

PYREX NEWS

From HOLMAN'S CHINA

Don't miss our Pyrex Ware Counter . . . On it you will see displayed every type of utensil that you'll need for your kitchen—all made of gleaming, sparkling glass. You can watch the foods cook "just right" with Pyrex Ware. . . . You can serve foods "piping hot" directly from the stove to the table. There is only room here to tell you about a few of the many Pyrex dishes. Today's modern cooking utensils are made of Pyrex Ware — Outfit your kitchen completely in the new modern manner.

DOUBLE BOILER

Pyrex Double Boilers have been out of stock for some time—but they're back again and better than ever. The band and handle brace are made of stainless steel and the glass is clear and bright.

4.95

BAKERS—priced from 49 to 89c. INDIVIDUAL BAKERS — priced at 2 for 15 cents and 2 for 25 cents.

MEASURING MUGS — 32 ounce, priced at 1.10.

CAKE DISHES—priced at 89 to 75c

GIFT SETS—3 pieces of "Flame-ware" priced at 3.95. Blue Diamond priced at 3.95. Home Maker Set priced at 1.95.

CASSEROLES—priced at 89c to 1.49.

DOUBLE DUTY CASSEROLES — priced at 89 cents to 1.49.

NURSING BOTTLES — 4 ounce size priced at 20 cents. 8 ounce size priced at 25 cents.

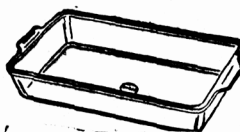

PIE PLATES—priced at 35 to 49c each.

PIE PLATE JUICE SAVERS—priced at 59 and 75 cents.

LOAF PANS—priced at 75 and 99c. UTILITY DISHES — priced at 75 and 99 cents.

MIXING BOWLS—Sets of 3—clear glass priced at 1.49. Sets of 4—colored glass priced at 3.70.

FERCOLATORS—priced at 3.65.

HOLMAN'S 2 BIG STORES

SUMMERSIDE & CHARLOTTETOWN

"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET"

THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: J. Elmer Murphy, 186 Hanover Street, and George Clow, 126 Ottawa Street. SUMMERSIDE and PRINCE COUNTY News, Subscriptions, Advertising.

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following stores in Summerside: Bell Bookstore, Water Street; Gourlay, Drummond, 81 Central Street; Toronto Bakery, Water Street; Mark Gaudet, 87 Granville Street; Vines's Grocery, Russell Street; Alyre Donette's Grocery, Second Street; Island Motor Transport, Water Street.

The Guardian will be delivered to any home in Summerside by Carrier Boy at 26 per day or 150 per week. Phone 289 or 289-2 for this service or give your order to the boy responsible for delivery on your route.

—WANTED—four-room apartment. Phone 686-1, Summerside.

—FOR SALE, two brood sows, due to farrow in July. Wallace Craig, Middleton.

—FOR SALE—3 Registered Shorthorn Bulls, 14 months old. John Burrows, Wilmet.

—HOUSES FOR SALE Apply W. R. Warren, Summerside, Box 592, or phone 321-2.

—FOR SALE—1940 DeSoto sedan. All new tires. Also 1947 civilian Jeep. Perfect condition. Phone 494-3, Summerside.

—FOR SALE—1942 International 1/2 ton truck, 1933 Chevrolet Standard Coupe, 1928 Chevrolet Coach, 1932 Pontiac Sedan. Apply George Deighan, Borden, after 5 P. M.

—TOMATO PLANTS for sale, also cabbage and cauliflower. Mail orders accepted. Albany F. Palmer, 420 Myrtle Street, Box 404, Summerside.

