DEATH AT HIGHFIELD

There passed away peacefully at Highfield on Sunday, Dec. 19th, Emily Grace Stead, widow of the late Wallace Stead, aged 53 years. The loss of a mother is mourned by her two sons Harold and Sidney and her four daughters, Mrs. G. W. McGregor, Mrs. S. Halroyd, Mrs. H. Storey and Marion at home. The funeral service will be conducted at her residence in Highfield on Tuesday, Dec. 21st, service starting at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Highfield Cemetery.

There passed away peacefully at her eternal reward, on Nov. 23rd, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mary McKinnon, Rollo Bay, West, the late Mrs. Mary A. Wilson, in the eightieth year of her age. Her illness was of about a month's duration, which she bore with Christian fortitude. Everything possible was done to alleviate her sufferings, but with no avail, the cause of death claimed her for his own. The deceased was born at New Annan and was the daughter of the late Wilson and his wife, Margaret. Three brothers predeceased her: Hugh, James, and John (John and Margaret, Mrs. Byrne). One brother, George, still survives on the homestead.

Thousands of citizens turned out in the small hours of the morning to lend an amazing spectacle as they gazed with upturned faces into the seething mass of smoke and flame. Minor explosions could be heard in parts of the structures as walls fell out, floors dropping through, etc., all the while spitting stubbornly at every available stream of water which turned mostly into steam, so great was the inferno.

OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS.—Mr. Robert Ward Rogers, in the 49th year of his age, at Mount Stewart, P. E. I., left his native province 27 years ago. He located in St. Charles, Mich., where he had since resided. His funeral, which took place from the Methodist church there, of which he was a member, was largely attended. He was buried in his usual capacity, and it required a car to carry the oral tributes, showing the esteem in which he was held. He was buried with Masonic honors as he was a member of that body. He leaves to mourn their loss and cherish his memory, his wife and two sons, St. Charles, his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers, and one brother, Ernest, of Fanningbrook, and one sister, Mrs. J. E. Dinwiddie, Midgill, besides a large circle of friends and relatives.

WORKMEN SALVAGING GOODS.—The workmen salvaging goods from the ruins of the recent fire, found a cash box containing $75.00 with the cash not searched, and a box containing $80.00 in copper, the property of Mr. Alex. McPherson. Two day men are taking out shafting and portions of machinery, the property of the Murley Printing Company. The safe of B. Conrad & Co. has been taken out of the temporary quarters adjoining. The contents were found to be intact.

RELEIVING.—Mr. Vernon Campbell is acting Station Master at Altony during the absence of Mr. McKay who is expected home soon with Mrs. McKay from their honeymoon.

BIG POTATO DEALER.—Mr. Earl Boutler, Albany, was in town on Monday, Mr. Boutler was a heavy buyer of seed potatoes this fall. In his vacation, an enormous quantity of potatoes, the product of Mrs. Harry Brown, City is changed and it is hoped it may be held for her recovery.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Mr. Geo. Sutherland of the Massey Harco, has received the sad news that his nephew, Jonathan A. Birke, formerly of Cardigan, had passed away in the Rocky Mountain House, Alberta. The remains have been forwarded to this city accompanied by Howard Birke, a brother of the deceased. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

WEST DEVON WAS DEEPLY SHOCKED.—West Devon was deeply shocked on Tuesday morning, Dec. 14th, when it became known that Mr. Mackie, one of the oldest and most respected citizens had passed away at his home. Mr. Mackie had not been in his usual robust health for some time past, but his death has been a severe shock to all. Mr. Mackie was respected by all and will be greatly missed in the community. The funeral took place on Sunday, Dec. 16th, at 11 a.m. in Epworth Hall of Trinity United Church, Summerside, for the purpose of organizing a Ministerial Association. The Ministers present and of those who were not able to be present approved of such an organization. The purposes of this association are: 1. Fellowship, 2. Spiritual Inspiration and Mental Stimulation, 3. Consideration of Moral and Social problems of common interest. The officers of the Association are: President: Rev. A. A. MacLeod, Summerside. 1st. Vice-Pres.: Rev. G. T. Spriggs, Kensington. 2nd. Vice-Pres.: Rev. B. E. Carlew, Biddeford. Secretary: Rev. M. C. MacDonald, Summerside.

WEST KENSINGTON.—West Kensington closing took place yesterday morning, the exercises commencing at 10 a.m. The musical program was under the direction of Prof. W. E. Fletcher, and a splendid program of the pupils and addressed by the Chairman, the Rev. Mr. Eaton, each of whom complimented the pupils and well-deserved tribute to Prof. Fletcher for the capable way in which the choruses and songs were rendered; and also to the excellent singing of the choir, which maintained the excellent discipline through the exercises.

