THIRTY-EIGHT CHARTER OAK

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 27.—The thirty-eighth $10,000 Charter Oak Purse will be decided on Thursday of Labor Day at the Grand Circuit meeting given in connection with the Connecticut State Fair at Hartford. In his day Murphy has won five of them with R. T. C. Peter Scott, Chicout Mariondale, and Peter Manning. Last year he was sure that he could land the big purse with Carworthy but Peter the Brewer was in the way. This year he may depend on his $25,000 trotter Pearl Benbow but of late she has not proved a very reliable racing tool.

McDonald also expects to win this race with Taurida. While he has landed almost all of the big fixtures at other tracks McDonald has never been able to win a Charter Oak Purse. In 1909 he won a heat from The Harvester with Bob Douglas, but Geers stalled the gray horse off on the next two trips. The other starters in the event will include the Minnesota mare, Wellworthy, Gordon Peter and Major Riser, which Thomis Hinds has been stirring up the dust on the Orange County tracks.

ETIQUETTE IN CHINA.

When a salesman, or person seeking business interviews, presents his card at the entrance to a Chinese merchant's place of business, the possibility of an audience depends altogether upon him he deports himself while awaiting the return of the card-bearer. Should he be so indiscreet as to put one foot over the twelve-inch railing that intervenes between the step and the doorway, no manner of persuasion can prevail upon the merchant to grant him an interview. In case he waits patiently in the space allotted to unknown callers, this fact is noted, and he is usually ushered in.

Once in, there is still a more delicate matter to be disposed of, and in case the newcomer is ignorant of the customs, he fares ill with his errand. Immediately upon the caller's entering and taking a seat, a servant brings a serving of tea, which includes a small cup for each person present. The point of etiquette demands that this tea shall not be touched until the guest is ready to depart, in case the interview has been a pleasant one, in which event the caller is supposed to take up and drink his tea at parting, and at this signal all the others do likewise. However, should it so happen that the Chinese is not pleased with his caller, and is in any way annoyed by him, he takes up the tea and begins to drink at once, which act is a direct and decided hint that the interview is ended, and has not been to the merchant. The caller is then expected to take his immediate departure.

When a caller has become well acquainted, some of the formality is broken by the Chinese, and on a cold day a cup of tea is served immediately to the guest in a social way. But the "formal" tea is still to be observed and partaken of at parting, irrespective of the cup given to warm and greet the caller on his arrival. This, however, is done only after many visits, when the business dealings have been of such a nature as to warrant friendship and this hospitality.

Miss Boissineau Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"About three years ago I was bothered with pimples on my face. The pimples were hard and small and festered, and my face was disfigured for a while. They oftentimes caused me to lie awake hours at a time as the irritation was so great.

"I tried different remedies but without any relief. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after the first application I could see an improvement. I continued using them and was completely healed after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Miss Rose Boissineau, 12 Bellevue Ave., Saulte Ste. Marie, Ont.

P. E. Islanders In Auto Accident

A car was brought over on the Ferry on Thursday, 23rd and headed for the West but came to a sudden standstill at Bayfield. The occupants of the Car were presumably from Charlottetown and evidently had more interest in speed than safety. They came up the road at the rate of from 40 to 45 miles an hour and attempted to make the turn at Bayfield Corner. But instead they went smash into the ditch, the car turning partly over. The driver escaped but the other man's head went through the shield and he was rendered unconscious, being cut and bruised about the head and face. He was taken to Dr. Barahill's office and attended to. The car was quite badly damaged. There were eye witnesses to the accident. It is said there was no horn blown and no warning of the approach of a coming car at such a terrific rate of speed making right for the Village.

CHICAGO TO TEACH FUNDAMENTALS OF SAFETY IN SCHOOLS

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Systematic class room work in safety education for every child in the public schools is Chicago's plan in the nationwide campaign to check the mounting toll of accidental death and injury. A plan for schooling in accident prevention safety methods and first aid activities drawn by a committee appointed by Superintendent of schools Peter A. Mortenson will be put into practice in the elementary schools at the opening of the Fall term.

