Shirt Waist Boxes

Every lady who likes things "just right" owns a shirt waist box.

In response to many requests we've made up a number of extra nice ones.

They're made of selected pine—spendidly put together by our cabinet makers. Light weight, yet strong, smooth and clean, without flaw, crack, or splinter, large and roomy, dust proof. Will last a life time.

Please don't compare these boxes with home made articles constructed from packing cases. These are nicer and better—a different article entirely.

Price $2.50. If you wish your box covered and select your covering here, we will put it on free of charge.

CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES.

Our Ottawa despatch of yesterday morning told that the Civil Service Commission is about to report and that the report will embody a strong plea for increase of the salaries on the ground of the increased cost of living.

The plea of these Members and Senators in support of this action was that the cost of living had increased. And if it costs more to feed, clothe and lodge a member of Parliament now than it did twelve years ago—two and a half times as much—will it not also cost more to feed, clothe and lodge a clerk or a messenger?

Whether are we drifting? The cost of living has increased to lawyers, doctors, clergy, farmers, mechanics and all the army of workers, but have their incomes increased proportionally, or at all?

POLITICAL PIONEERING.

Pioneering is the first or primitive stage in the settlement of a country. Political pioneering undertakes of the same crude, and undeveloped character.

To the mind of the Pioneer editor the precedent cited appears convincing enough, not realizing that he is yet in the woods, and really lost in the woods.

It is given out that Capt. Finlayson with the Minto will endeavor to open Charlottetown harbor next week. The opening of navigation is always welcome, and if the present mild weather continues for a few days longer nature will effect the opening.

THE I. O. FORESTERS.

We print in another column today a short interview of Mr. Fowler, High Secretary of the Independent Order of Foresters in reference to the much-talked-of increase of rates to the older members of the order in consequence of the Insurance Bill now before Parliament.

When the red-bearded pirates, the Saxons and Danes And Angles, came swarming across the sea plains, And the old British stock to exterminate tried, Caledonia and Erin their efforts defied.

They are old and yet young, with a spirit possessed By the dream of the east and the hope of the west; The earth is their country, the race is their kin; In populous cities their gerdon they win.

TO OPEN THE PORT.

It is given out that Capt. Finlayson with the Minto will endeavor to open Charlottetown harbor next week. The opening of navigation is always welcome, and if the present mild weather continues for a few days longer nature will effect the opening.

THE MACS.

There's a race, or a part of a race, if you will, Of renown prehistoric, and vigorous still, Who back from their fastness scornfully hurl'd The redoubtable legions that trampled the world:

And the conquering Normans were glad to make tracks From the Macs and the Micks (who are properly Macs).

Their proud patronymics, they rightfully hold, Proclaim them descended from heroes of old. Illustrious titles that throw in the shade The dukedoms and earldoms but yesterday made:

And even the King with his royalty lacks A lineage as ancient as that of the Macs.

They are old and yet young, with a spirit possessed By the dream of the east and the hope of the west; The earth is their country, the race is their kin; In populous cities their gerdon they win.

some Macs. Distinguish'd they've been with the sword and the pen; In pulpit and parliament leaders of men; Prime ministers, presidents, merchants, viziers, They have manag'd the business o' both hemispheres; And the Dago day-laborers layin' the tracks Are boss'd by the Macs or the Micks (who are Macs).

"Twas thought by the ancients that Atlas upbore The sphere on his shoulders—'tis thought so no more; Prometheus and Atlas and all of their kith, The Titans, are now but a fable, a myth, The men who are bearing the world on their backs Are the Macs and the Micks (who are really Macs).
