FOX ESCAPED.—The Canada Fox Exchange lost a very nice silver black fox yesterday morning. The fox had been sold and was brought into the city to be delivered, when in some way it effected its escape from the box in which it was confined, and is now at large. The Exchange has a fox-hound on leash ready to answer any call should the fox be observed by anybody and the exchange be communicated with. A liberal reward will be given for its capture or for information that will lead to its capture. 2305.

THE PEOPLE'S.—Another excellent programme of moving pictures was shown at the People's Theatre last night. Drama and comedy were enjoyably intermingled. The feature was a strong two-part drama, "When Strong Wills Clash", founded upon a young man's marriage and his proud mother's disapprobation. "What Shall It Profit A Man?" was another interesting film. Good laughs were provided by "Calamity Ann Dream", and "Father's Chicken Dinner." The splendidly produced pictures were much appreciated by large houses. Mr. Priestman Cameron have two acceptable comic skits and the orchestra rendered enjoyable music.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pain. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."
—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 7305 Madison Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."
—Mrs. ADA WILF, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
