

Smiles
GABBY GERTIE

Thumb sucking does look sweet in a baby, but it is disgusting in the three-year-old and sometimes it hangs on until fifteen or sixteen! The habit may cause an ill-formed mouth or induce adenoids; and it always interferes with digestion. Pinning the sleeve over the hand; attaching mittens, or putting on cardboard cuffs, which prevent bending the arms at the elbows, are some of the ways to stop the habit.

Another bad habit—irregularity in bowel action—is responsible for weak bowels and constipation in babies. Give the tiny bowels an opportunity to act at regular periods each day. If they don't act at first, a little Fletcher's Castoria will soon regulate them. Every mother should keep a bottle of it handy to use in case of colic, cholera, diarrhoea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, loss of sleep, or when baby is cross and feverish. Its gentle influence over baby's system enables him to get full nourishment from his food, helps him gain strength, and his bowels.

Castoria is purely vegetable and harmless—the recipe is on the wrapper. Physicians have prescribed it for over 30 years. With each package, you get a valuable book on Motherhood. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.

Jealous Hearts
By MILDRED BARBOUR

Elinor was a success. "There was no doubt about it. In fact, she was such a success that it made Tony rather sick. Not the fact of her triumph, but the manner in which it was attained. Sitting beside Farraday in the stalls, he could feel himself growing grimmer and grimmer, more and more white-faced, after the first burning flush of shame that Elinor should so eagerly accept this cheap triumph.

He had often dreamed of attending her operatic debut. He had pictured her as a lovely, wistful Marguerite, or a magic-voiced Gilda. The pathos of Mimi seemed scarcely suited to her, he thought, and though Carmen was the role that fitted her scintillating, flaming personality, he didn't like to visualize her as the lawless gypsy. (Love's pathetic blindness!)

Now he sat in a crowded London music-hall and saw, with bitter, resentful eyes, the girl he loved, the storm-center of a cheap, vulgar, noisy oration. It was a cheap triumph, and Elinor played down to it in manner as well as in her selection of songs. Her voice was good; there was no denying it. Worse, it was superbly suited to the type of songs she had chosen. And her beauty, her unfailing sense of drama, made the cheap melodies living, vital things. She acted her songs and carried the delighted audience with her.

The whole thing made him feel actually ill. It was the supreme test of the depths of his infatuation that he didn't turn from her then. Instead, he absorbed her from all angles, and nurtured a desire to throttle the manager of the music-hall. "She's too inexperienced to know what a cheap affair this is," he thought, while he listened to the audience roar its appreciation of Elinor's performance.

His face must have shown his inward turmoil, for when he turned to Farraday, with an effort at a smile, the older man laid a sympathetic hand on his arm. "At least, she was a big success," he said.

"Yes—but what a success!" was Tony's bitter reply. "You wouldn't have wanted her to fall, at any rate," Farraday interposed quickly. "No, you wouldn't have been a too big a blow for her."

Tony shook his head obstinately. "I'm not sure that it wouldn't have been better to snap it all off at the start. Of course, she can't keep on with this sort of thing."

Farraday was silent. His keen gray eyes were skeptical. They were crossing the lobby on their way to the stage door, where they were to await Elinor, when a soft voice from the crowd said: "Ah, it is Meester Deering, is it not?"

Tony swung round to find Danelli at his elbow. He frowned, then said: "Well, one way is up around the Great Leaks."

Flapper (after ordering big dinner): "Don't chew that menu card while you are waiting. Only one animal eats paper."

He: "Well, ain't I the goat?"

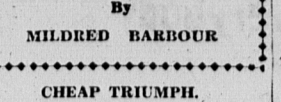

WASN'T HE THE GOAT?

EXPLAINED

"How do you suppose so much foreign liquor gets into the United States?"

"Well, one way is up around the Great Leaks."

ABBEY'S
Sweetens the Stomach

Abbey's Sweetener is a success. "There was no doubt about it. In fact, she was such a success that it made Tony rather sick. Not the fact of her triumph, but the manner in which it was attained. Sitting beside Farraday in the stalls, he could feel himself growing grimmer and grimmer, more and more white-faced, after the first burning flush of shame that Elinor should so eagerly accept this cheap triumph.

He had often dreamed of attending her operatic debut. He had pictured her as a lovely, wistful Marguerite, or a magic-voiced Gilda. The pathos of Mimi seemed scarcely suited to her, he thought, and though Carmen was the role that fitted her scintillating, flaming personality, he didn't like to visualize her as the lawless gypsy. (Love's pathetic blindness!)

