SAD NEWS RECEIVED— Mrs. Charles Hyndman, Charlotte Residence, has been advised that her grandson, Pilot Officer Thomas Hyndman, R.C.A.F., Toronto, was killed in action overseas. Pilot Officer Hyndman was a nephew of Mr. A. W. Hyndman, Charlottetown. He has two brothers in arms, George, a gunner in the R C. A. F., and Harry, Sub-Lieutenant on a submarine.

The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Oct. 11th of Mrs J Alban MacDonald (nee Ethel McGuigan), leaving to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and the following sons and daughters: Vernon with the P. E. I. Highlanders overseas, Louis and Helen at home; Isabel, student at P. W. C.

The following brothers and sisters also survive: Frank, Wilfred, Mrs. Fred Mallett, Mrs. Thos. Whelan, and a step-mother, Mrs. John McGuigan, all of Charlottetown.

CAR HITS WAGON — Maj. James Walker, a veteran of the Boer War and the last World War, was slightly injured about 8.30 last evening when a car crashed into the rear of his wagon on the St. Peter's Road. His right knee was bruised in the accident and he also received a bump on the head. The man was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital but examination disclosed that his injuries were not severe and he was released shortly after. A member of the Royal Air Force, stationed at the Charlottetown Airport, was driving the automobile involved in the accident. Mr. Walker had just turned off a side road near the People's Cemetery when he was struck from behind. Both vehicles were driving in the direction of the city at the time. The wagon was badly damaged in the collis-

On Tuesday evening Oct. 9th an event of more than usual interest took place in Argyle Shore Hall when upwards of one hundred members and friends of the Argyle Shore and Canoe Cove section of the Church of Scotland met, to honor their pastor Rev. Harvey Bishop on the event of his approaching marriage.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. Silas Murley, while John MacQuarrie escorted Rev. Mr. Bishop and Dorothy MacNevin escorted Miss Ruth Barkley, the bride elect, to chairs placed under an arch artistically decorated with autumn leaves and Chinese lanterns, a suitable march was played by Mrs. J. Albert MacDougall.

An appropriate address was read by Neil MacDougall and Harry MacNevin made the presentation of a beautiful mantle clock with Westminster chimes, also a purse of money.

FUNERAL OF WAR VETERAN — Funeral services were held Sunday for Spurgeon Diamond, 46-year-old former athlete and veteran of the first great war. He died in hospital Friday after an illness of several weeks. Rev. I. Judson Levy, pastor of the Charlottetown Baptist Church conducted the services at a local funeral home and at the people's cemetery. Members of the Canadian Legion attended in a body. Pallbearers were former comrades in the P.E.I. Heavy Brigade in which Mr. Diamond enlisted in 1915. They included, Messrs. E.J. Tradnor, J. Dougan, W.C. MacLeod, E.M. Bagnall, P. J. Sentner and Ivan Mitchell. Mr. Diamond served for a time overseas in the 11th Field Artillery Brigade commanded by General A.G.L. McNaughton who held the rank then of Lieutenant-Colonel. Earlier Mr. Diamond had been with other artillery units. He remained on active service until the end of the war. Surviving are his wife formerly Mrs. Minnie MacDonald, his father, Elijah Diamond of Charlottetown and two brothers, Melvin Diamond and Preston Diamond, also of Charlottetown.

—BRIDE SHOWERED.—On Wednesday evening Sept. 30th the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton was the scene of a very pleasant event when neighbors and friends gathered to tender a miscellaneous shower to their daughter Eilene who is one of the season's brides. The drawing room was prettily decorated with Autumn leaves and potted plants. The bride to be was escorted to a seat of honor by Miss Elizabeth Ramsay under a beautiful arch of cut flowers and autumn leaves, to the strains of Here Comes The Bride, played by Mrs. George Ramsay. The many beautiful gifts which were brought in were opened by Mrs. Dugald MacNutt and Mrs. Neil Simpson, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Grace Easter and Mrs. Walt. Miss Georgie Yeo and Mrs. Keith Mann arranged them on the table. Miss Hamilton thanked those present for their lovely gifts in a gracious manner and all joined in singing For She Is A Jolly Good Fellow. The gifts were costly and numerous. A beautiful china dinner set was a gift from several friends in Hamilton. When the gifts had all been admired all joined in a sing song of old favorite songs. A delicious lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing. Music for the occasion was furnished by Messrs Eddie Matthews, Wallace MacKinnon and Keith Ramsay.—V.

"Only one-quarter of one per cent of the 90,600 ration coupon books issued to residents of Prince Edward Island have so far been undelivered," it was revealed last night by Mr. Charles P. Archibald, Eastern Director of the Ration Division, Ottawa. He arrived in Charlottetown Sunday on an official visit to this province and leaves by plane this morning for Halifax, N S.

