Decoste, Malcolm McCauley, L. Coyle, Charlottetown; P. Gauthier, Mount Ryan; John H. Cliffe, Union Road; Orin Bell, A. McKay, Clarence White, Geo. Forster, Sydney Harbour; A. E. B. Murphy, Tignish.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Hogan, who died at her home at Lower Queen street on January 27, took place from her late residence at 1141 St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the Catholic Cemetery and was well attended. The Requiem High Mass in the church was celebrated by Father Peter Duffy and the funeral service at the grave was conducted by Father Frank McQuaid.

AN ONLY CHILD DIES—Much sympathy is felt for Mr and Mrs Siochán Morrison, Savage Harbour, in their sore bereavement caused by the death of their only child, Donald, aged 4 years. The funeral to St. Andrew's Cemetery on Thursday morning was largely attended.

MCGUIRK—To Mr and Mrs Robert McGuirk, Dromon, on Tuesday, Jan. 19th, 1915, a daughter. Congratulations.—L.

MILITARY RUMORS—Rumors are current to the effect that certain officers stationed in this vicinity, says the North Sydney Herald, "in connection with the militia are to be laid off, or perhaps sent to the front with the Second Contingent." Those well versed in military affairs cannot see how any of the officers quartered hereabouts can be spared. Of course it is admitted that without a single exception the youth and vigor of the brave officers (as well as the men) fits them for the rigors of the trench, and without a single exception they are only too anxious to answer the call, should the above report be correct. It would be a shame to think of laying them off, especially after the visit of the Minister of Militia. At any rate, the citizens would greatly miss their presence. The above will be of local interest in Charlottetown as many of the Island boys and officers are stationed there.

NORTH SYDNEY VS. P. E. I.—There was a hockey match in the Strathcona rink Monday night, the contenders being a "scrub" local team, and a picked septette from the Fourth P. E. Island Heavy Battery guarding the big guns at Sydney Mines says a North Sydney exchange. The spud friends kept the affair well advertised, so confident were they of success, and a crowd assembled. Joe Darke, the big master of ceremonies of the crack regiment, had his heroes in the pink of "tention, and an extra menu of Rustico-grown sprouts including the scabby McIntyre's and famous Jenny Lins, was gotten ready. If the game would be a victory for the Islanders. The line up of both teams was as follows:—North Sydney, M. McLeod, C. Ingraham, W. McLean, G. Ingraham, L. Saunders, P. Hill, I. Galbraith, P. E. I., over P. Fullerton, G. G. plm, P. E. I., over P. Fullerton, G. G. plm, L. Davidson, B. Murley, S. Gordon, N. McGuigan, H. Stanley. Billy Wilkie refereed the game, while James Cullen acted as judge of play. And oh, what playing it was! Of course it was a good game—it wouldn't be otherwise. Tom Fullerton will be a Kitchener or a Wellington if he will make as good a soldier—laying down—as he is a goal keeper. But it was hardly fair to pull three of the spud flends to help sentry over the net for Tom. However, the locals played steady and at the conclusion the score was 5-3. A return match will be played in Strathcona Rink.

TEA—The household table will be a striking feature at St. Paul's W. A. Tea next Thursday. Aprons and delicious home-made candy will also be on sale. 8436.

ISLAND LADY DEAD—The many friends of Mr and Mrs Henry Morrow, formerly of Souris, will regret to learn of Mrs Morrow's death, which sad event took place in Boston on Jan. 24th, after a prolonged illness borne with Christian patience. The deceased was the daughter of the late James Pigott, Savage Harbour, and a sister of Mrs S. Coffin and Mr Fred Pigott of that place. The remains were sent to the Island and interred at Souris.—L.

A NEW DEPARTMENT—As will be seen by their advertisement in this issue Messrs. F. J. Holman & Co., Ltd., have added a new department to their still growing business. In the new department they will make a specialty of Pork and Poultry, and will keep on hand a constant supply of pork—fresh, salt and smoked,—poultry of all kinds, including game according to season. The Messrs. Holman & Co. has always specialized in poultry, insisting upon the best quality always, and this year they have handled more of this product and of better quality than in any year in their history. In fact they have done much to raise the quality of poultry and to extend the markets abroad in this class of goods. Their new department is on the Great George street side of their store and will be formally opened for business to-day. 8435.

THE PRINCE EDWARD—An excellent programme of entertainment was presented at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday and witnessed by a large audience. The play presented was "The Twins' Double" in three parts. Its production substantiated all claims for its greatness. It being just as advertised, "a masterpiece of concentrated action." It was a detective story, the detective being Phil Kelly, Francis Ford, who with his playing partner, Grace Cunard, in a triple role, acted in the excellent manner that has made them probably the most popular moving picture performers with Charlottetown theatre-goers. The play was most entertaining and evinced intense interest throughout its entire production. "Reagan's Daughter" was a drama of the mountains in two parts. A detective captures an outlaw who is his sweetheart's father. The outlaw saves the detective's life while the former is being taken to jail, at the expense of his own. The outlaw's dying words are to the effect that the detective shall not tell his daughter of his crime. It was a real good play well acted. Two comedy plays were much enjoyed. Mr. Huskins sang "The Last Rose of Summer" beautifully.

RACES POSTPONED—Owing to the condition of the ice the races which were to be held to-day have been postponed. Four new classes have been made, namely, 2.23 class trot and pace, 2.30 class trot and pace, "hopples barred" free for all, and green race. These classes will be pulled off on Tuesday, entries for which close Monday at 8 p.m. at Mr Henderson's forge.

SUMMERSIDE SPECIAL SKATE—A special train will leave Charlottetown on Wednesday, February 3rd, at 4.30 p.m. for Summerside. The train will convey excursionists for the special skate in the Crystal Rink on that night. Before the skate a hockey match will take place between the "Bankers" of Charlottetown and the "Millionaires" of Summerside. 8438.

SUCCESSFUL BIRTHDAY SOCIAL—A very successful and enjoyable Birthday Social was given by the ladies of the Central Christian Church in the Knights of Pythias Hall last evening, when Rev. W. J. Whitehead presided. A good programme was rendered and refreshments served. There was a large attendance, and a very enjoyable social evening spent. A good sum of money was realized. The ladies desire to thank all who in any way helped to make the social such a success.

THE HAMILTON ESTATE—The inventory of the estate of the late Elizabeth Hamilton, Georgetown, has been filed in probate. The deceased left no will, as far as it is known, and application has been made for administration by two parties, heirs of the deceased. The estate is valued at $10,957, including the following: Real estate and personal property at Georgetown, $1,500; cash in the Dominion Savings Bank, $2,000; cash in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, $825; 10 shares in the Bank of Nova Scotia at $225, $2,250; 7 shares in Bank of Commerce, at $196, $1,372; cash in Post Office Savings Bank, $1,000; money invested in mortgages, $1,200; live stock, garden implements, farm crops, etc., $100; furniture and effects, $500; cash on hand $190; miscellaneous, $20; total, $10,957.
