LASSA'S SACRED TEMPLES.
Since 1846 No Outsider Has Succeeded in Reaching Them.

It may be said at the beginning of the twentieth century that, except for the two poles, there is not a corner of the earth where white men have not penetrated. Yet in truth there exists on the Asiatic continent hardly 200 miles from the frontier of British India a city, the capital of Tibet, to which the "white men" of Europe and America are absolutely forbidden access.
Within a distance of from 150 to 200 miles from this city all the roads leading to it at the place where they cross the frontier to the province of Wu, of which Lassa is the chief town, are jealously guarded by pickets of Tibetan soldiers. Immediately upon perceiving a suspicious looking caravan the sentinels notify the local authorities. The advancing traveler then sees rise up before him a whole detachment of armed men commanded by high func-tionaries of the country, who, without discussing the matter, politely insist that the bold pioneer retrace his steps.
They even offer him the money and food necessary for the return voyage, at the same time warning him that if he continue on his way to Lassa he will pay for it with his life.

Such a state of affairs has not always existed. During the middle ages and until the middle of the eighteenth century a number of Europeans, mostly Catholic monks, were able to remain for long periods in the holy city of the Tibetans, who profess, as we know, the Buddhist-Lamaist religion. But since the expulsion in 1760 of the Capuchin monks, who tried to meddle with the internal affairs of the country, all Europeans have been regarded with suspicion, and none has been allowed to penetrate into Lassa. Nevertheless in 1811 Thomas Manning, an English traveler, and in 1846 Huc and Gabet, two French missionaries, were able to spend months at Lassa in the disguise of Buddhist pilgrims. They were recognized, however, and were asked to leave the country as quickly as possible. Since 1846 no European has succeeded in reaching the sacred temples of Lassa.—J. Deniker in Century.

Many Helpless With Paralysis Who Could Now be Well Had They but Known of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

We do not claim that every one who is paralyzed can be cured by using Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food, for many are beyond the reach of any medical treatment and must finish their days in helplessness and suffering.

It is rather to those who are only partly paralyzed and to those who are slowly but surely developing the symptoms which indicate the approach of such ailments that we would suggest the advantage of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great food cure for diseases of the nerves.

When you find yourself lying awake nights, suffer from indigestion and headache, feel drowsy after meals and losing energy, ambition and courage, it is time to pay attention to the nerves. You may find yourself irritable at times, worried over little things, unable to concentrate the mind, forgetful and absentminded, disheartened and discouraged. Better give some attention to the nerves.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures and prevents paralysis and locomotor ataxia. It does not cause by inducing unconsciousness and unnatural sleep. It does not deadens the nerves as do opiates and narcotics. But, on the other hand, by assisting nature and supplying the elements from which are formed new blood and nerve force, effects thorough and lasting cure and is bound to benefit all who use it.

Seldom if ever, has any medicine acquired such heavy endorsement of physicians and people alike. The cures which it has brought about have often been most extraordinary, any one who regularly and persistently uses this great food cure is sure to find it of inestimable value as a nerve restorative and blood builder.

By noting your increase in weight while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can prove that new, firm flesh and muscular tissue are being added to the body.

PROPOSING.
Here Are Some Instructions For Those Deeply In Love.

The dark is the proper environment for a proposal. Be reasonably certain, however, that you are talking to the right girl. Marriage will prove to you conclusively whether or not it was the right girl.

In proposing to an heiress use the term "May I be yours?" The time to propose to an actress is just before she brings her breach of promise suit. The time to propose to a widow is when you call and she is out.

Propose to a Chicago girl on the third visit and to the Philadelphia girl after eight years. A telegram does nicely for a Kansas girl. To propose to a Fifth Avenue girl see her legal adviser.
Be careful of your words. A girl may refuse you if you say, "Do you love me?" who would gladly throw herself into your arms if you ask simply, "Will you marry me?"

A proposal should be accompanied by a kiss as evidence of good faith. If you are timid ask a hypothetical question, thus: "Milly, if a man about my build and prospects should ask you to marry him what would you say?" Leave the rest to Milly.

A man who proposes to an old maid is an old fool.

Consider when you put the question to a Jersey girl how much alimony you can allow her.

If you propose on your knees you will stay there the rest of your life.

A long engagement means a short marriage. Every cloud has its silver lining.

If the schoolgirl rejects you go out and place a bet on a 60 to 1 shot. Your luck will not desert you.

If a girl takes your proposal with a gasp of surprise be grateful. Your wife will be a diplomat.

Remember when a girl signs articles for the marriage but she expects the long end of the purse, win or lose.

No gentleman proposes before dinner.
When a girl says "No" she means "No."

When a girl says "N-no" she means
"Yes."

The Talkative Barber.
Mayor Knight was in Albany last week and while there dropped into a barber shop to get shaved. He was much annoyed by the barber, who insisted upon carrying on a conversation while shaving him. When, after some questioning, the barber discovered that Mr. Knight was the mayor of Buffalo he inquired:

"This, of course, is not your first visit here?"

"No. I've been here before."

"Is that so? Well, now—"

"You ought to remember me," interrupted the victim, who was now quite savage. "I've been shaved here."

"It's funny I don't recall your face," retorted the barber.

"Well, come to think of it, you wouldn't be apt to," snapped his honor.
"It's all healed up now."

And the barber kept on shaving.

The Way He Viewed It.
"What's a philosopher, Br'er Williams?"

"He's a man dat takes ever' thing easy."

The questioner seemed suddenly lost in thought. Then he spoke up:

"Dat bein' de case, how come you stayed out de jail so long?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Her Idea of Identification.
"That bank clerk wouldn't give me the money. He said I'd have to identify myself."

"Did you?"

"I couldn't. None of my linen is marked except my handkerchiefs, and I'd forgotten to bring one with me."—

Words Cannot Tell

The Great Good Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets did Edward Rousseau, of Bruce Mines, Ont.—An Insurance Policy Against Discomfort.

"For upwards of ten years, I have been a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia. I doctored almost continually and used almost everything I could hear of but got no real relief till I used Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets.
Words cannot tell the great good they have done me."

These are the words of Edward Rousseau, of Bruce Mines Ontario. They come as a message of hope to all sufferers from Indigestion or Dyspepsia—to all who suffer from sour stomach, bloating, pains in the stomach, headaches and that terrible dispression that is probably the worst symptom of this all too prevalent disease.

This is proof that Dyspepsia can be cured by Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets. Thousands of similar proofs lead to the conclusion that there is no case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia that Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets cannot cure. Dadd's Dyspepsia Tablets are an insurance policy against discomfort, they are the surest guarantee of good health.

FIRE AT PUGWASH.

longing to J. H. Black, and occupied by A. A. Carter, was totally destroyed by fire last night, with about twenty tons of hay and a new mowing machine. No insurance.

A REMARKABLE RECORD.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.
For sale by all druggists.