Safety education through slogans and jingles class room games, dramatization and debates is a part of the plan. In addition an effort will be made to relate accident statistics with the students work in arithmetic grammar and geography.

"Experience in several cities has shown," Mr. Mortenson said "that safety education in the schools has been the most effective agency in reducing the number of accidents to children."

The program approved for Chicago and believed to be more extensive than any in use elsewhere was arranged by principals in schools here in cooperation with more than 50 agencies interested in the aims of the undertaking.

"It does not contemplate the addition of a school subject," Mr. Mortenson explained, "but rather the implication in several subjects of concern for the safety of children."

Separate treatment of various classes of accidents in successive months is provided. September October and November are given respectively to street dangers, fires and weapons; the next three months to burns and scalds, poisons and asphyxiation and electricity; and March to June, inclusive, to falls, railway accidents, carelessness in play and drowning. The work under each monthly classification will be graded to meet the requirements of the various ages between the first and eighth grades.

From sense training in the kindergarten to elaborate projects for study in the upper grades, here is opportunity without serious detriment to other worthy to develop in the child attitudes and habits of thought and action that shall serve in the earlier stages to protect him from harm and in the later stages help him to protect others from harm," said Mr. Mortenson.

TO REMOVE STAINS

Paint stains can be removed from clothes by saturating the stain with equal parts of ammonia and spirits of turpentine. Repeat the process two or three times if necessary, then wash out in warm soapy water. Test first to see if water stands.

Perspiration will often make stains on white or light-colored material which cannot be removed by ordinary washing. An excellent method of treatment consists of soaking the material in a solution of carbonate of soda and water. A teaspoonful of soda should be allowed to each half-gallon of cold water. Let the material soak for half an hour, and then wash in the usual way.

Rusty irons can be made beautifully smooth in the following way: Tie a lump of beeswax in a piece of muslin, heat the iron and rub it alternately with the waxed bag and on a cloth sprinkled with salt.

STATESMEN GATHER TO REVIEW WORK OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

GENEVA, Aug. 30.—The fourth general assembly of the League of Nations will be called to order Monday morning, Sept. 3, by Viscount Ishii, former Japanese ambassador at Washington and now ambassador to France.

The forthcoming meeting is regarded with great international interest. The League has passed through its most active year of endeavor, and numerous are the questions which will come up for discussion by the representatives of the 52 nations affiliated with the Geneva organization. It is regarded as certain that Ireland will apply for membership; Turkey and one or two other States may do likewise.

The assembly will bring together many of the world's foremost statesmen, including General Smuts, the celebrated leader of the South African Republic; Lord Robert Cecil; Dr. F. Nansen, for many years prominent in European relief work; former Premier Minister Jones; of Czechoslovakia; representatives of the British overseas dominions and spokesmen of some 16 South American republics.

Something like 1,500 people, including national delegates, experts in various fields, and journalists from all corners of the globe are expected, and already Geneva is making ready its display of flags of all the world, preparing the great fountain which plays in the inner harbor, and otherwise planing for the reception of men from many lands, of many races, and of many languages.

All the work of the assembly will be done in public. Every session, both plenary and committee, is open to the press. Apparently efforts are being made to prevent the League from falling into those ways of secrecy which often mark the course of diplomats in international negotiations. Occasionally, during the last year, some sessions of the council were held privately, with resultant criticism based on the allegation that, if the League, as it gets stronger, yields to the temptation to follow the road of secrecy, it is eventually doomed to failure because the keynote of its success must be open convenants openly arrived at. The assembly generally discusses not only what the League has done during the past year, but also what it has not done and should do.

Each state which is a member of the League may be represented by not more than three delegates who are appointed by and responsible to their respective governments. As the work of the League covers many different fields of international life and as the sessions are run with the greatest possible expedition, many countries have supplementary delegates and ex-
