 RICE POINT NOTES.—I see by the accounts from the different sections of the province, that the grain crops are turning out poor. The hay crop in this section as well as in other parts of the Island, was a heavy one, but some of it was damaged in the making. Next comes wheat which will average only half a crop and oats (except some very early fields) are light in weight but with an abundance of straw.—The farmers are now engaged in digging their potatoes, and it is the same complaint, half a crop.—Rice Point is but a small district with two and a half miles of sea coast, but we can boast of six lobster factories well equipped, and a first class, the Glenview, A. McLean, proprietors.—Rev. Daniel McLean preached an eloquent sermon at Nine Mile Creek on Sabbath evening last from Rev. xxii. 2, "In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which has twelve manner of fruit, and the leaves of the tree was for the healing of the nations." Mr. McLean does not use a single note, and yet he never pauses for a word. His knowledge of scripture is most remarkable. He can quote scores of passages and name the book, chapter, and verse, without a slip.

The Macs in Canada.
 The London Outlook notes that of the nine members of the new Prince Edward Island Ministry no fewer than five are Macs, while two of the remaining four are, respectively, a Faquabans and a Sinclair. "If anyone," it says, "would realize the hold which the Macs have on Canada let him turn to Mr. Henry Morgan's excellent volume, 'The Canadian Men and Women of the Time,' and he will find that there are 281 of them. Just think of it! Two hundred and thirty-one Macs who are ministers of the Crown, or members, or legislators, or mayors, or otherwise lifted up above their fellows."

 LET UP.—That's what the carpet man at Paton's says about the old bits of oil cloths suitable for hall stoves, etc., etc., etc. He says the demand exceeds the supply. The advertising man says: "get down on your knees" and cut up more of those "plain old ugly patterns," that were sent you before the duty went up on foreign oils. Also, don't forget to cut them the right size for under the dining-room stove, and some large enough for under the hall stove and remember to cut the price. That's what sells the goods (it's the low price.) This ad. will only bring the carpet man the customers, the rest and quality will do the rest.—JAS. PATON & Co. 13, 14
