JOAN OF ARC COLOR CUT-OUTS

GO INTO FRANCE

This is the fourth day's chapter of the story of Joan of Arc. Follow the adventures of The Maid of Orleans. Soon you will have a whole set of cut-outs with which to act out the story.

Meanwhile the dangers of France darkened and thickened. The English leader, Salisbury, was on his way to Orleans and the French King, poor, indolent, and ill-advised, was debating whether he should retreat into Spain or Scotland.

The voice which Joan heard became more frequent and more urgent. The word now was always, "Go—go into France!" At last it told her the way to go. "Go," said the voice, "to Vaucouleurs, to Robert de Baudricourt, the governor; he will give you men-at-arms, and send you to the King."

Cartoonist and Author to Fight

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Clair Briggs, cartoonist, and Ellis Clark Butler, author, are to have a fight—yes, regular boxing bout. Dorothy Gish is to referee, and Fanny Hurst and Booth Tarkington are to do the Charleston. It will be an author's benefit.

Millions Squandered by Wine Trust, Charge

BAKU, Russia, Feb. 17.—On an allegation that they squandered millions of dollars of state money in night revels, picnics and the like, a number of officials of the Azerbaijan State Wine Trust have been hauled before the Supreme Court here.

TREE-TOP STORIES

BIG AND LITTLE "LET'S play 'Big and Little,'" said Betty to Billy. "How do you play that?" Billy asked. "Sit down here on the walk and wait for an ant," laughed Betty. "Now look at the ant until you feel BIG!" "Oooh!" exclaimed Billy. "I feel most like a GIANT. How funny!" "Now," said Betty, "lie down on your back and look at the top of the oak tree. See! How LITTLE you feel?" "It's like Alice in Wonderland," said Billy. "Now.... let's play BIG again!"

Gleanings From Tryon and Vicinity

Mr. Phillip Callbeck celebrated his 87th birthday on the 14th at the home of his son-in-law's, Thos. Johnston at Summerside. Several members of his family were present at the annual dinner. Mr. Callbeck spends his summers at Tryon, and is remarkably well preserved. His many friends here join in congratulations upon another birthday in his usual good health.

One morning last week when John Howatt went to feed his fox he found a five silver black fox had got in the outside enclosure. The snow was so deep it had been able to go over the top of the wiring. Mr. Howatt hastily summoned help from his nearest neighbor, Bowley Leard. The fox was surrounded so that it could not escape. Mr. Howatt then entered the pen and succeeded in capturing it. Upon examination it proved to be a fine male and is registered. Up to date no owner has appeared.

We are pleased to report that Mr. John Nicholson of Crapaud is much improved in health.

Mrs. Wilfred Inman started for Summerside on Thursday to attend the celebration of her father's birthday. But she did not reach Summerside until Saturday, having spent two days and nights on board a snow bound train.

The storms of last week were by far the worst of the season. All traffic on the highways was suspended from Thursday night until Saturday afternoon. In several places the drifts are so high that it is possible to walk over the electric wires. The Albany Baptist Church was so snowed under that no attempt was made to shovel it out and the service on Sunday evening was cancelled.

Luke Wood, Esq., is somewhat improved. He is able to be out, and is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Lyman.

A fancy dress carnival was to have been put on last week at the North Tryon rink, but the storms have made it impossible to carry out the programme.

The young man to whom we referred recently as disappointing the Young People, has at last satisfied curiosity. He arrived home quietly one day last week with his bride. Completely stealing a march on the watches and surprised everybody when he appeared at the Baptist service on Sunday afternoon with his bride. She was Miss Stewart of Bowley. We can now say Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carr. Congratulations. They were married at Summerside.

In spite of advance conditions two hockey matches were put through this week. Tryon playing Albany; Tryon was the victor. Victoria played Augustine Cove and again Victoria triumphed. It seems impossible for the other teams to get Victoria's pace so far this season.

On Thursday, 4th inst, Mrs. McNeil, widow of the late Jos. McNeil passed away very suddenly. Mrs. McNeil was within one month of ninety years of age, and was a very remarkable woman. Her family were all in their own homes, and would have gladly given their mother a home with them but she refused to leave her own house and lived alone. Her son Wallace was spending a few days with her. On Thursday morning she was about as usual and apparently in her usual health, but early in the forenoon she complained of weakness and in a few minutes expired. Her funeral was held on Wednesday, 10th, Rev. Geo. Somers attending.

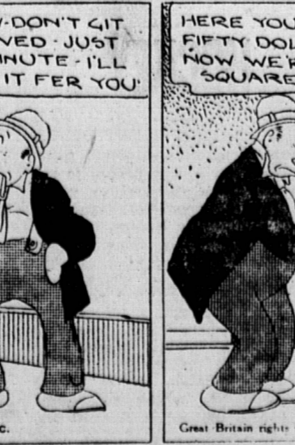

Mrs. Toombs, Sr., is seriously ill with pneumonia. Dr. Boyer is in attendance.

We regret to know that Mrs. Somers, wife of Rev. Geo. Somers is very poorly, she has been confined to her room for the past week.

Advertising pays you! Advertising brings to millions, at reasonable prices, comforts and conveniences that without advertising would be luxuries that only a few could enjoy. Canada is an advertising nation. That is one reason why the man with moderate means here enjoys more comforts than most wealthy men abroad. Because thousands on thousands of people ask for a certain article by the same name, which they have read in the same advertisements, it is possible for the advertiser to sell this item at a minimum of effort. It is therefore possible to manufacture and to distribute this product at a saving which you share with the advertiser. When you figure the number of these items in your daily life built by advertising, you can appreciate that advertising does pay you! Advertisements enable you to buy better things at less cost.