Now he sat in a crowded London music-hall and saw, with bitter, resentful eyes, the girl he loved, the storm-center of a cheap, vulgar, noisy oration. It was a cheap triumph, and Elinor played down to it in manner as well as in her selection of songs. Her voice was good; there was no denying it. Worse, it was superbly suited to the type of songs she had chosen. And her beauty, her unfailing sense of drama, made the cheap melodies living, vital things. She acted her songs and carried the delighted audience with her.

The whole thing made him feel actually ill. It was the supreme test of the depths of his infatuation that he didn't turn from her then. Instead, he absorbed her from all angles, and nurtured a desire to throttle the manager of the music-hall. "She's too inexperienced to know what a cheap affair this is," he thought, while he listened to the audience roar its appreciation of Elinor's performance.

His face must have shown his inward turmoil, for when he turned to Farraday, with an effort at a smile, the older man laid a sympathetic hand on his arm. "At least, she was a big success," he said.

"Yes—but what a success!" was Tony's bitter reply. "You wouldn't have wanted her to fall, at any rate," Farraday interposed quickly. "No, you wouldn't have been a too big a blow for her."

Tony shook his head obstinately. "I'm not sure that it wouldn't have been better to snap it all off at the start. Of course, she can't keep on with this sort of thing."

Farraday was silent. His keen gray eyes were skeptical. They were crossing the lobby on their way to the stage door, where they were to await Elinor, when a soft voice from the crowd said: "Ah, it is Meester Deering, is it not?"

Tony swung round to find Danelli at his elbow. He frowned, then said: "Well, one way is up around the Great Leaks."

Fighting For Baby's Health

Is the Constant Care of Every Young Mother

The young mother has a constant care in looking after the welfare of her little ones. Childhood ailments come on so suddenly—sometimes without a minute's warning—the mother may have a very sick baby on her hands before help can be obtained. That is unless she has a remedy in the house which she can safely give the baby for any of the many minor ailments of babyhood and childhood.

Such a remedy is found in Baby's Own Tablets. Thousands of mothers throughout the country always keep a box of the Tablets on hand and they proclaim them to be without an equal for sweetening baby's stomach, regulating his bowels, and inducing constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers, and making the dreaded teething period easy.

Baby's Own Tablets are an absolutely safe remedy. They are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any other narcotic drug which are so harmful to the future welfare of the baby. Mothers, if you value the life of your little ones give him Baby's Own Tablets when he is ill, or, better still, give him an occasional dose of the Tablets to ward off illness. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or will be sent to any address, post paid, at 25 cents a box by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

If you retire when the night falls, you will be able to get up when the day breaks.

In Memoriam

MRS. DUNCAN MCKAY

Entered into rest at Greek River, on May 10th, 1928, after a long and tedious illness borne with patience and resignation, Mrs. Duncan McKay, aged 65 years.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McPherson of Glen Martin. For the past seven years the late Mrs. McKay suffered from the effects of partial paralysis, and though able to move around, considerably, was under the constant care of one or more of her daughters, who tenderly ministered to her daily needs.

On Thursday morning May 10th, while in her chair, she was again stricken, medical aid was called, but she calmly passed away on the following morning.

Prior to her illness Mrs. McKay was a woman of exceptional strength and activity, and the many duties of her home seemed almost a pleasure in her capable management.

In the community she was kind and generous, and will be much missed by her many friends and neighbors.

In the home circle her death causes deep sorrow to the bereaved husband and family, who are left to mourn their irreparable loss. During her illness she was visited by her Pastor, Rev. D. V. O'Meara, who affirmed that the deceased was able to testify of his strong faith in Jesus, her Saviour, and of her abiding trust in Him.

Besides the bereaved husband six children survive: Christina, (Mrs. Elwood Reynolds) Providence, R. I.; Belle, Catherine, Minnie, Dolores, late of New York and John now at home, and one granddaughter Esther in the home.

There is also a brother Daniel J. McPherson, who has been located in Klondyke for the past nine years and a sister Mrs. Malcolm E. Macdonald of Kinross, P. E. I.

The funeral services were conducted at the home and cemetery by Rev. D. V. O'Meara, who spoke very impressively and comforting passages from Sacred Writ.

The funeral procession to the new cemetery at Peters Road where interment was made was large.

The pall bearers were: Daniel Stewart, John A. McSwain, William Acorn, Allan McLean, Neil McSwain, John McLean.

The following hymns, favorites of the departed were sung: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus", "Rock of Ages", "The Lord's My Shepherd."

Floral tributes from the family and from Mrs. William Macdonald, Peters Road, rested on the casket in loving remembrance.

