of Wellington; William L. of Kensington; Alfred S. of Dover, Idaho; Rev. Percy G. of Calais, Me.; George L. of Winnipeg, Manitoba; John L. of Miscouche; Mrs. James C. McDonald of Sherbrook; Mrs. Albert Simpson, of South Lincoln, Mass.; Mrs. Margaret E. Connell of Kensington; Mrs. John E. Small of Miscouche and Mrs. Jesse Traflet of Miles City, Montana. There are also forty-two grandchildren.

The floral contributions were a pillow from the family; a Cross from Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Cotton and family, Charlottetown; Crescent from Mr. C. C. Baker and family, Kensington; and a large spray from the congregation of St. Anne's Church, Calais, Me., of which Rev. Percy G. is Rector.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place on Friday, Nov. 18th. The Services at the home and at the Church were conducted by the Ven. Archdeacon Charles Dew, White, of Summerside. The body was committed to the earth in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection and her soul to the mercies of her Saviour by her son the Rev. Percy G.

The Pall bearers were four sons, Harry; William; George and John, with two sons-in-law, John Small and James C. McDonald.

May her Soul rest in peace and may she come forth to Life Eternal on the Resurrection Day. (Journal and Pioneer please copy)

VIVIAN LOUISE ALCHORN

On Wednesday, October 19th, Vivian Louise, the thirteen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Urban Alchorn, Fairview, passed away to the Great Beyond.

The little one had been in her usual good condition of health until a few days before the coming of the end.

She was taken quite suddenly ill and in spite of all that medical skill and kind friends could do, on the above mentioned date her gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Vivian Louise was a beautiful child and had gotten a strong grip of the heart strings of her father and her mother. Besides the parents there are in the family two brothers and two sisters left to mourn their loss.

Yet while their sorrow is great in all such cases the loved ones can only bow in humble submission to the Divine decree, saying "not our will but Thy, O Lord, be done." Still to them it will not be all loss. Because of Vivian Louise having come into that heavenly land, that land will to the loved ones, nearer and dearer than ever before. There she will await their home-coming.

The funeral, which was quite a large one, was held on the afternoon of Friday, October 21st. The service was conducted by Rev. H. H. Staver.

Interment was in the West River cemetery.

MRS. GUST FRITZ

Mrs. Gust Fritz, highly esteemed woman of this village, died at her home here Sunday morning, Nov. 20, after an illness of almost a year.

Mrs. Fritz, who was formerly Margaret MacLean, was born Sept. 9th, 1888, at St. Margaret's, Prince Edward Island, Canada, having attained the age of 39 years. She was a daughter of the late James MacLean and Mary Ann Gillis. At the age of 16 she left home and went to Massachusetts, later going to Chicago, where she lived three years. She was united in marriage to Mr. Gust Fritz in 1917 at Minot, N. D. Following their marriage, they lived at Minot a year and then moved to Portal, N. D. In June, 1919, they came to Hoffman, having made their home here since that time.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, her mother, Mrs. Mary MacLean, Chelsie, Mass.; four brothers, Martin and Ronald MacLean, Chelsie, Mass.; Dan MacLean, Chicago, Ill.; Charles MacLean, Port Washington, Wis.; and two sisters, Mrs. A. D. Brown, Gloucester, Mass., and Mrs. Corbet, Chelsie, Mass. Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Forsyth, in Alberton. She was born at the Wharf, P. E. I., Dec. 7th, 1860.

After a long struggle with an incurable disease, during which he had all that medical science could do and give to help him fight that disease, together with the devoted, tireless care of a loving wife, he calmly passed within the veil. The last few weeks of his earthly life were spent in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Forsyth, who with their son Ralph, render of a most valuable service to Mrs. Fraser McArthur sang a solo. Interment was made in the new

"Say it with Furniture"
The Lasting Way of Saying Merry Christmas

Gift hunting becomes a fascinating pastime when you can do it at your leisure and take time to browse around and see the exquisite things so appropriate for gifts. Start right now, go through our five floors, you will find numberless ideas for everyone on your list.

Bridge Lamps
Table Lamps
Piano Lamps
Bed Lamps
Boudoir Lamps
Reading Lamps

Lamp Stands and Shades
Beautiful Christmas Gifts

Never did you see such a variety of them in Charlottetown for your approval. The latest designs and colorings are here. Colorings that will harmonize so beautifully with your hangings. There's nothing more decorative, nothing that adds to the hominess of the home than the soft colorful shades of these lamps. Shades for every room, and at prices you want to pay.

Genuine solid walnut stands beautifully turned with new antique walnut shaded finish, either Piano or Bridge style, and only $12.75 each.

Every gift of furniture you give your girl or boy friend is a gift for the future home. It is a worth while gift.

Make This a Furniture Christmas

HOLMAN'S

Summerside-Charlottetown

"Let Holman's Furnish your Home"

Presbyterian Cemetery. Loving hands and thoughtful hearts having prepared the grave to receive his last remains.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mrs. McKay in this hour of her bereavement.

Kind old lady—My poor fellow have you tried to get anything regular?

Tramp—Yes, liddy-meals—Passing Show.

Keep Minard's Lintment near at hand.

—By George McManis

Bringing Up Father

LISTEN, I'VE GOT TWO TICKETS TO SEE BURLESQUE SHOW FOR TONIGHT.

GRACIOUS, I NEVER SAW ONE.

OH, THEY ARE GREAT. I'LL BE A TREAT TO YOU, I'VE GOT THE TICKETS IN MY OVERCOAT POCKET.

ALL RIGHTEE, I'LL GO.

WHAT'S WRONG?

BY JOVE, I DON'T UNDERSTAND THIS, I CAN'T FIND MY TICKETS.

SOME SHOW, JIGGS.

I THOUGHT YOU'D LIKE IT, DINTY.

© 1927, by Fox Feature Service, Inc.