—HEAVY WINDS PREVAILED Owing to the high winds from the North West, there was no fishing on the North Shore, Saturday.

—CONTRABAND.—The revenue officers four of them in an automobile, swooped down upon two victims at Clear Springs on the North Side, on Saturday evening, and captured in the first place two gallons of th eggnogs and in the second place a half mile further on a complete still in operation. They took the loot to Souris.

—CHURCH OPENING.—St. James Presbyterian Church Souris at for undergoing repairs will be re-opened for worship on Sunday, June 8th. Rev. J. M. McLeod, B. A., Moderator of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces will conduct the rededication service at 11 a. m. There will be a special service for young people at 3 p. m. Rev. E. E. Styles, Pres. of the Methodist Conference of N. B. and P. E. I. will be the principal speaker at the evening service at 7 p. m. Special music at all these services. A hearty welcome to all. There will be no service in the Presbyterian Church at Bay Fortune on the 8th.

—REDEDICATION SERVICES.—The Presbyterian church, Souris, has been closed for the last two months, undergoing extensive alterations and repairs. The work under the capable management of Mr. Charles W. Ramsay, Summerside, has left the interior much beautified, and more comfortable with a chancel, choir room and vestry. No plans are being spared to make the re-opening services in this church on June 8th as attractive and helpful as possible. Rev. J. M. McLeod, B.A., moderator of Synod of the Maritime Provinces, will conduct the rededication services at 11 a. m. morning service, while Rev. E. E. Styles, Pres. of the Conference of New Brunswick and P. E. I., will be the preacher of the evening. Special music at both these services. Among the outside vocal talent will be Miss Muriel McMurdo, Summerside, and Leigh Dingle, and others from Charlottetown. Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. A hearty welcome to all. I spent a very pleasant time.—Mr. H.

—ST. PETERS HARBOR NOT.—Let 40 church formally opened again on Sunday May 18th after being closed for extensive renovations and repairs. The afternoon service was conducted by the new pastor Rev. H. Penwarden and the rededication service in the evening by Rev. J. M. McLeod of St. Peters Bay. Much credit is due the committee in charge, and the workmen for their part in the renovation.—So far the lobster fishing has been very backward, no large catches being reported and but unusually scarce. On the 24th the ice packed solid along the north shore, causing considerable damage to the fishing gear.—The farmers have been busy taking advantage of the fine days and it looks as if seedling will be pretty well completed during this week.—Our new road master Mr. Albert McEwen has made a good start in scoping the roads, we expected to hear more about him later.—On May 22nd a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Hilda Drake, the occasion being in honor of the sixteenth birthday of her daughter Georgia. Dancing was indulged in until about 1 a. m. when a sumptuous repast was served in the hostess' best style, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Hawbolt, who again the dancing and hours was resumed until the wee sma' hours, and as departed for their homes feeling that they had indeed spent a very pleasant time.—Mr. H.

—ICE REPORTED HEAVY.—A. W. Davidson has just returned from a trip to Greenwick and reports the roads greatly improved.

Middle Age? Reading Glasses

All, everybody, at middle age require reading glasses. A simple test in the way the print blurs, jumps round and floating specks appear before your eyes after reading some time.

The eye lens hardens as time goes on and glasses are the only means of keeping the correct focus in safe comfort.

Have your Eyes examined.
