—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWERS. —One November 22nd, 1948, the people of Tryon and surrounding districts, gathered at the Tryon Community Hall to tender a shower to Miss Helen Carr, one of the season's most popular brides. The bride was led to a decorated chair by Mrs. Eric Craig. Miss Adele Dixon and Master Roger Lord, dressed as little bride and groom. The gifts were carried in a well laden basket and opened by Mrs Sterline Lord and Mrs. Albert Cailbeck, and the accompanying verses read by Miss Sheldon Dixon. The gifts were placed on the table by Mrs. Walter Wood and Mrs. Gordon Carr. The bride received many lovely and useful gifts including pyrex, linen, silverware, etc. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies and then all departed to their homes wishing Helen many years of wedded bliss. A shower was also given in honor of Miss Helen Carr, at the home of Mrs. Leith Jay, Gerald Street, on November 25th, 1948. The bride was escorted to a decorated chair. The gifts were passed to the bride by Mrs. Duncan MacPhail and the accompanying verses read by Miss Mae MacDonald and placed on the table by Mrs. Eric Jay. After the gifts were opened a very sumptuous lunch was served by Mrs. Leith Jay, Mrs. Eric Jay and Miss Mae MacDonald. The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts.