TO HEAD COMMITTEE — His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman said last night that he had been officially notified that he was to be chairman of the Local Ration Board to be established shortly in Charlottetown. He had been informed in a letter from Mr. Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The Board will consist of from four to eight voluntary workers and the office will be in City Hall. His Worship added

ANNUAL BREAKFAST — Rev. G. Crowley, C S S R. was the guest speaker at the annual breakfast of the Holy Name Society of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer held in the parish hall Sunday. He spoke on his experiences as a missionary in Newfoundland Mr. Maurice Martin, Vice-President, presided in the absence of the President, Mr. P J. Rossiter, who was prevented from attending because of ill health. A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mr. Leonard MacDonald and seconded by Mr. James Coyle. Messrs. Russel St. John and John McInnis also spoke briefly. The breakfast was held immediately following the 7.30 mass.

Clarence (Windy) Steele, well known Summerside hockey player, left yesterday morning for Toronto to join the Maple Leafs' training camp. Windy is the property of the Providence Reds, of the International League, with whom he played last year. During the hockey season last year Providence's leading daily paper devoted a complete sports page write up with illustrations to Windy headlining him as the team's most improved player.

This year the Reds and the Leafs have a co-operative agreement whereby the two teams will train together with the Reds having first call on all excess Leaf players and the Leafs will have first call on all Providence players. This offers an outstanding opportunity for Windy to make the National League, if not now, later in the season. He may rest assured that back in Summerside the whole town will be pulling for him.—S.

WEDNESDAY

74TH BIRTHDAY — Mr. W. S. Crozier of Darnley celebrated his 74th birthday with a jolly party on Oct. 9th, attended by upwards of 50 neighbors and friends. Mrs. Harry Crozier read an illuminated address and Mr. George McKay acted as chairman for the happy gathering. The gift of a substantial purse was presented by his brother, Major J. A. Crozier of Los Angeles, California, who spoke of the great pleasure it afforded him to be present and meet so many old friends.

A wide circle of friends will learn with regret of the sudden death of Mrs. Flossie Bruce which occurred at her home, 55 Douglas Street, yesterday afternoon. She suffered a stroke at 11.30 in the morning and passed away about 5 p.m.

The deceased had been working about the yard when she was stricken. She had not complained of being unwell up until the time she took the stroke.

The late Mrs. Bruce was born at Cavendish 59 years ago and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parkman. Apart from a short time spent in Boston, Mass. she lived almost all her life in Charlottetown. Her husband the late Captain Augustine Bruce of this city, predeceased her by more than 30 years.

She is survived by three sons: Arthur on the Guardian staff, Charlottetown; Harold, also living in Charlottetown, and Lawrence, Everett, Mass. Other survivors include: her stepmother, Mrs. Fred Parkman, and two half-sisters, Mrs. Leo Doucette and Mrs. Stanley Biggar all of Charlottetown.

Sgt. Terris H. Miller, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. J.C. Miller and the late Mrs. Miller, Meadow Bank, near Cornwall, P.E.I. is officially listed as "missing after air operations" in the 394th casualty list of the Royal Canadian Air Force issued from Ottawa last night. His father had been informed by wire previously.

Sgt. Miller, who is a wireless air gunner, was born in Scotland and is about 23 years of age. He has been residing here for a number of years along with the rest of the family, however, and is well and favorably known in the province.

He went overseas about a year ago after serving with the Air Force in Canada before going to the British Isles. Previous to enlisting he worked at home on the farm.

Two other brothers, Bert and Jack, are at present with the Canadian patriots, ever watchful for adian Army Overseas while a third brother, Wallie, is with the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Re-

PRETTY CEREMONY AT BISHOP'S FALLS. — A pretty July wedding was solemnized in Sacred Heart Church, Bishop's Falls, on Wednesday morning, July 29th, when Geraldine Bouzane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bouzane, of Bishop's Falls, became the bride of Sgt. Bernard Trainor of the P. E. I. Highlanders, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. The ceremony and Nuptial Mass was performed by Rev. Jos. Hogan, P. P., and was served by the bride's brother, Donald, in the presence of members of the family and a large number of invited guests. After the ceremony, Pipers from the Groom's Regiment, piped the bridal couple from the Church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of ivory satin and train veil, wreathed in orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden-hair fern. The bride's sister, Miss Marie Bouzane, was bridesmaid. She wore a sheer dress of turquoise blue, with halo head dress and veil. The best man was Sgt. Clarence Howatt, P. E. I. Highlanders.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Home friends will hear with deepest regret of the sudden death in Victoria, B. C., on September 24th of James Leigh Hayden, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Hayden of Vernon River, P. E. I., who passed away in his sleep. Mr. Hayden has been a resident of Victoria for the last twenty years and was buried from Sand Mcrtuary in Royal Oak cemetery. Mr. Hayden who is so kindly remembered was a veteran of the Great War, being wounded by shrapnel at Coucellette which left him partically blind. He leaves to mourn his sister Miss Myrtle Hayden of Calgary and a brother Glen, also a veteran of the Great War who served with the 31st Calgary Battalion and is now a prisoner in Italy.

