THE CYCLONE
The fury and danger of the Cyclone is nothing compared to the destruction levied by the mail order business. The havoc caused by this evil will never be known. It can not be reckoned in figures. One well-known mail order house alone wrecked and circulated in one year twenty million catalogs. Towns have been wiped out of existence, land values wrecked, farm depopulated and business brought to a standstill. Thinking people of all classes—farmers, merchants, manufacturers—are now alive to the danger and have begun work to counteract its effects. Every town is being urged to wage a campaign of education to arouse the thought of the people. The imaginary, long-distance bargain has never yet measured up to the standard and value of HOME-bought goods.
