The annual Sunday School convention, comprising the United Churches of Kensington, Margate, Frestown, Kelvin, North Bedeque and Malpeque, met in the Memorial Room of Princetown United Church on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Mr. Loring, Kensington, president, in the chair. Other ministers present were: Rev. Mr. Levy, Chester, N. S., who is Boy's Secretary for Maritime Provinces, with headquarters in St. John, Rev. Mr. Somers, Margate, Rev. Mr. Nicholson, North Bedeque and Rev. Mr. McMillan, Malpeque. Delegates were present from all places mentioned above.

The meeting was opened by singing hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," followed by the reading of Matthew, chapter 18 by Mr. Loring. Mr. McMillan then led in prayer, followed by Mr. Somers. After the singing of hymn "Near My God to Thee," the convention was opened by a few introductory remarks by the President, Mr. Harold Laird, secretary, read report of meeting held in October. Mr. Levy gave a short talk to the executive on Sunday School work. The secretary then read the minutes of the last annual meeting. The president gave his report, including the report of the executive.

The treasurer, Mr. Laird, announced he had no financial report, but spoke of receiving contributions from several Sunday Schools. Mr. Murphy, Kelvin, reported contributions to Sunday School work from ten schools.

The allocation for Sunday School work was set for $50.00. Reports were then read regarding Sunday School work in Malpeque, Margate and Kensington. Rev. Mr. Levy then gave an inspiring address, which was very much appreciated by all present. Questions on problems of Sunday School work were then asked by Rev. Mr. Nicholson and answered by various ones.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Loring brought to a close the afternoon session.

The delegates were then entertained at several homes.

At eight o'clock in the evening the convention met in the large auditorium of the church. A large gathering was present. Rev. Mr. McMillan, Rev. Mr. Loring and Rev. Mr. Levy occupied seats on the platform. After singing the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," Mr. McMillan read the Scripture reading, followed by Mr. Loring in prayer. "Onward Christian Soldiers" was then sung. Report of nominating committee was then read. For president, Rev. Mr. Loring. Vice-president, Rev. Mr. McMillan, Sec. and Treas., Mr. Harold Laird. After the singing of hymn, "Saviour, While my Heart is Tender," Mr. Levy gave a very beautiful address on "Worship in the Sunday School," directing his remarks particularly to the Trail Rangers, The True Blues and C. I. T. girls. The Bluebirds, who occupied seats in the front of the church. At close of meeting Mr. Loring thanked Mr. McMillan for allowing them to hold convention in his church, also to the people for their hospitality and all those who had helped to make convention a success. The meeting was brought to a close by singing, "Blest be the Tie That Binds" and Benediction.

The Ladies Aid of the Keir Memorial Church held a very successful bazaar and tea on Friday afternoon, June 3rd in Malpeque Hall. A large number of people attended from the surrounding district, also from Kensington and Summerside. The sum of ninety five dollars was realized.

Mr. A. W. Woodside, Darnley, has purchased a building lot from Mr. George Simpson, Kensington and plans building a new home there. Mr. and Mrs. Woodside will be much missed by all.

Mr. Bennison Craig and Mr. James Paul of Wallaston, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair McGougan. Mr. Craig's father, Mr. John Craig, who has been so seriously ill in Quincey Hospital, Mass., is much improved and expects soon to return to his home in Wallaston, Mass.

600 lbs. The catch of quahaugs is far below the level of last year, owing to the fact that the Earle Fisheries are not canning this year, having several cases of last year's stock on hand. Perhaps later on in the season they will again begin canning. Trout fishing in King's and Prince counties is exceedingly good.

FAREWELL—Prior to her departure for Millview, P. E. Island, a farewell party for Miss Mabel Jenkins was given at the home of her sister, Mrs. Belle Brown, 52 North Crescent Circuit, Brighton, on Tuesday evening, May 31st, where Miss Jenkins has been spending the past winter. Among the guests were the former co-workers of Miss Jenkins, who some time ago was employed in the capacity of secretary with the Henry Fox Wholesale Fur Company. The guests were ushered into the living room, which was spaciouly decorated with roses and snapdragons, by Mrs. Brown, who was dressed in powder blue chiffon. After reminiscing old acquaintances luncheon was served in the dining room. A number of toasts were tendered Miss Jenkins to which she fittingly replied. The ices were cut by Mrs. I. A. Beaton, sister of Mrs. Brown, and Miss Jenkins, who was attired in flowered silk. Tea was poured by Miss Mildred Brown, who wore pale green chiffon. Those who assisted in serving were: Miss Grace Marston, Mrs. Angelo Taskerakas, Misses Doris MacLeod and Pauline Erickson, who were all dressed in organdie, made in Victorian style. Miss Jenkins, guest of honor, wore flowered chiffon. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and music. The music was rendered by the Misses Brown and MacLeod. On Tuesday evening, June 2nd, a family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Bell Brown in honor of Miss Jenkins. The evening was spent in games and music after which a luncheon was served. Before leaving for their respective homes all joined hand and sang "Auld Lang Syne" and wished Miss Jenkins "Bon Voyage". Among those from the Island were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lea, formerly of Vernon River and Miss Mat MacEachern and Messrs. Almont and Ivan MacEachern of Albery Plains.—Brighton, Mass., Item.

Cornwall

Mr. Percy Boyle, Hunter River spent the week end at his home in Meadowbank.

Mrs. Noy and Mrs. Ida Carson with her son Ernest Carson of Dedham, Mass, formerly of Charlottetown, motored home to the island last week and spent several days with relatives and friends in Clyde River and Cornwall, before returning to Dedham Mass.

Mrs. Farquharson and Mrs. Henry Jenkins of Mt. Herbert were guests of Miss Thankful Newson on Thursday of this week.

Dr. Ayers and Mrs. Ayers were visitors to Meadowbank on June third and enjoyed the concert in Cornwall Hall that evening.

A large congregation attended the United Church service on Sunday evening Rev. D. K. Ross spoke on the subject "Where there is no vision the people perish" taken from Proverbs. Announcement was made of the Mission Band Pageant which will be presented on Sunday evening in the Cornwall United Church.

Friends from far and near gathered together at the home of Lillian McPhail, Meadowbank, on Saturday night to tender her their very best wishes in this new sphere of life, which she enters upon this coming week. The esteem in which Lillian is held was shown by the lovely gifts showered upon her. To the strains of the wedding March played by Mrs. Leslie McEwen, and preceded by a small bride and groom. Evelyn Scott and Eric McFadyen were escorted to the seat of honor. Mrs. Peter Scott, Mrs. Norman McFadyen and Mrs. Lemuel Drake assisted in opening the many parcels and Miss Hattie Howard read the verses attached which created much fun. Mrs. Lemuel Drake read an address from the Women's Institute of which Lillian is a member and presented her with a gift of gold from that society. Lillian thanked everyone in a very pleasing manner and all joined in singing "For She is a Jolly Good Fellow." A social time was then enjoyed with a Sing Song led by Etta Ross. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a pleasant evening brought to a close.—C.

Troubles: It is the little troubles of life that are so hard to bear. The great disaster, the dark tragedies of existence, call forth the latent heroism in human nature and are patiently endured. But the petty annoyances—it is these that find out our weak spots. Learn to put up with the pinpricks, for that is the secret of contentment.

Patience: Patience is the key of contentment.—Mahomet.
