Home Sewing More Popular Than Ever

NEW YORK, May 25 (CP)—Home sewing now is more popular than ever before in North America says the New York Journal of Commerce.

It adds that last year more than 100,000,000 patterns were sold in Canada and the United States and that sales in the sewing-machine industry jumped 50 per cent since 1940.

In many Brazilian business offices coffee is served several times a day.

eleven at Prince of Wales College in Charlottetown and a provincial Vice-President, Miss Helen Shelton of O'Leary now taking her grade eleven at the Glebe Collegiate in Ottawa, Ont. The group live out their name "alert" and are generous in supporting all charitable and local appeals and the girls are active in church work. On Mother's Day they presented the O'Leary Church with a beautiful silver Baptismal Bowl, suitably inscribed. They formed a Junior Choir and very capably took the service of song on Mother's Day. They affiliated with the local Woman's Missionary Society and seven of the girls joined the Church at Easter on profession of faith. Their leaders are Mrs. W. G. Dickson and Mrs. Herbert Vatcher. Their Sunday School teacher is Mrs. A. J. Matheson. Those who so efficiently waited on tables during the banquet were Mrs. A. S. Palmer, Mrs. Lewis Bernard and Miss Eva J. MacLennan.

C. G. I. T. Holds Banquet

A very successful "Mother and Daughter" Banquet was held by the O'Leary Canadian Girls in Training group of the United Church in the Sunday School room of the Church on Wednesday May 18. The tables were nicely decorated and a fine supper was served. Miss Blanche Matthews, president of the local C.G.I.T. presided and welcomed the mothers and other guests and very capably acted as toastmistress. The following toasts were given:—

The King, proposed by Miss Doris MacLellan, responded to by singing the National Anthem. The Church, proposed by Miss Doris MacLellan, responded to by Rev. W. G. Dickson. The C.G.I.T. proposed by Mrs. W. Turner, responded to by Mrs. W. G. Dickson. Our mothers, proposed by Miss Peggy Ellis responded to by Mrs. John Matthews.

Short remarks were made by Mr. A. J. Matheson and by Rev. H. M. Burgess and this very enjoyable function was brought to a close by all repeating the Missah Benediction.

The O'Leary C.G.I.T. is one of the most active in the province. In the last several years from its ranks has come a provincial President, Miss Adele McAusland of Bloomfield, now taking her Grade