To the bereaved husband and family the deep sympathy of the community is extended.

Jesus, my heart's dear refuge, Jesus who died for me; Firm on the Rock of Ages Ever my trust shall be.

The judgment of Solomon was great, but he never tried to umpire a baseball game.

Shortly before the closing of the reading of the address Mr. MacLeod was presented with a purse by Mrs. Hector MacKenzie.

Although taken very much by surprise, Mr. MacLeod in a few well chosen words thanked the young people and others for the splendid way in which they had remembered him. He felt that many of the good things said in the address were quite undeserved. What he had done to help on the work of the congregation had been a great joy to him, as long as he is spared he hopes to go on in the future, trying to do still greater service for the Master, and in that greater service to find still greater joy.

At the close of Mr. MacLeod's address all joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Short addresses were made by Mr. J. J. Graham, Mr. Marshall Matheson, Miss Marie Graham, Miss Lillian Matheson, and Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.

All spoke in glowing terms of the untiring faithfulness of Mr. MacLeod in seeking to do all in his power to assist in the work of the Church.

After the Young Peoples Society had completed its business the meeting was closed with the singing of "Oh God of Bethel," and benediction by Rev. R. Hensley Stavert.

THE HOUSE DRESS

The house dress should be comfortable, allowing freedom of motion. It must be durable, easily laundered and simple in style. It should be beautiful and becoming in color, line and texture. It should slip on and off easily, with the minimum of fastenings. No collars and cuffs to tuck and pin in place, no hunting for a belt, no ties to dangle in the food when that is being prepared. It should have a good, fast dye for no dress will have harder usage or more frequent washings. Gingham, chambray, percale, calico and English prints answer these requirements pretty well for materials. Bright colors, if becoming, add a bit of cheer to the home.

To sum up, the house dress should conform to the following specifications: Wash, cotton material; made by machine with little or no hand work on it; be easily laundered; in a style becoming to the wearer; be loose and easy to work in; be trimmed in some tasteful finish such as bias binding.

TO POACH EGGS.

If you wish to poach eggs and do not have a poacher, use teacups. Grease the cups on the inside, set them in a pan of hot water over a slow fire, and break an egg into each. Cover the pan to keep the steam in, and in a few minutes you will have an egg more delicately poached than in the thinner cups of a poacher.

Public Auction of House, Lot, Furniture and Effects

I will sell by Public Auction on the premises of Mr. Alfred F. Houston, 312 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown, commencing at 10:00 a. m. on Tuesday, June 5th, 1928, all his personal property and effects including one five piece mahogany parlor suite, one magnificent dining-room china cabinet, table and six chairs, two beautiful new Wilton Rugs, one Ennis Player Piano, one new Marconi Radio Set, one other Radio Set, one Edison Diamond Disk Cabinet Gramophone, linen, china, cut-glass, silverware, other carpets and floor coverings and all other household furniture and effects; also on the same day at 12:00 o'clock noon on the premises, the residence property, being house and lot No. 312 Fitzroy Street, and also the adjoining lot with workshop in rear.

JOHN A. McDONALD
Auctioneer

Old Dutch

says:
Porcelain and enamel have a highly glazed surface and their beauty is dependent upon keeping the surface clean and free from scratches. Old Dutch is the perfect cleaning agent because it erases dirt and removes dangerous impurities, assuring not only spick and span appearance but Healthful Cleanliness as well.

Removes the dirt—not the surface
Made in Canada

Victor Records

Was It A Dream?
Waltz Waring's Pennsylvanians 21297

"Ramona"
The "theme song" of the Moving Picture film "Ramona"

Waltz Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra 21214
Vocal Gene Austin 21334

Well! The Irish and The Germans Got Together
Celebrating the "Bremen" Flight
Vocal Harry Jans-Harold Whalen 21367

When You're With Somebody Else
Fox Trot Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra 21365

Hello Montreal!
(Goodbye Broadway!)
Vocal "Sleepy Hollow" and His Melody Boys 216516
Fox Trot Waring's Pennsylvanians 21333

My Ohio Home
Fox Trot Jean Goldkette and His Orchestra 21166
Vocal Harrington and Bersch with "Sleepy" Hall's Banjo 216515

Also the latest Red Seal records by famous Victor Artists

Auction Sale of Furniture

I will sell for Mrs. R. G. Bonnell at her home, 29 Douglas Street, on Monday, June 4th, commencing at 1:30 o'clock, all household furniture comprising parlor, dining room, bed rooms, hall and kitchen, mats, oil cloth, stoves, carpets, dishes, bedding and all furniture.