On Sept. 23rd, a large crowd of friends gathered at the home of D. A. MacLeod of Hopefield to express to him their felicitations on the occasion of his birthday and also his retirement from the railroad. A very enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and music and during the evening Mr. Leslie read a well worded address to Mr. MacLeod and presented him with a smoker's set. In the address he and his fellow-workers congratulated Mr. MacLeod on his well earned reward for many years of faithful service on the railroad, that of being pensioned for his remaining years.

He also told Mr. MacLeod that the bond of fellowship which had been created between him and his co-workers on the railroad would not be broken but would remain

THURSDAY

Mr. S. S. Hessian, K.C., Montague, was fined $1 and costs or 30 days and bound over to keep the peace for six months by Stipendiary Magistrate Joseph Macdonald at the conclusion of an assault case in Montague yesterday. He was charged with common assault on Dr. T. V. Grant, M. P., also of Montague.

When the judgment was given, Mr. Hessian, the defendant, served notice of appeal against it. He had previously taken objection to Magistrate Macdonald's jurisdiction, maintaining that the case should have come before Mr. L. B. Mellish, Magistrate for the Town of Montague. In the case of Mr. Mellish's illness, the latter's consent should have been obtained, the defendant contended

A marine railway drydock for Charlottetown, capable of accommodating vessels as large as the Borden-Tormentine car ferry, will be pressed for by the Charlottetown Board of Trade, it was decided at the quarterly meeting of the Board last evening. The proposed slip would be 3,000 tons dead weight and would cost in the vicinity of $350,000.

Mr. Gordon Avard was appointed vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. F. Walter Hyndman whose resignation was accepted last night. Capt. Hyndman left recently on active service. Mr. Avard's appointment left a vacancy on the Council and the regrettable death of Mr. J C A. Gordon some time ago also left a Council vacancy. These were filled by the election of Messrs W.N. Wilson and Major Alex Mathieson, M L A.

OFFICIAL VISITATION — Mr. Victor L. Taylor, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of the I.O.O.F of the Maritime provinces of Canada, Glace Bay, accompanied by Mr E.K O'Brien, Senior Warden, Pictou, paid an official visit to Port La Joie Encampment in this City last evening. After the regular session of the Encampment the meeting was open to members of the subordinate and Rebekah Lodges to enable their members to hear the message of the Grand Patriarch and his visiting Grand Warden. The message of the Grand Patriarch was a splendid effort to place before the members of the branch of the I.O.O.F of which he is head, the desire of that body to carry on. His address was a masterpiece and was attentively listened to by the large number present. The Grand Chief leaves for the mainland this morning to visit other encampments and to place before them the plan for carrying on the work in those trying times. Both Messrs. Taylor and O'Brien have been visitors to this city before and are always interested in our progress.

Mr. Arthur Cudmore, Charlottetown, was drowned shortly after six o'clock last evening when a large truck he was driving crashed through the railing of Pinette Bridge into the channel of the river. His wife and Lloyd Gregory of Charlottetown, who were passengers in the truck, escaped a similar fate when they crawled out through the cab window and were able to get out of the water.

At an early hour this morning, the body of the victim had not been recovered but a member of Mr. A. P. Ceretti's diving crew was preparing to go down for it. It was not thought possible to get the truck, the large moving van of Mr. Ralph Jenkins, Charlottetown, out of the water. There was about seven feet of water above its top.

The late Mr. Cudmore had taken a load of furniture from Charlottetown to Antigonish, N. S. and was returning from the latter place when the mishap occurred. The cause of the accident was not learned last night.

Before crashing through the bridge, the truck struck a telephone pole on the bridge and brought down wires connecting this city with the mainland. Repairs were made a few hours later.

Mrs. Cudmore received a severe cut on the leg in the accident and had to get medical attention. However, a few hours after she was reported to have recovered sufficiently to be about again. Mr. Gregory escaped serious injury.

The deceased was a man about 25 years of age and is well-known in the city. On the outbreak of war he joined the P. E. I. Highlanders but after serving with the unit for a time was discharged as medically unfit. After returning to Charlottetown he worked for about a year driving one of Ed's taxis. He left that job about two years ago and worked for a time with the Canadian National Railways. Recently he went to work for Mr. Jenkins who operates a transfer business in the city.

Surviving besides his wife are four small children. His father is dead and his mother is living near Johnstone's River.

