A Spring Valley correspondent writes that the farmers of that vicinity have just finished their hay and are waiting for the harvest which is a very beautiful one. The inhabitants are pleased to have their old teacher Miss Green back again after a further year of study in the P. W. C. The people of this vicinity have been interested deeply by a black fox which has been visiting their roosts and robbing them of a large number of their spring chickens. Various devices and schemes were planned for the capture of the cunning reynard but none of them proved successful till some one hit upon the plan of decoy. A hen was used for the purpose, tethered and surrounded by traps, and the foolish reynard, eager to get the fowl, became entangled in the traps and taken to a prominent fox rancher who had formed the plan of the capture. He now awaits the rightful owner who no doubt will be glad to hear of him.

Any Guardian reader who receives a dimly printed, badly printed, badly folded, badly cut, badly addressed, badly wrapped, torn, soiled or incomplete paper of whatever issue will kindly notify the Subscription Department at once.

The Guardian ever realizes its obligation to furnish its readers with the latest and best news service obtainable, and to give to its advertisers the largest and most valuable circulation possible.

The Guardian is now but issuing two dailies, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon, as it has been doing for years, but since July first its afternoon paper contains its own day's news in addition to that of The Morning Guardian, or, in other words, the news of the twenty-four hours immediately before it goes to press. The Morning Guardian occupies a place in 1891 The Morning Daily Guardian was established, and is still issued each morning with the latest local and foreign news, including the Canadian Press and a special telegraphic service, similar position.

In 1887 The Weekly Guardian was established, but its issue proved too infrequent for readers as the Province advanced, and from time to time was changed, first to a Semi-Weekly, then to a Tri-Weekly, and later to a Rural Daily, so that for years The Guardian has issued two dailies, as at present—one in the morning as a Morning Daily, and the other in the afternoon as a Rural Daily. As the name of the latter was never sufficiently clear as to what it implied and always required much explanation, it was in May last changed to Evening Daily, and continued as an afternoon paper.

For some time past the management has felt that Prince Edward Island is justly entitled to a twenty-four hour telegraphic news service, as enjoyed by the other Provinces of Canada, rather than the night wire service only, as up to June 30th last supplied by The Morning Guardian and afterwards printed in The Evening Guardian. Accordingly a representative visited St. John and arranged for a Canadian Press day service, which is appreciated by the general public.

It is thus that The Guardian that the people of Prince Edward Island are indebted, first for a night Canadian Press service and now for the day Canadian Press and Special Telegraphic news published since July first and thus enjoyed by its readers.

The friends of both The Morning Guardian and The Evening Guardian are quite expressive of their appreciation that their favorite paper contains the latest day and night, as well as night and day Canadian Press and Special Telegraphic and local news, and thus a complete twenty-four hour service. Advertisers are also more than pleased with the rapid increase of fully two thousand readers already in The Evening Guardian's circulation, as well as several hundred for The Morning Daily.

COL. ROOSEVELT TO TESTIFY.

(Canadian Press.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—It is believed here tonight that Col. Roosevelt will take the stand within a few days before the Senate sub-committee investigating campaign expenditures, to answer charges made today by John D. Archbold that Mr. Roosevelt had knowledge of the use of the Standard Oil money in the campaign of 1904.

The committee divided tonight over the future course of action. Upon arrival tomorrow of Senator Luke Lea, one of the absent democratic members of the committee, a meeting will be held to determine whom to call and where next meeting is to be held. Several members of the sub-committee favor transferring the hearings at once to New York where Col. Roosevelt, George W. Perkins, George B. Cortellien and members of Standard Oil Co. board of directors might testify.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The twelfth annual session of the York district S. S. Convention met in the York Church on Friday, Aug. 16th. The Sunday School representatives were present from South Winsloe, North Winsloe, Brackley, Harrington, Dunstaffnage and York, and gave reports from their schools, all of which showed more or less of progress.

Rev. Mr. Ross, the General Secretary led the afternoon session in a round table conference, which was both interesting and helpful.

Address were given at the evening session by Rev. Mr. Westmorland and Rev. Mr. Ross on subjects of vital interest to parents, S. S. workers, and teachers of little children.

Mr. Ross also gave a short, forcibly illustrated Temperance talk showing the effects of alcohol on the human system.

The choir furnished some very excellent music for the occasion.

