"KATHLYN"

In Story and Film

ONE of the greatest tales of Adventure Illustrated in the movies that has ever been given to the public, to be read and seen in Charlottetown, commencing May 2nd.

The Guardian has secured from the Chicago "Tribune" the exclusive rights for P. E. Island for the story of "Kathlyn," by Harold McGrath, the well known American fiction writer.

This intensely interesting novel will appear in weekly chapters covering a period of 26 weeks, beginning in The Guardian of Saturday May 2nd. One full page will be published on each Saturday from that date, until the story is complete, the whole running for a period of 26 weeks.

Mr. W. G. Hogg, manager of the People's Theatre, has secured for his theatre the use of the "Kathlyn" films. These, each in the series illustrating the events related in two chapters of the story, will be shown in the People's for two days every fortnight, running concurrently with the story in The Guardian. Lovers of fiction will thus be able to read the story in this paper and a day or two later find it illustrated at the People's.

"Kathlyn" is an intensely interesting recital of the adventures of a young lady, the daughter of an animal hunter, who while accompanying her father on a trip through India, is made prisoner and created queen of one of the Indian principalities.

The pictures are by the Selig Company and in their production splendid use has been made of the Selig's immense animal farm in California. The assistance has also been requisitioned of a troupe of East Indians, whose presence adds greatly to the realism of the picture.

Orders for the whole series of papers containing this "Kathlyn" series should be sent in immediately, as after the first press run, no extra copies will be available.
