MALPEQUE - Week of Prayer service in Princetown United Church on Monday, January 10th, at 7:30 P. M. Rev. J. A. McGowan, will preach.

STATIONED AT GUAM - Mr. John W. MacDonald, a deep sea diver at the Philippine Islands, returned to the mainland on Saturday morning after a ten days' visit on Palau Island, where he was called by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Rose MacDonald, of Summerside. The trip from Guam to Boston was made by plane. While in Summerside, Mr. MacDonald visited Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Brecher Best.

ENTERTAINS INSTITUTE - Mrs. John McInnis entertained the New Annapolis Women's Institute at her home on Thursday evening for the January meeting. The president, Mrs. Stewart Moore, was in the chair. A new member was welcomed. There were no reports received from any of the communities, who were unavoidably absent. The new sick committee was Mrs. Delbert Rayner, and the school committee is Mrs. McInnis. Remnants received from Eaton's and Simpson's were distributed for the making into articles for a bazaar. The next meeting will be held at the home of the president. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rayner and Mrs. Elmer Moore.

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICE - The closing service of the observance of the Universal Week of Prayer in Summerside was held on Friday evening in the United Baptist Church with the minister, Rev. E. J. Barras, conducting the worship. Opening with the reading of the hymn "Just As I Am" offered as a prayer by the prayer of General Thanksgiving followed. The minister led in a special session of silent prayers consisting of Thanksgiving, Christian Fellowship, Petition, and a prayer for continued blessing on all the churches. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Rev. William Blison was the speaker of the evening and he delivered a thought-provoking sermon on "Prayer in the New Year" from the text in John 1:9. The Scripture was read from Luke 11:1-13 verses. In each of the churches during the week the choir led in the singing of praise.

ST. ELEANOR'S WOMEN'S INSTITUTE - The January meeting of the St. Eleanor's Women's Institute was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. George Simmonds, the president, in the chair. The singing of the Scripture and the repeating of the Creed was followed by twelve members answering roll call. The sick committee reported the taking of fruit to three people and the school committee reported on the fruit and candy for Christmas and the school children. News was also reported: Sick Mrs. Fred Mills and Mrs. Harry Andrew; school, Mrs. H. S. Cannon and Mrs. Edling Bernard. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Claude White, Mrs. Fred Mills and Mrs. George Simmonds. It was decided to hold a card party in the hall on Wednesday evening, January 12, and the committee in charge will be Mrs. Lorne Beaton, Mrs. Claude White, Mrs. Fred Mills, Mrs. George Simmonds, Mrs. Edling Bernard, Mrs. Fred Mills and Mrs. George Simmonds. It was moved that a new broom, dust pan and scuttle be purchased for the hall. One new member was welcomed. The retiring president, Mrs. H. S. Cannon, was presented with gifts for their services. The hostess was assisted in serving the refreshments by Mrs. Claude White, Mrs. James Essery and Mrs. Will Perry. A vote of thanks was extended to the hostess and lunch committee.

MAPLE LEAF W. I. - The Maple Leaf Women's Institute of "Travellers' Rest" met at the home of Mrs. Fred Waite on Thursday evening, with the president, Mrs. Roy Walker, in the chair. It was planned to make a quilt, which would be completed at the home of Mrs. Percy Marchbank. $25.00 was voted to the Jubilee Endowment Fund and $10.00 to the Salvation Army. Red Cross work returned included three pairs pyjamas, two rompers, a quilt, sweaters and two pairs socks. More work was given out by the convener, Mrs. J. C. Marchbank. An interesting and humorous program, consisting of "What's Your Beef" and "Twenty Questions" was conducted by the president and Mrs. Clarence Marchbank. Mrs. James Marchbank invited the members to her home for the February meeting. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. James Champlain in serving refreshments.

APPRECIATES HEALTH SERVICES - Appreciation of the services rendered during the past year by Miss Eleanor Wheeler, Public Health Nurse for East Prince, was recently expressed by the Catholic Women's League of Wellington as follows: "Please accept our sincere thanks for the kind services rendered in our community during the past year and we do hope you will continue your good work when the weather permits next spring." (Signed) Mrs. Jerry Richard, C. W. League. Miss Wheeler has been conducting a most successful Well Baby Clinic since a month to which many mothers have taken their babies for helpful advice and to have their weight checked up for steady gain. Some of the mothers attending the conferences drove as far as ten miles to consult with her. A large immunizing clinic was also held in the schools during the spring and summer when 106 children were inoculated, 20 of them against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus, and 76 school children received a reinforcing inoculation against diphtheria.

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held in the Knights of Columbus Home on Wednesday, January 9th, in the absence of the President, the Vice-President, Mrs. W. J. Sullivan presided. There was an excellent attendance and the meeting opened with the League prayer followed by roll call. The correspondence included a letter from the Mother Superior of the Summerside Convent expressing gratitude to the members for their donation at Christmas time, and one from the T.B. League thanking the League for their contribution.

The Red Cross convener distributed building yarn to the members at this meeting and in connection with Red Cross work it was decided to meet one night a week at the K. of C. Home for sewing. A letter was read from Miss Wheeler, Public Health Nurse, requesting that the League be represented at the meeting of the Dental Clinic to be held January 10th and Mrs. D.F. McNeill and Mrs. Abel Arsenault were appointed to attend.

The Sick Committee reported making a number of visits and that cards had been sent to sick members.

The Convener for Social Service reported a request had been received for help and that clothing and food also that milk was being supplied as usual to under-nourished children.

In connection with Girl Guide work, the convener reported good progress was being made.

It was decided at this meeting to cooperate with the Knights of Columbus in the holding of a card party and a committee was appointed to work with a committee from the Knights of Columbus.

Rev. Father McLeod was present and addressed the members, after which a social hour was spent, the hostesses being Mrs. Arthur Clow, Mrs. Larry Gallant, Mrs. Earl Hickey, Mrs. Joseph Hickey, Mrs. Dolores Richard and Mrs. Clarence Steele.

"THIS TIME FOR KEEPS" MUSICAL JOY-RIDE WITH TOFFLIGHT ENTERTAINERS

Everybody gets into the act in M-G-M's blues-chasing new Technicolor musical, "This Time For Keeps," now showing at the Capitol Theatre, and when you consider that the act includes Esther Williams in some of her most bewitching water routines, the irreplaceable Jimmy Durante, Lauritz Melchior of the operatic arias, crooning Johnnie Johnston and the Latin rhythms of Xavier Cugat and his orchestra - you can surmise that the act is big. It's big, it's romantic, it's tuneful - but most of all, it's howling funny, with Durante at his uproarious best in the role of an aquatic star's self-appointed guardian ever on the alert to keep the "wolver" away from the girl he adores. Johnnie Johnston is one