—JUNE WEDDING BELLS—Among the loveliest of early June weddings was that of Gladys Mae Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keir Mann, Irishtown, P. E. Island, and Frank Manning Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Sunny Brae, Moncton, N. B. The nuptial vows were spoken before Rev. Steadman Smith of the United Church, at the home of the groom's parents, 59 Broadway St., on Wednesday, June 2nd, 1948, at 7.15 p.m. Pink and white streamers decorated the room and an arch of cherry blossoms made a charming setting for the bridal party. The youthful bride, bewitchingly lovely in her floor-length gown of white tulle with sweetheart neckline, and fitted bodice, entered the room on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Harry Wigmore, who gave her in marriage. Her trailing bridal veil, caught with orange blossoms, and an arm bouquet of red roses completed the ensemble. Her bridesmaid, Miss Berneice Lamson of French River, P. E. Island, looked very winsome in her gown of pink tulle, and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Mr. William Campbell, Jr., ably supported his brother as groomsmen. The Wedding March was played by Mr. C. Knapp Halfkenny, who also accompanied Mrs. Harry Wigmore, aunt of the bride, as she sang the solo, O Promise Me. The bride's mother was becomingly attired in pale blue with black accessories, while the groom's mother chose a floral silk jersey, and wore black accessories. About 40 invited guests witnessed the ceremony. After the bride and groom had been photographed a buffet supper was served, when a beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. David Budd, Mrs. U. F. Fawcett, Mrs. Harold Morrow, Mrs. Manning Milton, and Mrs. Barbara Alton. Out of town guests were the bride's mother, Mrs. Keir Mann, and Miss Anne Campbell of Irishtown, P. E. Island, and Mr. and Mrs. Mood Gaudet, of McKee's Mills, N. B. Many valuable gifts were received by the young couple, among them a lamp from the employees of Budd's Garage, Ltd., where the groom is employed as office clerk. The bride is a graduate of Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, P. E. Island, and holds a responsible position at the Bank of Nova Scotia, Moncton. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will spend their honeymoon at the bride's home and other points in P. E. Island, and at a summer cottage at McKee's Mills, N. B. The bride's travelling costume was American Beauty, with black accessories. They will reside at 86 Broadway St., Sunny Brae, N. B.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Arsene Gallant of Miscouche was held on Thursday morning, June 3rd, with Requiem High Mass at St. John the Baptist Church, celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Kelly. The pall bearers were Messrs. Ovide Gaudet, Leo Gaudet, Gus J. P. Gaudet, Melvin Gaudet, Phil H. DesRoches, Joachim G. DesRoches. The late Mr. Gallant who was 88 years of age died on May 31st. He was a native of St. Chrysostome but had lived most of his adult life in Miscouche where he had been a prominent citizen, taking an active interest in anything pertaining to the welfare of the community and the church. His wife predeceased him in 1940. He is survived by three sons, Anthony, Edmund, and John all of Boston; also two daughters, Octavie, Mrs. Frank Perry, Maine, and Dina, Mrs. Augustine DesRoches, Miscouche. A brother Dr. A. Gallant of Anheerst, Magdalen Islands also survives.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Arsene Gallant of Miscouche was held on Thursday morning, June 3rd, with Requiem High Mass at St. John the Baptist Church, celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Kelly. The pall bearers were Messrs. Ovide Gaudet, Leo Gaudet, Gus J. P. Gaudet, Melvin Gaudet, Phil H. DesRoches, Joachim G. DesRoches. The late Mr. Gallant who was 88 years of age died on May 31st. He was a native of St. Chrysostome but had lived most of his adult life in Miscouche where he had been a prominent citizen, taking an active interest in anything pertaining to the welfare of the community and the church. His wife predeceased him in 1940. He is survived by three sons, Anthony, Edmund, and John all of Boston; also two daughters, Octavie, Mrs. Frank Perry, Maine, and Dina, Mrs. Augustine DesRoches, Miscouche. A brother Dr. A. Gallant of Anheerst, Magdalen Islands also survives.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—The following account of a wedding, in a Toronto paper, will prove of interest to many in the province: "The standards of white stocks and fairs formed the setting this afternoon (Saturday, May 29) for the wedding of Norma Jean MacMurdo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley MacMurdo (Toronto) and Harold Howson Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Byers, Oakville, in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto. Rev. Edward Morley officiated. Mrs. D. R. Sime played the wedding music and Harry Cole was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a portrait gown of antique ivory satin. The high neckline with a bias fold gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the long full skirt extended into a circular train. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of heirloom lace and she carried a plumage bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Stafford Smythe was maid of honor in a picture of apple green nylon tulle with matching bonnet accented by a darker green ribbon. She carried a plumage bouquet of yellow spring flowers. John Byers, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Robert MacMurdo, brother of the bride, and Robert Humphries. At the reception held at Wymilwood, the bride's mother received in dove grey tulle with pink flowered hat and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in old gold lace with brown hat and corsage of cream roses. For the honeymoon to the United States by motor, the bride travelled in a navy suit with navy and white accessories. There are ladies at Giff's Toronto. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. J. MacMurdo in Summerside.—S.

CAPITOL Summerside

LAST SHOWING TODAY OF DOUBLE BILL "THE SEA WOLF" and

R.C.M.P. FILE 1365 (The Conno's Case)

Shows 2:30 - 7:15 - 9:15 MONDAY and TUESDAY

WARNER HIT NIGEL BRUCE · PETER GODFREY

Also SPORT REELS

Shows 7:15 - 9:15 — Matinee Tuesday 3:30

Personals

—Rev. John A. Gaudet of Charlottetown is spending a week with Rev. N. J. Poirier, Egmont Bay.—S.

—Mr. Ben MacLeod, who spent the past eight months with his nephew, Mr. Fred Proffitt, Burlington, left on Saturday for Truro, N. S. Mr. MacLeod will also visit his daughter and family at Ottawa. Bur.

—Mrs. Herdon Mann, Burlington, will leave this week to visit her sister, who is seriously ill at Vancouver, B.C. Mrs. Mann will be accompanied by her son Leith, who will be employed with an oil company near Calgary, Alberta. Bur.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mann, Burlington, spent the past week at Mrs. Mann's former home at Tignish. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mann's sister, Miss Emily Dorgan, Summerside, and by Mrs. Keith Adams, Burlington, who visited members of her family at O'Leary. Bur.

REGENT

MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

ALBERT PRODUCED AND DIRECTED BY ROBERT SIDOMAK WITH LEO G. CARROLL MELBA CARTER · JOHN ABBOTT · HENRY STEPHENSON Based on a novel by Rachel Field

Matinee Monday and Wednesday 3:30

Shows 7:15 and 9:15

Last Showing Today

DOUBLE BILL

"HEART OF THE WEST"

and

"THE DEVIL ON WHEELS"

GAMEO THEATRE

KENSINGTON

Saturday 7:15-9:15 Roy Rogers and "Gabby" Hayes

In "HELDORADO" with Dale Evans and the Sons of the Pioneers Also Serial and News

TRAVEL BY AIR

To AMHERST-TRURO-KENTVILLE-CHATHAM-BATHURST, etc., etc. Low Fares — Fast Time PAUL'S FLYING SERVICE Charlottetown Airport—Phone 1800-3

5 Days $ $ $ $ SAVING SPECIALS

Fri. June 11 to Wed. June 16

MILLAR'S STORE, Kensington

- Aylmer's Vegetable Soup 3 tins