CUT THIS OUT AND PASTE IT UP

Almost every day The Guardian receives orders by mail to insert news matter of an advertising nature. In most of these cases the sender, who is frequently not known to any member of the staff and who has no account in the advertising department, writes "Please insert the following and oblige," thus apparently implying that they think the items will be inserted free. Only a few weeks ago a reader wrote asking that his advertisement of Farm for Sale be cancelled free from day to day until he cancelled it, as he is a subscriber to The Guardian. In this connection it may be said that the subscription price is not sufficient to even pay the actual cost of paper, ink, presswork, mailing, bookkeeping and other expenses of the Circulation Department proper, and thus subscribers have no privileges of free advertising and are on the same footing as non subscribers. Seldom ever does the sender state whether the item is to appear in the Morning Daily or the Rural Daily, whether for one or more times in either Daily, or in both, whether as a display advertisement, announcement, business local, classified ad or otherwise. When for church or charitable purposes they seldom ever say so, or do not enclose sufficient money to pay for same all of which will be returned by first mail in the event of the item not being chargeable, or if more money is sent than necessary to pay for the item the surplus will be returned at once, there being a greater discount for cash with order for advertising of churches & than for regular business. In all such cases the Advertising department communicates with the sender as quickly as possible by mail or phone, often then to the telephone if not too far distant, thus saving all possible time. People write this office to know if News, Letters to Editor, etc., are charged for, and to all such there is but one reply—all items etc. of a money making nature, even though they be somewhat of a news nature, are chargeable. For instance, the advance notice or notices of a concert, lecture, pie social, picnic, etc., are chargeable if an admission fee, silver collection, sale of pies or sale of food or refreshments, etc. Advance notices of purely religious services, even though a silver collection is to be taken up, are not chargeable. The particulars of any of the above, after they have been held, are, however, news and thus not chargeable. The news of any past, present or future business, which is still being conducted, is chargeable, if it is apparent that the object is to make the business more widely known and thus increase it. Verses acknowledging death notices are also chargeable. Even items which are actual news and not chargeable but once in either morning Daily or Rural Daily or both are chargeable for more than one insertion, as they are thus not news.

The above facts are given for the purpose of assisting persons who have items, etc., to mail to this office, so that delay and disappointment will be avoided.

B.F. KEITH'S UNION SQUARE THEATRE, NEW YORK, WEEK OF AUGUST 26TH

INAUGURATION Week is announced at B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre, commencing Monday, August 26th, which will be the grand opening of the Fall Season. Heading this monster program will be the favorite Broadway entertainer, Mr. Eddie Foy, star of "Over the River," shortly to have its second season in New York. Mr. Foy is considered the funniest comedian on the stage today and he will be assisted by the seven little Foy's, all sons of the popular comedian. Any one can readily imagine what a glorious time everybody will have with this aggregation of comedians.

All the little Foyettes will do clog dancing, singing, burlesque acting and all will try to give impersonations of their Dad, who in the mean time, will keep the audience in good humor with his comedy antics. Mr. Foy has been engaged especially for this big week and it will be his only appearance in vaudeville this season.

Another important engagement of the week will be the grand appearance of the wonderful entertainer Willie Holt Wakefield, known as "The Lady at the Piano," giving a series of new and original musical studies with charming individuality.

Another feature of the bill will be Miss Kate Jackson, who styles herself, "The Truly Rural Girl." Her offering is most original, and as a backwoods character comedienne, she surpasses anything heretofore seen in vaudeville. The humor of her originality is so contagious that the audience is in a tumult of merriment throughout her entire performance. Come and give her a royal welcome.

The surrounding bill is fully up to the standard of those who have preceded it. Vaudeville's favorite black-face comedians Conroy and LeMaire, will give a perfect version of their delightful comedy entertainment. Then comes the great Parisian feature, The Amorous Sisters, who call themselves, "Those French Girls," giving a potpourri of songs, dances, and acrobatic and physical culture demonstrations. Eddie Parto and Florence Clark, a young couple from downtown who have been making a "hit" everywhere will enliven the bill with a witty musical skit called, "In '65." "Poland" is a somewhat different juggler and is certainly a marvel of precision; dexterity and speed, doing marvelous feats of necromancy in a most thrilling manner.

F. F. PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE, NEW YORK, WEEK OF AUGUST 26TH.

At Proctor's Fifth Avenue, the bill for the week of August will be one of representative excellence, calling as it does for a wide range of features, each one the leader in the respective line. The star offering will be the vaudeville debut of the finished comedian, Jefferson De Angelis, who accomplished laugh producing hero of nearly a hundred musical pieces. On this occasion, Mr. De Angelis, surrounded by a merry company will appear in "All At Sea," a jolly nautical farce. Next in importance will come Lillian Shaw delighted character comedienne with a budget of new and brilliant material, with appropriate costume changes. Combining technically perfect piano playing with charming soprano ingenuousness will be the act of Leo Edwards and Miss Parker who claim that they will introduce the first 1913's big song hits. Joe Jackson, the inevitable pantomimist will extract laughs from his ludicrous attempts to ride a comedy bicycle, while the Farber Sisters will appear in bits of refined dancing and singing. Arline and Adler will submit an original offering, "A New Idea," said to be a screaming travesty on hypnotism; Manny and Roberts are going to amuse with patter, songs and dances; the Arto Brothers should prove veritable Samsons in their prodigious feats of strength, while The Act Beautiful should interest, being the story of a hunt told with living models glorifying the sport of the chase.

IN MEMORIAM.

The shadow of death has again darkened the home of Malcolm Nicholson of Hopedale, and this time it is with a loving wife and mother the husband and children bid farewell. Mrs. Nicholson had been ill for a little over a week of pneumonia when she passed to that realm where none of the inhabitants say "I am sick." She leaves to mourn three sons and two daughters. Great sympathy is felt with the grief-stricken husband who has been called upon to part with his partner in many sorrows. One after another within a very few years they were called upon to give up three sons and two daughters whom she tenderly nursed and pointed to him in whom she herself found comfort for her sorrows and strength for her burden.

It is not alone in the home that she will be missed but in the community at large. She was a warm-hearted and loyal friend and generous and sympathetic in a marked degree. The daughter of a good man, the late Donald Nicholson, Elder for many years in Strathalbyn, she was raised in an atmosphere of piety and in her last hours gave evidence that the faith she professed in her life was sustaining her still. She had reached the age of sixty-five.