TORONTO, Dec. 20

Henry Colman, former General Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia and financier of international repute, died at his winter home in Camden, S. C., according to word received by relatives here last night. He was seized with an attack of heart trouble at two o'clock yesterday afternoon and died shortly afterwards. Mr. Colman was in his 75th year. He was the only member of his family with him when he died was his daughter, Miss Edith McLeod of Toronto. Mr. Colman was the son of the late Captain John McLeod, of "Cove," New London, Prince Edward Island. He was born in March, 1851. He was educated in the public school at New London, his nineteenth year and entered business life as book-keeper for Messrs. A. Oliver, general commission merchant. He read law for a time, and afterwards joined the staff of the Merchant's Bank of Prince Edward Island in 1875, becoming manager of the branch at Georgetown in 1875. In 1882 he became connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia, and was manager at Amherst, N. S., Winnipeg, Minneapolis and Chicago. His ability won for him rapid promotion. He was inspector of Cashier in 1897, the name being changed to General Manager in 1900, resigning in January, 1910, on a pension. When he was General Manager, he resided in Halifax, where the executive headquarters were located. He removed to Toronto in 1900 when the headquarters were transferred to that city. He became a member of the Canadian Bankers' Association in 1908. He was the author of a number of works on banking, including "Bank Inspection," "The Necessity for External Examination," "The Best System of Banking," "The Economic System of Great Britain," and others. Mr. Colman was an enthusiastic yachtsman and amateur designer. He was selected to design the Canada Cup defender in 1899. He commanded the "Amorita," the first to arrive in the New York to Bermuda ocean race in 1909. Mr. Colman was twice married. In 1875 to Miss Elizabeth Sarah Davidson, sister of Col. H. M. Davidson, Charlottetown, and after her death to Miss Ada Gordon, daughter of the late Hon. Daniel Gordon of Georgetown. She survives him. There were three children by each marriage. Edith, Marion and Vernon, by the first; Vivian, Frances and Norwood, by the second. All survive him with the exception of Norwood, who was killed in the Great War. He also leaves three brothers, A. Cuthbert McLeod, Park Corner, Capt. Alfred McLeod, and Newt McLeod, of French River.

At the time of writing the fire is still burning, but confined mainly to the already mass of ruins. As precautionary measures the electric power on Queen Street was shut off. At the present time no cause could be ascertained as to the origin of the fire. The last word before going to press was that the fire was under control. It might be mentioned that had not the buildings saved been roof-covered with snow, further loss of property would surely have resulted.

WEDNESDAY ENJOYED TRIP.—Mr. Geo. Abbott, Union Road, has returned from an enjoyable visit to Bermuda where he spent the last few weeks. Mr. Abbott left the province on Nov. 29th and after spending a few days visiting friends in Boston and New York, left the latter port by the S. S. "Port Victoria" for Bermuda. The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hockey League was held in the Y. M. C. A. Parlors last evening, and judging by the enthusiasm manifested by all present the season of 1927 has every indication of being a most successful one. President T. W. L. Prowse presided. Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Secretary, Mr. Jack Wright was appointed to act. After the reading and adoption of the minutes the following officers were appointed: Honorary President, Lieut. Gov. F. R. H. Heazlet, Summerside. Vice-President, A. J. Wright, Summerside. Secy-Treasurer, Byron Brown, Summerside. Executive: T. W. L. Prowse, Charlottetown. Dr. J. V. York, Charlottetown. B. W. Robertson, Summerside. L. McNeill, Summerside. The question of referees was taken up. It was the unanimous pleasure of the meeting to elect Mr. A. Allen and Fred Moore to act during the ensuing year. The schedule which appears below comprises the same number of games as that played last year. It was also decided that before the regular opening league game, to be held on Jan. 7th, a special exhibition game would be called, the first taking place in Charlottetown on Jan. 7th and the return game in Summerside on Jan. 11th.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. Peter's Church, East Millinocket, Maine on Nov. 15th, when John J. Curley and Miss Winifred C. Trainor were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. J. O'Dowd officiating. Miss Irene McDonald was bridesmaid and Mr. J. Wilfred Trainor groomsmen. The wedding march was played by Miss Francis McDonald. The bride looked charming in a dress of ivory satin with veil and wreath of bridal roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of maroon canton crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pinkies. Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. K. Trainor, after which the wedding party motored to Bangor, where they spent the evening with a large number of friends were gathered to greet them. After partaking of an excellent dinner, the party spent the rest of the evening in dancing, music being provided by Miss Francis McDonald. The piano solo by the violin until the small hours of the morning. After wishing the bridal couple a very happy and prosperous future they all retired to their homes.

THE DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH G. ARSENAULT.—Mrs. Joseph G. Arsenault, Grand River, occurred at the home of her daughter Mrs. Campbell on Monday, December 12th, 1926. Although confined to her bed for some time her sudden passing was a severe shock to her family and friends. She was a devoted wife and mother and was well known to all who knew her. She was a member of the St. Joseph's Society and was a very active worker in the same. She was a devoted wife and mother and was well known to all who knew her.
