Summerside Church Clubs

At the regular meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary of the Summerside Anglican Church on Wednesday evening in St. Mary's Hall, the following officers were appointed: President, Peggy Preston; vice-president, Janis Morrison; secretary, Betty MacInnis; treasurer, Sally Woodside. The meeting was opened by the repeating in unison of the G.A. prayer. A discussion was held regarding the earning of badges for certain kinds of work accomplished. A story from the Living Message, a church paper, brought the meeting to a close.

The December meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the Summerside Trinity Church on Tuesday afternoon in Epworth Hall was presided over by Mrs. W.A. Allen, with Mrs. B.R. Sharpe at the piano and Mrs. Frank Yeo acting secretary. The opening hymn "The Shepherds had an Angel" was followed by routine business when a most encouraging financial report was submitted. Miss Millicent Strong reported for the Nominating Committee. Mrs. J.S. Hinton, Temperance Secretary, read an article on the evils of tobacco and Mrs. George Bowness, Christian Stewardship Secretary, read a paper on Advance. The president called an executive meeting to be held on Thursday, December 29. Mrs. Walter Lidstone reported five new associate members.

The theme of the Christmas program, conducted by Miss Millicent Strong and Mrs. T.H.E. Inman, was "Our Faith in Jesus Christ". Mrs. G.N. Somers and Mrs. T.T.

Carruthers read the Scripture hymn "What a Friend We Need in Jesus" with Miss Jessie Scott, introduced by Mrs. John Morrison at the piano, was followed by a business session over MacLeod, Mrs. G.L. Sheen, Mrs. Victor Travers and Mrs. Frank Taylor and the group, also by the quartette consisting of Mrs. Sheen, Mrs. Inman, Mrs. MacLeod and Mrs. Travers. After the singing of the hymn "Come Thou Long Ex-pected Jesus", the offering which was taken by Mrs. Loman Adams. The offering was collected with music by the quartette and an offertory prayer by Mrs. Somers. A Christmas benediction of Mrs. Cleve Whalen. At the close refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Maurice Mill.

Miss Thelma MacNeill was in charge of the devotional exercises. The A.Y.P.A. held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the Y.P.U. of the Summerside Baptist Church on Monday evening in St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, with the president, Miss Mary Crosby, in the chair and opening with prayers by Archdeacon Harrison. An interesting debate "Town life has more advantages than country life" was led by Miss Peggy Preston, affirmative, and Mr. Arthur Holland, negative. The weekly bulletins for the St. Mary's Church and the monthly bulletins for St. John's Church were prepared. Prayers by the rector closed the meeting. — S

On Tuesday evening the Y.P.S. of the Summerside Church of Christ held its regular meeting in the church hall with the devotion under the direction of Miss June Chappell. After the opening hymn "Saviour like a Shepherd lead us" with Mrs. M. Mellish at the piano, psalm 23 was read responsively and the minister offered prayer. During the business session, Donald Enman, the vice-president, was in charge and 21 members answered roll call. An impromptu debate with six members being chosen to speak for one minute on the subject "Resolved that on P.E.I. city life has advantages over country life" proved most interesting. The judges, the Misses Dorothy Linkletter and Olga Simpson, decided in favor of the affirmative. The Friendship Circle was followed by the Mizpah benediction. — S

The Junior Y.P.U. of the Summerside Baptist Church held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the church hall with Margaret Smith in charge of the devotions. The opening hymn "God sees the little sparrow fall" with Joan Speers at the piano was followed by the business period with the president in the chair. A Bible Quiz was led by Mrs. E.J. Barrass. Each of the teams gained two points. Games were played after the meeting. — S
