MARTIN LUTHER'S WEDDING RING

The United States now boast possession of Martin Luther's wedding ring bearing the date 1525.

The one time possession by the leader of the German Reformation made its way past the customs, a short while ago, unostentatiously and undetected.

It was despatched from England along with some trinkets of moderate value, and on arrival was assessed for duty according to the value of the gold only. Had its identity been declared, it would have passed in free of duty but for sake of greater safety no mention was made to any one of the ring's impending voyage.

The ring is in a wonderful state of preservation and the emblems carved in the gold, which include the torch, the lily, the sword, Jacob's ladder, the traitor's rope and others, all of which are subservient to the main figure of Christ on the Cross, are still very clearly defined. The ring was in the estate of the late W. Wilsey Martin, F.R.G.S. of Oxford, England. Wilsey Martin was one time a collaborator of Gilbert and Sullivan fame. The ring has descended to a grandson who is now living in the United States.

MRS. PATRICK TRAINOR.

There passed peacefully away in the Charlottetown Hospital, on July 4th, Mrs. Patrick Trainor of South Melville. The deceased was 50 years old and a daughter of the late Michael Dougherty of Emyvale. She was a dutiful wife, a kind and tender mother, a charitable neighbour, and a devout member of the Catholic Church. During her whole life, she bore her troubles with patience, and continually kept the one thought in mind "The Salvation of her soul". All her trials and sufferings were borne with becoming Christian patience, and her ever hospitable home was made bright by her smiling countenance and cheerful disposition. In the home circle which had been brightened by her presence, but now, cruelly saddened by the unflinching hand of death, her memory will long be cherished. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, four daughters, Mary, teacher of Darnley, Cecelia Ellen and Della and one son, Charles at home, also Mrs. Frank

MASTER MASON CUT PLUG SMOKING

Castello, Emyvale, Mrs. Eple Costello, Elmwood, and four brothers John of Roxbury, Mass., and William of Rochester, N. Y. On July 6th, the large funeral cortege wended its sorrowful way to St. Joseph Church, Kelly's Cross, where a Requiem mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Curran, and all that was mortal of a noble woman, was laid quietly to rest to await the final grand awakening of the just. Many spiritual and floral offerings were received from kind friends, which shows the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall-bearers, were, James Trainor, Peter Tools, Peter Malone, James McKenna, Anas Clark and Frank Bradley. May the Lord grant unto her eternal rest, and may the light of his love shine upon her forever. We shall miss the kind face and the counsel Off' spoken so kindly and free. Of one we shall never more see. Until we are free from earth's troubles, And pass down the narrow way To the gates of that wonderful city.

Where eternity seems but a day. Palestine mandate, is fully satisfied. We are taught that in loving kindness. Such trials to us are given; So in silence we bow to God's power. And there's one more waiting in Heaven.
