A SMART "BROTHER"

A small boy leading a donkey, passed by an Army camp. A couple of soldiers wanted to have some fun with the lad. "What are you holding on to your brother?" they asked. "For, sonny?" said the boy. "So he won't join the Army," the youngster replied.

BACK IN HISTORY

A town-dweller walking in the country had a conversation with a farm labourer, who after a few minutes, volunteered the information that he was sixty-four. "You are remarkably fit for a man of sixty-four," said the town dweller. "How old was your father when he died?" "Father's not dead, replied the labourer. "There he is in the garden reading the paper to grandfather."

YOUTH CYCLES ON LONG TRIP

WINNIPEG, July 21—(CP)—The cheapest way to travel is by bicycle according to 26-year-old Rod Evans who arrived here after a 1600-mile pedal from Fort St. John, B. C. One of the new Peace River settlements. Rod is on his way to Montreal, via Minneapolis, Chicago and Detroit, where he intends to catch a train for England to visit his parents. The young cyclist, loaded with more than 100 pounds of food, cooking utensils and a little furniture for emergencies. He has not patronized a hotel or tourist camp since a one-mile stretch of road in the Athabasca country stalled him four and one-half hours. Carrying his bicycle and equipment on his back, he waded almost his deep in muskeg before an Indian with a team picked him up. "I almost broke my back," he said. Before coming to Canada six months ago, the cross-country wheeler spent 10 years on an Australian cattle ranch.
