Macdonald, merchant, Vernon, and was at one time on the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada at Ch'town, later transferred to Moncton, N. B. as accountant and subsequently appointed Manager at Regina, Sask., in which position he remained until he entered the Life Assurance business with National Life at Montreal. JOSEPH-McDONALD WEDDING
 At St. Dunstan's Cathedral at 5.30 on Wednesday morning, the 15th, Right Reverend Monsignor Maurice McDonald, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass, joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, Margaret Maude, daughter of Mrs. Simon Joseph to Louis J. McDonald, formerly of Pictou, N. S. The bride who was attractively gowned in lavender georgette, with picture hat and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of American roses, was assisted by her sister, Miss Annie Joseph, who was becomingly gowned in green flat crepe, with picture hat and carried a bouquet of carnations. After a sumptuous breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, the happy couple left by the 6.45 train on a honeymoon trip to Halifax, Montreal and Quebec. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome set of pearls; to the bridesmaid a ring with amethyst and pearl setting and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. Numerous presents of cut glass, china, silver, linen and cheques testified to the popularity of the young couple. The Guardian joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald in extending hearty congratulations.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.
 Among the many tourists visiting Prince Edward Island during the past week are Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke and little son, "Billy" of Montreal. Mr. Clarke is Secretary of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and came to Charlottetown last Thursday with the President, Mr. Wm. M. Birks also of Montreal, in order to be present at the annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade which was held at the Experimental Station Thursday afternoon. Owing to urgent business Mr. Birks left the following morning, but Mr. Clarke and family remained for a few days to enjoy the wonderful sea bathing and to obtain a better idea of Island conditions. Mrs. Clarke kindly consented to sing the solo "O Lord Correct Me" by G. F. Handel in Trinity United Church at the Sunday morning service. Her rich, full soprano voice which has been trained by some of the best masters was thoroughly enjoyed by all whose privilege it was to be present. Charlottetown is indeed honored by such guests as Mr. and Mrs. Clarke and we hope they will return another summer for a longer period.

was a matter which the government of the Island was seriously dealing with and in all probability would lock into what prospects Canada offered.
 It had already been realized by many interested in the migration of these people that the Maritime Provinces of Canada should offer as excellent opportunities as any part of Canada. While the ship was docked at the Quay Wall Mr. Brown was taken through the immigration buildings, and commented favorably on the manner in which the British harvesters were so quickly and comfortably handled from ship to train, for despatch to the west.
 a patient for three weeks. Although his death was not unexpected, yet it was a great shock to relatives and friends, for they knew they were mourning the loss of one whose place would not be easily filled, one who was always ready to help when assistance was needed, whose word was his bond and who in every walk of life exemplified his Master's teachings when he said "Whatever ye would that others should do to you do ye even so to them," so when he heard the "Well done good and faithful servant," it was a happy entrance into that fuller life that remaineth for the people of God.
 He was a son of the late John B. Graham and his wife, Phoebe Hickson and lived all his life on the farm where he was born sixty-seven years ago. In early life he married Mary MacDonald of Glen William, who predeceased him twenty-eight years ago. Carrie Johnston, Peter's Road. They all mourn the loss of a kind and loving father and brother. The funeral was held at the home on Friday, July 13th and was very largely attended.
