FIRE ALARM. —The firemen were called out at one o'clock yesterday for a fire at the residence of Wm. Taylor, 238 Fitzroy Street. The blaze was in a clothes closet and was extinguished before the arrival of the brigade.

TOURING P. E. I. —Dr. Franklin D. Elmer of Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y., arrived in the city Monday together with his wife and family and will spend some time here motoring to the different parts of the Island. Dr. Franklin while here may be able to secure much of nature's material for his lectures and when he goes back to his University it is hoped he will be able to speak favorably of his visit here. He will speak in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening next.

SAILORS ENTERTAINED.—Last evening about 75 men from the H. M. C. S. Patriot and the H. M. S. Valerian assembled on St. Pauls Church grounds where a most enjoyable hour w as spent. The boys entered with zest into the various games including Bowling, tug-of-war and quoits and it was not long before a large crowd of spectators appeared on the scene. When darkness came on the men gathered in the hall where an excellent musical was carried out. Besides local talent which included Mr. Charles Earle, Mr. George Beers and others, a number of the ship's men also took part. Special mention might be made of some well rendered character sketches by Mr. Green and Mr. Childs the latter giving a feminine impersonation. After the program which was a varied one was concluded a vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Mr. Raymond and others who had been instrumental in providing such an enjoyable evening.

For Sore Feet—Minard's Liniment.

RARE TREAT. —Poem Evangeline in moving pictures, League of Cross Hall, this evening. Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents. 1i PAINFUL ACCIDENT. — Mr. Thomas Callaghan, the well known tailor of this city had the misfortune to fracture his left arm Monday evening. While making repairs at the head of the cellar stairs in his home a joist he was standing on broke, and he fell to the cellar floor landing on a pile of wood. He was rushed to the City Hospital where the arm was set and he is now resting comfortable at his home.

FIRE NEAR SUMMERSIDE.—A bad fire broke out at Reid's corner about two miles from Summerside yesterday afternoon at two o'clock when from some cause unknown at present fire broke out in a large barn of Mr. William Matheson, completely destroying it, also three horses and a full crop of hay. Shortly after it started flying sparks and cinders which were carried along by the strong wind caught on the barn of Mr. Albert Kelly, about a quarter of a mile away, burning it to the ground with about thirty loads of hay, and only for the prompt action of Mr. Yeo who rushed in and saved three horses, his loss would have been much greater. The fire engine from Summerside, with a considerable number of the citizens were quickly on the scene and with the help of the neighbors saved the other building.

PERSONALS

The many friends of Miss Susie Coles, Milton will be glad to learn that she is recovering after an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. I. Hospital.

Mrs. E. F. Acorn and family left yesterday morning for Glace Bay, where they intend spending the remainder of the summer with Mrs. Acorn's parents; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shepard. Mr. Shepard is proprietor and manager of the Birch Grove Hotel of that city. Mrs. Acorn's many friends wish her and the kiddies a very pleasant vacation.

Minard's Liniment—Heals Cuts.

A MAGNIFICENT SIGHT—One of the finest sights one could wish to see is the large eight acre field of Irish Cobbler potatoes, now in full bloom, owned by Mr. John Stetson of Marshfield. The even rows of tops cultivated right up to the minute, are exceptionally tall and full flowered and will be ready for the September Market. Mr. Stetson has about nineteen acres in all of these splendid seed potatoes and will no doubt reap a rich harvest in the fall. The field referred to if photographed would make a splendid ad for the Garden Province.

MILK FACTORY ENTERED—The Charlottetown Condensed Milk Factory was entered some time Monday night and senseless acts of vandalism perpetrated, valuable apparatus and office equipment being wantonly destroyed the stock of butter interfered with and spattered over the walls. The nature of the act points to young boys as the malefactors, and these whoever they are will no doubt be speedily brought to justice. Another deed of juvenile lawlessness recently occurred in the same section of the city, a north-end merchant discovering that he had been victimized by youthful burglars who were entering his store with a skeleton key and periodically pilfering the till.

Warned Not To Overlook

I believe that this attitude of mind is profoundly mistaken. Admittedly Britain is a European power and therefore the affairs of Europe can never be indifferent to her, as they are, in effect, to America; she must bear her share in the responsibilities of Europe; but it is not and I doubt whether—except in some great crisis such as 1914—it can ever be a decisive share.

Or, to express it more shortly, England can have a European policy, but the British Empire must have a world policy; because England is not only related to the European family, but is the actual head of the British Empire that is spread throughout the world.

Cabinet Will

with a view to forming an executive within easy reach of Sir Henry Thornton.

Other matters which will have to be taken up shortly concern the floating of the refunding loan in the fall, the attitude of the government towards the suggested round table confreences between the British and Domnion governments over imperial relations, and the nomination of a Canadian representative to the Empire Food Board. There has also been some tentative consideration of a revision of the trade agreement between Canada and the West Indies concluding in 1920. The view has been taken in the West Indies that they are not getting the ocean service guaranteed under the 1920 agreement and the proposal has been discussed that Canada should cease her subsidies to the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company and increase the service of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine. The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company recently asked for an increase in subsidy for the West Indies service, in support of the argument that the Canadian Government Merchant Marine service should be increased. It is asserted that with the increase in subsidy the total paid to the Royal Mail line in ten years would pay for four additional steamers.

many a word-battle with the above mentioned supporter of Mrs Cochrane in the mayoralty contest, and Gretchen Gomegys as Lucy, the colored house-keeper in the Cochrane home were all admirably executed.

