CORRECTION—In reference to the beneficial effects of the Boys and Girls Heifer Club organized in Elm-dale a few years ago it was stated in these columns that Mr. Leonard Williams, a member of this club, had sold a pure-bred Ayshire heifer calf for the sum of forty dollars. This has aroused considerable comment as heifers of the high-class of stock which comprise this herd, which has carried off many prizes at the local exhibition are not sold at such a low price. This animal, however, was a male calf of which Leonard had three for sale. All the females are being retained in the herd.—O.

CALLAGHAN—MURRAY

St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when on June 16 Rev. Dr. Callaghan united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Mary, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Murray to Amos, S. son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Peter Callaghan. The bride with her girlish beauty looked very prettily dressed in yellow satin with hat and shoes to match. She wore a beautiful string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Miss Clara, who looked very pretty dressed in yellow Georgette, with hat and shoes to match. The groom was supported by his brother, James P. of Kinkora. During the Mass appropriate hymns were beautifully sung by the Pastor Rev. Leo Herrel. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joseph Callaghan. After a sumptuous wedding breakfast at the bride's home, the happy couple motored to Borden, the interesting points in the Maritime provinces. Previous to her marriage, the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at which many beautiful presents were received—testifying the high esteem in which this young lady is held by the people of the community. On their return the happy couple took up their residence at their new home in Lot 65.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLARD CARVER

Entered into rest on July 15th, 1950, after a lingering illness, borne with calm resignation Willard Carver, of Alliston, aged 28 years.

Although in poor health for over a year, hopes were entertained for his recovery, but the progress of the disease made this impossible, and gently and without murmuring his spirit passed away to be at rest. He suffered much at times, from weakness and pain, and frequently expressed a wish to be taken away. During his illness he was visited by Mr. Louis Harris, of Murray Harbor, and Rev. Mr. Murray, of Caladonia, both of whom spoke to him of the higher life beyond.

He leaves to mourn a sorrowing and bereaved wife and little son, Merrill, also the following brothers and sisters: Mont in Trenton, N. S., William at Alliston and James; Eliza (Mrs. L. McKenzie, at Sydney, N. S.), Mrs. Jane Bears and Mrs. Archie Collins, Alliston, and Margaret (Mrs. David Cutler, Charlottetown).

The funeral services were conducted most fittingly by Rev. Mr. Genge, assisted by Mr. Louis Harris, both of whom spoke comforting words to the bereaved relatives, and to the many friends assembled at the home. The following hymns were sung: Safe in The Arms of Jesus, Lead Kindly Light, A Few More Years Shall Roll. The following floral tributes were donated by relatives and friends: Wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hicken and family; Mr and Mrs. Benj. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Clow and Messrs. Gibbons and Ball, Charlottetown; also a spray by Mrs. David Cutler, Charlottetown.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Archie Acorn, Bert Hicken, Chester McSwain, Newell MacDonald, Raymond Jenkins and Foster Jenkins. Interment was made in the cemetery at Murray River. To the bereaved wife and son, and the relatives the sympathy of the community is extended. The many kindnesses of neighbors and friends is appreciated by the bereaved wife.

Eternal glories ever new, sweep o'er that region blest; And He is true who promised us this land of joy and rest.

—Persian Balm—Invaluable to the whole family. To the mother, a flawless aid to loveliness. To the child a soothing, healing balm. And to the father, a splendid hair texture and cooling shaving lotion. Persian Balm tones and refreshes the skin. Makes hands delightfully soft and white. Indispensable to dainty women. A little gently rubbing and it is absorbed by the tissues, making the skin truly rose-leaf in texture.

PERSONALS

—Mr. Charles McCormack, of the New England Telephone Co., Springfield, Mass., accompanied by his eldest daughter, is down on a visit to his mother and sister at Priest Pond. They came by motor, the young girl acting as chauffeur. They are enjoying themselves visiting old friends and acquaintances. It only lacks two years when Mr. McCormack may be retired on pension on completion of 25 years continuous service with the Company.

DANIEL WILSON

The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on the evening of Friday, August 1st, of Daniel Wilson, son of Henry Wilson, of St. Peters, at the early age of twenty-seven years.

Deceased was a prosperous young farmer of St. Peters and his early death is deplored by his many friends with whom he was extremely popular.

He was engaged in his farm work up to ten days before his death, when he became ill of appendicitis and was taken to the hospital. All that medical skill could do was done but without avail. He was a young man of splendid qualities, temperate in his habits, kind and obliging and will be missed by many, and more so by his parents, brothers and sisters. He leaves to mourn besides his father and mother, three brothers, John and Joseph, of St. Peters and James in Western Canada and two sisters Mrs. Boniface O'Hanley, St. Peters, and Sara at home.

His funeral which was largely attended took place on Sunday, August 3rd., at St. Peters Cemetery where the burial service was performed by Rev. A. McAulay, P. P. The pall bearers were Patrick McDonald, Alfred Down, Joseph McInnis, Neil McIntyre, Eflin McPhee and John A. McLeod.

Flowers have their time to bloom and leaves to wither at the north wind's breath, but Thou hast all seasons for Thy own, O Death. (Patriot please copy)
