COME TO THE big auction and Whist Party in Rosary and Caledonian Halls, Thursday, March 27th. Good prizes and a good time. 1931-21

SOCIAL GATHERING—On Wednesday evening, Feb. 19th, many jolly parties might have been seen wending their way to St. John's Rectory where our honored Rector, Rev. C. F. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, were hosts to the people of St. John's Parish and their friends. The Rectory was soon filled to capacity and an evening's entertainment that will long be remembered by those present was very successfully carried out, thanks to the leadership of Mr. Johnston and Miss Johnston of Charlottetown. Mrs. L. H. Coles presided at the piano, while the Misses Helen Doull, Doris Stockman, Jean and Verna Rodd, added much to the evening's pleasure by the splendid duets, solos, etc. given. Miss Doull's monologue, a vivid description of the contrast of the past as compared with the doings of the present day clearly proved that we are indeed living in a progressive age. The many games and contests participated in were each instructive and brought out many flashes of wit and wisdom. This community get-together is a splendid idea and it is hoped many more such evenings will be spent by the good people of Milltown. Before going home Mr. C. E. MacKenzie in a brief speech conveyed the thanks of the visitors to the Rector and Mrs. Johnston to which Mr. Johnston fittingly replied.

P. W. C. DEBATING—That Public Utility should be under Public Ownership was the resolution discussed by the Prince of Wales College Debating Society yesterday, and carried by a vote of 35 to 25. The speakers for the Pro side were E. Benjamin Rogers and Helen Rogers, and those for the Con were Gordon Darrach and Charles Howatt, with Marion Millman as critic. The speakers for the affirmative pointed out that public ownership of public utilities supplies service at cost, while public ownership leads to monopolies and resulting increased costs that the owners may prosper. Many such companies are owned in whole or in part by foreigners. It was argued by the Con side that men put forth greater effort when working for privately owned corporations than they otherwise would. Men who are not giving good service, it was held, are not easily dismissed when working for the public. The failure of the public utility system in Russia in the public control of utility was also referred to. It was also contended that private companies operate on a profitable basis because they operate more economically than do public companies.

BENCHERS OF LAW SOCIETY WOULD ELIMINATE FOUR IN SUPREME COURT

TORONTO, Feb. 25—Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in convention at Osgoode Hall today went on record as being in favor of a reduction of the number of Supreme Court judges from 19 to 15 and the reduction of a quorum on the two appellate divisions to three members each.

The question of salary was not discussed, it was learned, but there was the slight hope that with a reduction in the number of judges Ottawa might be munificent and harken in some degree to the recommendation of a committee of the Canadian Bar Association, which, two years ago, recommended that judges of the Superior courts in the provinces should get $15,000 a year instead of $9,000.

Those who ought to know still believe that about all the judges may hope for this session will be immunity from income tax. To-day's meeting was held largely upon the suggestion of Hon. William H. Price, Attorney-General, who wanted to know the views of the profession on changes which were hinted at by Premier Ferguson in the House last Friday.

Among those present to hear the discussion were E. Bayly, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General, and W. F. Tilley, K.C., and Hon. N. W. Rowell, K.C., both of whom are members of the judicial salaries committee of the Canadian Bar Association.

Canadian Pork Exports Scarce

REGINA, Sask., Feb. 25—For the first time in 40 years during the months of January and February 1930, Canada has not exported a single pound of pork products, stated J. McLean, president of the Canadian Packers, Ltd., of Toronto during a review of the livestock industry of Canada at yesterday's session of the western Canada livestock union convention here: Only 30,000,000 pounds were sent to Britain in 1929, while so far this year not one shipment has been made.

A partial explanation was that Canadians are at present consuming practically all the bacon produced in the country and at the same time the production, though not decreasing, has not kept pace with the demand. One million more hogs could have been marketed each year for the past five years, at an approximate value of $25 each. Instead the feed which would have produced these animals was shipped out as grain, with a consequent loss in profit to the Canadian farmer that was impossible to estimate.

LONDON, Feb. 25—Howard Carter, one of the discoverers of the tomb of Tut-ankh-Amen in Egypt, does not believe that the curse of the Pharaohs hangs over those associated with the discovery.

"Rumors of a curse are a libelous invention," Carter wired to the Evening Standard from Luxor in reply to its caustic inquiry. The superstition was recalled Friday when the suicide of Lord Westbury, father of Richard Bethell, who had been secretary to Mr. Carter and himself had died unexpectedly last November. It was pointed out here that Lord Westbury's death was the ninth among those more or less intimately connected with the opening of the tomb.

The curse, which is supposed to bear the malignant force of centuries is said to be as follows: "Death shall come on swift wings to him that toucheth the tomb of a Pharaoh."

Monthly Meeting Caledonian Club

At the monthly meeting of the Caledonian Club held last evening in the club rooms, President John K. McKenzie presiding, it was decided to hold the annual games on July 1, the place to be named later. The reading by Gleanman Paton of a very interesting and much appreciated article, the programme of Burns Concert for 1932, gave birth to the idea of having some form of literary or musical entertainment at each future meeting, the featuring to be provided by some club member in reading, song or story. Gleanman John K. McKenzie gave a very interesting Scottish reading.

A communication was read from Miss Heloise Russell-Ferguson, of Port Appin, Argyll, Scotland, asking the club to look into the feasibility of staging an entertainment in the city. The communicant is an accomplished singer, pianist, and player of the harp.

The Games Committee appointed is composed of Gleanman J. K. McKenzie, J. M. McFadyen, A. B. Erwin, C. F. McDonald, D. J. McDonald, J. G. McFadyen, Malcolm McKinnon T. M. McMillan.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Dear Mrs. McMahon, Rocky Point. As an all-wise Heavenly Father has been pleased to enter your home and take away the darling baby, which was only lent you for a short time, we fully realize the parting was more painful than words can express.

We know the joy and happiness that pervaded your home while you had your darling to love and care for, but rest assured dear Mrs. McMahon, that your loved one is safe in the arms of Him who took the little one up in his arms and blessed them.

We therefore commit you to the care and keeping of Him, who doeth all things well. Tenderly submitted in behalf of Ringwood Women's Institute, Mrs. Nelson Currie, President; Mrs. Wm. Mutch, Secretary.
