"How are your bowels?" the doctor always asks. He knows how important is the question of constipation. He knows that inactivity of the liver will often produce most disastrous results. We believe Ayer's Pills are the best liver pills you can possibly take.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN.

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

Miss Laura Cox, Scouris, was a passenger to this City yesterday from Halifax.

Miss Robertson, St. Peter's Road, left yesterday morning for Newport, R. I.

Messrs. Dingwell Jenkins and Allan Frazer are taking large catches of smelts in the Seal River.

J. A. Crozier, of Murphy, Crozier and Company, Winnipeg, arrived yesterday on a visit to his old home in Hamilton.

On Thursday at Campbellton, Lot 21, a saw mill, sash and door factory with machinery also farm, stock, crop, and implements, will be sold by auction. See ad.

The mail train arrived in the City last night at ten o'clock. There were very few passengers. All the foreign mail was brought to the City including the C. P. R.

Mrs. W. H. Smallwood, of North Sydney who has been home visiting her parents Benj. and Mrs. Wood, of Alexander, and friends in Hazelbrook and Pownall, left this morning for her home by the Minto.

Patrons who are unable to get the Guardian by telephone after six o'clock in the evening, and who have news or other business for the next issue, are requested to ring No 124.

Senator Ferguson, of Marshfield, P. E. Island, left for his home on Saturday. Mrs. Ferguson will stay in the private hospital. She is in a somewhat improved condition. Her daughter is with her.—St. John Telegraph.

The four new locomotives for the Prince Edward Island Railway were yesterday safely transported from Picou to Georgetown. The engines were loaded on a barge and towed across. They will probably be unloaded today, and will be brought to this City in a day or two.

A widely-known and much respected resident of Marshfield passed away last evening in the person of Mr. Roderick R. Munc, in her 71st year after about a year's illness. The news of her death will carry regret to many hearts. Besides her husband she leaves the following children: Robert in San Francisco; Alexander in Mexico; Mrs. Wm. T. Leslie, Ogasahagan, B. C.; Mr. Wm. Godfrey, Marshfield; J. R. Marshfield; and Miss Ella, who is home just now.

Bright, without, and bright within, was the impression given by St. Paul's School-room last night, and those who were assembled in the cosy auditorium, to witness and to hear the debut of the St. Paul's Glee Club were treated to a most delightful program, which in all its numbers gave evidence of rare selection. Lack of space prevents dealing with the merits of the concert as it deserves, and its many excellences can only be mentioned generally.

Last night at the Wonderland Theatre, Market Hall, there were many in the large audience who quite agreed with the general opinion that the pictures shown made up one of the strongest moving picture series yet seen in this City. Such picture excellence is beyond the average, and it is not to be wondered at that such an exceptionally splendid picture as the Boys' Rotoratory has attracted so much attention. This splendid picture, the credit of which was given to another house by mistake in yesterday's issue of this paper, is only being shown at Wonderland. It is a magnificent piece of work, and the surroundings of Wonderland have been so improved and made so pleasant under the new management that it is, without exception, one of the most comfortable places in the city in which to spend the evening.

It seems very likely that The Guardian's Limerick competition of this week will be one of the most interesting of the series, if not the record breaker. Up to last night the number of coupons received was larger for the same period than for any previous week with one exception, and on that occasion the number was only three in advance of last night. The Limerick this week is not a difficult one to find rhymes for and there is a good deal of diversity in the lines already sent in. Those who are closely following up the competitions express themselves as very much pleased with the good chances the verse affords, and it looks as if a great many coupons will come in before Saturday night. In that case the "goose" will hang high, and out of the proceeds, if the number of coupons received approaches the one thousand mark, The Guardian will award a much larger first prize, possibly $20, and make the second, third, fourth, and fifth prizes in proportion at the same time providing a liberal number of one dollar prizes. There seems no reason why there should not be a thousand coupons received this week. The more sent in the larger the prizes, and there is a good chance for everyone to be rewarded for the exercise of their wit. The verse, for which the fifth line is wanted this week is:—

A goose, that was fat, said: "I see it is going to be up to me
To furnish some sinner
With a Christmas Day Dinner
Readers will find the coupon, and particulars of the contest on another page.

"Xmas goods"—Choice perfumes in dainty packages—Fine Ebony hat and cloth brushes—New walking canes—Elegant cased pipes—Cigars in holiday packages and many other articles suitable for a gift. A. W. Reddin, Phm B. Sanny-side.

Attention is called to the special ad of G. F. Hutcheson in this issue.

The Charlottetown Business College closes for the Christmas vacation on Friday night. There will be a program and an evening of social enjoyment in the Kindergarten Hall, to which the public is invited. No speeches.

Luus Noonan and Jimmie Williams two of Summerside's hockey players again distinguished themselves in the recent hockey players match when the Wanderers team of New York defeated the Yale College of Princetown, last week by the score of 10 to 3. The boys played on the Wanderers. Noonan played point and Williams on the side got two goals out of ten. They were selected from a number of players and engaged to play for the Wanderers for the coming winter.

All athletes in this Province will be interested to know that the Governors of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union met on Saturday and arranged the championship contests to be held under the auspices of the Maritime Province: A. A. for the meeting to be held next autumn on the grounds of the Wanderers A. C. Halifax. The Ontario Fencing and Wrestling Championship contests were awarded to the Central Y.M.C.A. of Toronto. The Board will issue a strong resolution against brutality in sports and see that every club under it gets a copy.

Yesterday was a busy day upon the streets of Charlottetown. The Christmas trade has begun, and the day being market day accounted for a very large attendance from the country. In and about the market until late in the afternoon there were crowds buying and selling, and it was not till late that the out of town visitors began to leave for home and the streets assumed their wonted appearance. The splendid sleighing enabled hundreds to come from long distances, and the snow was evidently a welcome arrival. There were splendid supplies of meat, poultry, vegetables, etc., in the market and buying and selling was brisk. A great deal of pork was also brought to the City and quickly sold. A lot of money was paid out for pork alone and considerable quantities of other produce exchanged hands.
