BRADALBANE RURAL W. I.

The Bradalbane Rural Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Graham.

Five visitors answered the roll call by naming a Canadian town and what it was noted for.

The meeting opened with the Ode followed by the Creed in unison. It was moved, seconded and carried that the Institute members start an apron and each member to sew a patch on same with a contribution for the means of raising funds and also that they hire a man to put in the two culverts that were placed at the school gates.

The different committees reported and the following new ones were appointed for next month.

Sick—Mrs. Angus Gillis and Mrs. J. J. MacLeod. School—Mrs. Kenneth Graham and Mrs. Bismark Cousins; Programme—Mamie Snowie, Annie McDonald, Verna Matheson and Mabel Gamester.

The programme for the evening consisted of contests namely, A have this out. You've been very queer to me lately—and I believe it's been ever since that day at Hendon!"

"What is there to have out? I don't know as I'd ever been engaged!"

"What's that to do with it? You know that I love you—that I've always loved you."

"Yes, I do know," she said gently. "And you've been sweet to me. I'm grateful, I am really. But—well, a man's love doesn't mean much to a woman if she's not in love with him. I don't want to seem brutal—"

She broke off. Sothorn's face had gone very white.

"Will you tell me just where I failed with you?" he asked.