Brilliant repartee abounded throughout the entire play which contained some unusual and unexpected developments climaxed by an accident on election night to the daughter of the candidates, news of whch reached her parents just as the final election returns were being heard and banished from ther minds thought of anything other than their daughter's welfare and relieving the somewhat strained relation hitherto existing between them on account of their rivalry for civic honors.

Needless to say the conventional love theme formed the usual large part of the action and was carried out to a happy conclusion.

At afternoon Chautauqua the speaker was Mrs. Josephine Dominick whose subject which was of special interest to women, was "Well dressed on a Moderate Income". The lecturer was assisted in her exhibition of tasteful and economical clothes by some of our local ladies and her whole lecture was of a very interesting and instructive character.

JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA

The meeting opened in the usual manner at 9.00 a. m. after which the following addrseses were exceptionally well read; health in the home by Peggy Essery and Health in Charlottetown by Pearl Burns.

It was decided that the boys and girls should give a basket of fruit to the orphanages.

The children should give a fine entertainment this afternoon with their folk dances, acrobatic stunts and interpretations of Nursery Rhymes.

The Health Poster contest was postponed until this morning on account of there only being three posters handed in; the kite tournament was also postponed until this morning to give the boys and girls time to finish their kites.

Pays For His Bride's Room; Paces Streets

(Canadian Press)

ATLANTIC CITY, July 29. — A dollar and forty cents in dimes and quarters may look like a lot of money back in Lancaster, Pa., but asking it to meet the expenses of a honeymoon at this resort is a bit too much to expect, Robert Rohm, of that hamlet, so learned to his chagrin.

Robert was detected in the early morning by a policeman pacing anxiously up and down in front of a hotel. Questioned, he said he had been married in Lancaster and had come here on a honeymoon trip. When he arrived he had $1.40. He used $1.25 to get a room for his bride. As for himself, he paced the streets.

Both of the honeymooners is seventeen years old.

the best men in the county. He gave his name as Sam. Gay, Prince Edward Island, and right there and then announced that the country had a new sheriff and his name was Sam Gay. That was in the summer of 1903.

Thursday morning a man disembarked from the south train here. He was so tall that his hat just grazed the top bar ofthe steel enclosure at the C. P. R. depot, and his broad chest and shoulders betokened a man in the pink of condition—it was Sheriff Sam Gay of Las Vegas county, Nevada, on a holiday after 21 years of uninterrupted service as county sheriff.

Questioned by a newspaperman, Sheriff Gay said that he was in hopes of meeting his brother, A. T. Gay, of Elnora, Alberta, whom he had not seen for 34 years. Before the sound of the words had dropped away, a man of ordinary build sauntered up to the sheriff, and casually bumped into him. The sheriff, turned, looked at the man for a minute and then in a second his face was suffused with smiles.

"Hello, brother," he said. "I knew you the first minute I saw you."

The two men shook hands warmly and then began to questio neach other about their experiences .

Sheriff Gay, in answer to his brother's question, said that he first took the office of sheriff in 1903 and has held it ever since. In the early days the sheriff was elected once a year and later on he was given a two-year term. Quite recently, however, the state laws were changed again and the county cheriff now holds office for four years at a stretch. In all the years he had been police officer, the sheriff said he had never been opposed at election time. He still has two years and a half of his present term to finish.

"Queer Doings On The Trip Over And in France"

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, July 29.—"Tony" Vince, Varsity Olympic sprinter, returned home from his trip to France today and in an interview with the "Evening Telegram" stated that after a brief rest he expects to take to the track again and run in several of Varsity's coming meets. Vince explaining his own showing stated that while training in Montreal he sprained a tendon, which crippled him considerably. Though receiving little attention the leg was quite itself when the team arrived in France. Over-training and running unfamilliar distances did not help matters which caused the re-issue of the Montreal trouble said Vince, the newspaper states that "all was not well" with the Canadians abroad. The Telegram continues the trip proved to be one long battle between trainer Hughes and coach Cornelius. "It is asserted that coach Cornelius issued instructions for no one to take a rub down without seeing the head coach first; this resulted in the break that caused many close mentions in the training quarters: "The other countries had huts right at the stadium, with their own cooks and all personal attention. The Canadian team used two hotels in Paris; strange food and mounted up huge taxi bills travelling to and from the stadium.

"The showing of Granville the walker, was far from satisfactory, but he with many other that could not stand the "pull" was nearly left stranded on a London station platform as coach Cornelius and the "picks" took a special trip to Scotand. The boys having little money, spent a few nights in a friendly police station for protection where they finally arranged their transportation home."