ISLAND GIRLS ENLIST—Four young ladies from this province left here yesterday for Halifax to join a unit of the Canadian Women's Army Corps there. Included among the C.W.A.C. recruits were Lucy Helen Gray and Ruth Irene Gray, a couple of sisters from Alberton. Others leaving yesterday were Margaret McInnis, Summerside and Laura Mae Cousins of Stanhope. The girls were enlisted through the local recruiting office under the direction of Lt.-Col. R. C. Chandler, recruiting officer for Prince Edward Island.

Five buildings, including a barn and four smaller farm buildings, all owned by Mr. Robert Dunphy of Margate Road near Kensington were destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The blaze was discovered about 4 o'clock. Origin of the fire was unknown. Mr. Dunphy said he visited his barns at 8 o'clock the previous evening and everything was all right He said he did not even have a lantern with him then.

Loss included five horses and six milk cows, all the crop and most of the farm machinery

Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and saved the farm dwelling.

Loss was only partially covered by insurance. There was no immediate estimate available of the total loss. —S

CORNWALL WEDDING. — A pretty wedding of interest to many friends took place at Cornwall United Church on Wednesday Sept. 16 at 11 P.M. when Miss Alice Howard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Howard, Cornwall, became the bride of Forden Wilson son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wilson of Hedford, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Skinner. The bride given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin trimmed with orange blossoms and accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Verna McPhail who was dressed in blue crepe with a small hat and veil and carrying a boquet of beautiful flowers, while the groom was supported by her brother, Arthur. FRIDAY

St. Anne's Church, Lot 65, was filled Sunday evening, October 4th when the parishioners gathered together to tender a farewell to their beloved pastor, Rev. A. L. Herrell, who has been forced to resign on account of ill health.

Following Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament an appropriate address was read by Mr. Wm. Cullen and a well filled purse was presented to the Rev. Pastor by Mr. Matthias Murray.

A wedding of more than unusual interest took place at St. Pauls church, Sturgeon on Wednesday Sept. 23rd when Ann Campbell daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Little Pond, became the bride of Aloysius Macdonald of Panmure.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Mullally. The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Dan McCormac of Charlottetown, Mr. William Kearney of Sturgeon a cousin of the groom was best man.

—CAR ACCIDENT —Yesterday morning about 4.45 one of the cars of the Airways Taxi Co., crashed into a truck owned by McFarlane Produce Co, Ltd., which was parked in front of their building on Water Street, Summerside. Both vehicles were considerably damaged. The driver of the taxi, Mr. John Perry was taken to the Prince County Hospital but was discharged later in the day. He had suffered considerable cuts and bruises but was not seriously injured. The only passenger was a sergeant of the R. C. A. F. and as far as is known he was not seriously injured.—S.

—COURT NEWS — Before His Honour Judge Shaw, in the county court, a case is now being tried for an action brought by Mr. Walter Bergmann against the Prince Edward Island Fur Pool. Damages for the amount of $450.00 is being claimed for the loss of twenty three fox pups which the plaintiff claimed died as a result of using feed purchased from the defendant which was unfit for use. Mr E. H. Strong, K.C., and F. L. Compton are appearing for the plaintiff and D. O. Stewart for the defendant. The case is still progressing.—S.

The body of Arthur W. Cudmore, 25-year-old Charlottetown man, was found about four o'clock yesterday afternoon lying against a pile under Pinette bridge, about 15 feet from the truck in which he plunged to his death early Wednesday evening. Searchers dragging the river found the body.

The victim's wife and another passenger, 22-year-old Lloyd Gregory of this city, managed to crawl out the cab window of the large furniture van and swim to the bridge. They clung to a pile there and shouted for help until rescued by a man with a dory.

An inquest into the death of Mr. Cudmore was held in Pinette last evening by Coroner Dr. Lester Brehaut of Murray River.

The verdict returned by the jury was "that the said Arthur W. Cudmore came to his death by drowning in the Pinette River on October 14 whilst driving Ralph Jenkins' truck at an excessive rate of speed while under the influence of Liquor."

On Wednesday afternoon five men, all of Summerside, were placed under arrest by the R. C. M. P., as a result of a several months investigation into the illegal sale of liquor. John Gallant, Harry Gallant, Frank Gallant, Clovie Perry and Andrew Perry, were the men taken into custody, on two charges of conspiracy. Either of the charges carries a penalty, on conviction, of seven years imprisonment.

The case was opened yesterday afternoon before Prince County Magistrate W. E. Darby. Mr. Peter J. Hughes of Fredericton, N. B., is the senior counsel for the prosecution and R. S. Hinton his associate. Mr. W. Henry Noonan of Summerside is appearing for the defendants.

At the preliminary hearing yesterday the men were formally charged with conspiracy to defraud the Crown of liquor revenue. The case was adjourned until Friday Oct. 23. The prisoners were released on $5000 bail each.
