AVERAGE TEMPERATURE SIM-ILAR—Mean temperature for January, 1939, was 25.4 degrees above zero, according to officials of the Dominion Experimental Station here yesterday. The weather for the month differed little with that of the same period last year when the mean temperature was 25. Lowest mark the mercury reached in the month was three below zero, the same temperature registered for the coldest day of January, 1938.

NARROW ESCAPE—Rev. Colin MacNevin of the United Church, Weymouth formerly of Charlottettown had a close brush with death recently, when his car skidded on Victoria Bridge, spanning the mouth of Bear River, and crashed through the railing. The accident occurred within 100 feet of the point on the bridge where Eustace Dunn and Roy Rayden, two Digby plumbers, plunged to their deaths a year ago this month. It is understood that Mr. MacNevin applied his brakes and skidded on the wet snow. The front of the car was badly damaged in the crash, with a piece of timber driven through the grill. The car, held by the under part of the frame, balanced over the bridge until removed by a wrecker, and taken to Digby.

Pontiff's Death Subject Of Bishop's Letter

To the Reverend Clergy of the Diocese.

Dear Reverend Fathers, We were deeply shocked when the news was flashed throughout the world that God summoned to Himself the soul of Pope Pius the Eleventh during the early hours of this morning," writes His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan in a pastoral letter issued yesterday to the Catholic clergy of the diocese of Charlottetown. "Although aware that this aged and valiant Pontiff was unwell, the official reports regarding his condition were not too alarming, and as he had such magnificent courage in conquering former ailments, we expected he would be able to shake off this latest attack in spite of his advanced years.
We were hopeful too, that Pius XI. would be spared to the Church for a few years longer to guide it through these troubled times, for he seemed to have been raised up by God in a special way to combat the insidious evils that are rampant in the world today.

This year was to round out the diamond jubilee of his priesthood, and plans were already being made to commemorate this unusual event with world-wide celebrations. Next Sunday was to be the 17th anniversary of his coronation as Pope, and we intended, this very day, to cable to our annual greeting of filial affection and loyal devotion from this diocese —a message which always seemed to please him and to which he gratefully responded through his Cardinal Secretary of State. We looked forward, also, with joyful anticipation, to paying our "ad limina" visit to His Holiness this year, when we would have the privilege of a personal interview with him and would hear, we trusted, from the lips of Christ's earthly Vicar, words of encouragement and advice regarding the carrying out of our spiritual stewardship in this diocese.

"We know that Pope Pius the Eleventh was truly a great Pope, His name will live in history as one of the outstanding Pontiffs of all times—a dauntless champion of God and of our Saving Jesus Christ, whose intrepid Vicar he was in the midst of widespread and alarming attacks upon the very fundamentals of the Christian civilization has been reared.
Brilliant and keen-minded as he was, he must have been just as truly a very holy man. Surely he was well prepared to meet his God after such a laborious life and such a distinguished fulfillment of the sacred duties entrusted to him in the discharge of his exalted office. Nevertheless, he was a man who, like all of us, our fratiles like all of us, our to pray for the happy repose of his immortal soul, even as we pray for the souls of the humblest members, and we must offer the holy sacrifice of the Mass that God may deign to number him among the saints of the Kingdom of Heaven."

The Bishop's letter concludes with directions for a Requiem Mass to be sung on the day of the Pope's funeral, and special prayers for the occasion.
