TALE OF MARITAL ERRORS SET TO MUSIC IN "EASY TO WED," WITH STAR CAST

"Easy to Wed," new all-G-M Technicolor musical, which opened yesterday on the Capitol screen, is easy to look at, easy to listen to, and above all, easy to laugh at. With a star-studded cast, topped by Van Johnson, Esther Williams, Lucille Ball and Keenan Wynn, the new picture offers a world of entertainment in a howl-provoking tale of a lady-killer who sells his charm to the highest bidder only to find himself facing charges of bigamy.

Van Johnson will add to his huge host of fans in his new role as the debonaire "man-about-town" who agrees to marry Lucille Ball in order that he can subsequently make love to Miss Williams and get her to drop a newspaper libel suit caused by her having been termed a "husband stealer." The vivacious Lucille is seen to advantage as the dancer who is tossed willy-nilly between Van Johnson and Keenan Wynn, in utter disregard of her own wishes, and Wynn is ideal as the bewildered reporter whose unfortunate wisecrack has been the source of the libel suit.

Marilla Cuthbert, who refuses to thaw out — Mrs. E. Corbett.
Mrs. Rachel Lynde, the village busybody — Beth Waugh.
Mrs. Barry, a wealthy matron — Mrs. F. O. Weeks.
Diana Barry, Anne's bosom friend — Doris Getson.
Mrs. Allan, the minister's charming wife — Emma Bagloe.
Josie Pyc, Anne's school mate — Elaine Forsythe.
Gilbert Blythe, the richest boy in town — Reg. Pridham.
Meady Spurgeon, who never smiles — Wesley Hardy.
Ira Mills, a wealthy business man, and Marilla's old sweetheart — Henry Clarke.

The thanks of the Y.P.U. is extended to all who helped to make the play a success.
