The success of last evening are to be repeated at New Wonderland tonight and no doubt large crowds will be in attendance to see the splendid pictures and to hear Mr. Dick and Miss Von Branders sing. Mr. Dick was an instant favorite last evening at New Wonderland and received rounds of applause.

Albert Murphy, a truckman of this City, met with a serious accident the other day. His horse caught his right hand in his teeth and reared, scraping the hand down to the fore finger which was mangled so badly that amputation was necessary. It was later reported that the horse was now muzzled to prevent a similar accident.

Miss Marion Wathen, who has been in Charlottetown doing literary work since last August, has gone to visit friends at Beulah on the St. John River. Miss Wathen was the organizer of the Mother's Magazine and ran it for some time in this province. Later she sold out to David Cook and spent some time at his headquarters in Illinois, assisting in getting it well established. St. John Sun.

Capt Snow of the tug William Aitken met with quite a serious accident last week. While towing the dredge Prince Edward from Victoria to this City, the pall post on the dredge to which the low line was fastened broke, and the captain who was near it was hit and badly shaken up by the sudden jerk of the line. Capt. Snow will be laid up for some time on account of the accident.

James McKenna, one of the most popular of the C. P. R. passenger agents even on the Atlantic Division, arrived in St. John Friday in charge of one of the special trains, bringing passengers for the C. P. R. steamship Empress of Britain to the Allan liner Tunisian. It is two years and a half since he left St. John and he was given a hearty reception by friends in this city. Mr. McKenna has his headquarters now in Montreal. He is going to Charlottetown and thence back to Quebec. His friends hope the winter port activities will necessitate frequent visits to his old home here.—St. John Telegraph.

"It is economical to use 'Salada' Tea on account of its great strength and delicious flavor. It requires little more than half as much as some other teas in the making.

The sad news reached the City yesterday of the death of Mrs. Charles McCarthy of Johnston's River. On Saturday she received a telegram stating that her son Justin McCarthy had died in the Central Hospital at Bangor. The news gave her such a terrible shock that she never rallied. The funeral of mother and son will take place tomorrow.

A rare treat was enjoyed by all who attended New Wonderland last evening and heard the charming singing by Mr. Dick and Miss Von Branders. The audience were delighted with Mr. Dick who is an original choir boy singer and the greatest Guitar player in America. He sang only the best music and some of his own compositions are often given. With the splendid program of moving pictures and special features as singing by two such capable persons as Mr. Dick and Miss Von Branders, New Wonderland is certainly deserving of the full houses it receives from night to night.

A first class hostelry admirably suited to the requirements of Provincialists who visit New York is the Hotel Victoria, situated on Broadway Fifth Avenue and 27th Street, in the centre of the shopping district and of which George W. Sweeney is the well known proprietor. The building is absolutely fire proof, is thoroughly equipped with hot and cold water baths, telephones etc., while it is most artistically and tastefully furnished being especially homelike and cosy for ladies who are visiting New York without escorts. The cafe in connection is first class in every detail, the service being prompt and efficient, while the rates are most reasonable.

"Miss Maud Waterman, Organist of Zion Church, is prepared to take pupils in piano and organ. Application should be made at her home 185 Prince St. 12-1d1wpd.

The Cap of Stylish Comfort

Easiest thing in the world to get a warm, comfortable cap—and it is not hard to get a handsome cap. But, until now, it has been very hard to secure a handsome, stylish cap that is comfortable. The handsome cap illustrated above has a knitted wool band, which in case of frosty weather may be pulled down over the ears. When the weather does not require it, the band fits snugly inside the cap, not interfering in any way with the jaunty set of the headpiece. Come in and let's tell you about it. We have the line in nobby tweeds in new shades, all sizes 75c $1.00 1.25 Blue or black broadcloth caps with fur lined band, 75c to 1.50 Warm tweed caps with fleecce lined band 50c Ordinary golfers, in latest shapes, new tweeds, 50c, 75c 1.00 Our splendid range of caps is bringing us the cap trade of the-city. We have your cap.
