—MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—A shower was given on Monday night at the home of Mrs. H. B. Bernard of St. Eleanors in honor of Miss Sadie Lyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Lyle of St. Eleanors, who is shortly to be married. There were about one hundred guests present. The gifts, which were concealed in two daintily trimmed baskets were opened by Mrs. Percy Crosby and Miss Edith Craigwell. The verses attached to each gift were read by Mrs. Roy Tanton. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many lovely pieces of silver and cut glass and hand made linens, besides other beautiful gifts. A silver sandwich tray was the gift of the St. Eleanors club of which the bride-to-be is a member. A very pleasant social evening was spent and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Before leaving all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow."—S.

—DEATH OF PROMINENT RESIDENT OF ST. ELEANORS—There passed away in St. Eleanors on Monday night Mr. Thomas Charles Compton, a well known resident of North St. Eleanors at the age of 78 years after a long illness. Mr. Compton was born in St. Eleanors and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Compton and lived all his life in North St. Eleanors and farmed very successfully on a farm near the old homestead. He was a man of many sterling qualities and in his younger days took an active part in all matters pertaining to the betterment of the community in which he lived. He had many staunch friends who are deeply grieved at his death. There are left to mourn besides his sorrowing widow, three sons and two daughters namely: Mrs. James Montgomery of Malpeque; Mrs. Lloyd Small of St. Eleanors; Elmer in Coston, Alta., Lowell of Summerside and Reginald at home; also one sister, Mrs. Cunard in the United States and two brothers, Alfred in St. Eleanors and Ernest in North St. Eleanors, to all of whom the Guardian extends its sincere sympathy. IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ZACK C. DUNHAM

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. Zack C. Dunham (formerly Margaret Campbell, of Preetown, P. E. I.) were shocked when they received a telegram stating that she had died on Friday, April 25th, at her home in New Bedford, Mass., after only a few days illness of pneumonia, at the early age of 43 years. The late Mrs. Dunham was the daughter of Mr. H. J. Campbell and the late Mrs. Campbell, of Preetown, P. E. I. After taking a course in Charlottetown Business College she went to Moosejaw, Sask., where she held a responsible position, afterwards going to New Bedford, Mass., where she married Mr. Dunham. During her life in New Bedford, Mass., she made several visits to her old home in Preetown, P. E. I., the last one being in 1927. All who knew Mrs. Dunham will remember the unchanging gentleness of her disposition. Her genuine goodness of heart shined forth in every deed and word. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. Widefelt sympathy is extended to the sorely bereaved family with earnest prayer that they may be consoled by the Great Comforter. Let not your hearts be troubled ye believe in God believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many mansions if it were not so I would have told you: I go and prepare a place for you. And if I will come again and receive you unto myself that where I am there ye may be also. Mrs. Dunham leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, two children Russel and Mildred, an aged father, H. J. Campbell, Preetown, her mother having predeceased her by 16 years. Three brothers Colin, John and Albert

Campbell, all of Preetown, and the following sisters also mourn: Mrs. William Macomber of New Bedford, Mass., Mrs. Edward Williams, of Mattapan, Mass., Jennie, of New Bedford, Mass., Mrs. Ray Lidstone, of Preetown; Mrs. Jardine Stavert, Preetown. The funeral was held from her home 71 Trinity St., Rev. Mr. McLeland, of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. There were many beautiful floral tributes bearing silent tokens of sympathy. The remains were laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery, New Bedford, Mass. there to await the dawn of the glorious resurrection.