BENJ. CARTER, Auctioneer
4806-6-1-21.

British Columbia Mouldings and Sheathing

Just arrived direct from Vancouver. One full carload.

B. C. MOULDINGS AND SHEATHING Assorted patterns.

L. M. POOLE & CO PAUL'S WHARVES

Offices to Rent

It is the intention of the owner of one of the most centrally located Store and Office Buildings in Charlottetown to remodel the building so that the entire second floor space of approximately 2500 square feet will be available for office purposes.

This space will be divided into from one to four offices according to the requirements of applicants.

Alterations can be made and premises ready for occupation on or about August 1st.

This building is in the very centre of the Retail and Commercial District of Charlottetown. For further particulars apply to

The Eastern Trust Co.
154 RICHMOND STREET
5-28-mw.

BOSTON by Steamer

INTERNATIONAL LINE ONE WAY FARES
FROM ST. JOHN, N. S. — $10
FROM EASTPORT, MAINE — $9
FROM LUBEC, MAINE — $9

Every Wednesday steamer leaves St. John 9:00 A.M. Atlantic Time, Eastport 1:30 P.M., Lubec 2:30 P.M. Eastern Time, arriving Boston Thursday 10 A.M. Daylight Time.

Every Saturday steamer sails direct from St. John to Boston. Leaving St. John 7:00 P.M., Atlantic Time, due Boston Sunday 2:00 P.M. Daylight Time.

Connections at Boston with direct steamer to New York. Reduced rates for automobiles accompanied by passengers.

EASTERN steamship lines

Professional Cards

R. R. BELL
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.
Cameron Block, Charlottetown,
MONEY TO LOAN

Dr. C. C. Archibald
Graduate of N. Y. Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital Practice Limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Testing Eyes and supplying Glasses
Office, Bayer Building
Great George Street
Office Hours—9 to 12.30, 1.30 to 5.00

Mark R. McGuigan
B. A.
BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.
MONEY TO LOAN
Cameron Block, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

McLeod & Bentley
J. A. BENTLEY, K. C.
Barrister and Attorney-at-Law
Office: 180 Richmond Street
MONEY TO LOAN
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

McDonald & McPhee
B. A.
J. A. McDONALD H. F. MCPHEE
B. A.
BARRISTERS, ATTORNEYS, ETC.
MONEY TO LOAN
Office Building, Charlottetown

INSIDIOUS EYE STRAIN

We use this adjective advisedly.

Sufferers from Eyestrain may have perfect vision and therefore do not suspect the presence of any eye defect.

The motive power of the entire human organism is Nerve Energy.

Normal eyes, it is computed utilize about 20% of this Nerve Energy, but when Eyestrain is present, a much larger proportion is required. Hence defective eyes, through their consumption of an excessive amount of Nerve Energy may seriously affect the functioning of other organs of the body and produce ill health.

HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED
G. F. Hutcheson
OPTOMETRIST

Mortgage Sale

Take notice that under and by virtue of the powers of sale contained in a certain Mortgage or Deed of Trust dated the twenty-fourth day of January, A. D. 1924, made between J. & T. Morris Company Limited of the first part, and The Maritime Trust Corporation of the second part, there will be offered for sale by Public Auction on the premises Nos. 75 to 79 Water Street in Charlottetown, on Monday, the sixteenth day of July, A. D. 1928, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon the following property, namely:

All that tract, piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Charlottetown aforesaid bounded as follows: On the Southwest by Water Street, on the Southwest by property now or lately owned by W. W. Owen (formerly used as Telegraph Office), on the Northeast by property of Charles H. E. Longworth, and on the Northwest by the Robins Estate.

Also all that other parcel of land in Charlottetown bounded as follows: On the Southwest by property of De Biols Bros., on the Northeast by property of the Labor Union, and on the Southwest by property of Bruce Stewart & Co.

Also all the personal property of J. & T. Morris Company Limited, comprising the machinery, plant equipment, office furniture, stock-in-trade, bottles, containers, boxes, cases, fixtures, materials and supplies used in connection with its business, hereinafter set out and described as follows: In process of manufacture, formulas, trademarks, trade names, book debts, and all other fixtures, movables, goods, chattels effects and assets now owned, or which at the time of such sale may be owned by the said J. & T. Morris Company Limited.

Terms of sale to be twenty per cent cash at the time of sale, and the balance within thirty days after the date of sale.

Dated this fourteenth day of May, 1928.
The Maritime Trust Corporation, of
McLEOD & BENTLEY,
Their Attorneys.