HANOVER, Germany, Dec. 4—The great wireles station, 800 feet high, at Newstadt-Am-Ruibemerge, near here, was greatly damaged by a storm today. The trial to reestablish communication between Germany and America has therefore to be suspended until the station is reconstructed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Thirteen cities scattered through the country following the example of New York will have community Christmas trees this year, according to an announcement to-night by a group of idealists who provided for the first tree in Madison Square a year ago.

The cities interested are Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Pittthurg Baltimore, Rochester, Cincinnati Newark, Minneapolis, Washington Hartford, Utica and Schenectady.

There will be bands and Christmas music in the square this year on Christmas night and should the weather be favorable, a great celebration will take place.

BELFAST, Dec. 4—Unionists here say that any attempt to deprive Ulster Volunteers of their weapons will surely mean an uprising of the Northern Irish Province. At Ulster, the Unionist headquarters, it is said that the importation of arms into Ireland can be stopped by the revival of the Irish Crimes Act which had been in abeyance for several years owing to the subsidence of the Home Rule agitation. This Act of Parliament forbids the carrying of arms and gives the authorities powers of search and confiscation.

PLYMOUTH, Dec. 4—Both wind and sea aided the police in evading the body of suffragettes who purposed preventing the re-arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst under the provisions of the Cat and Mouse Act. A heavy sea was running in the harbor and, while it did not affect the police boat, the little motor boat in which the suffragettes attempted to head off the police tossed about like a cork. The occupants, who included the general, Mrs. Flora Drummond, and other leaders, were drenched to the skin by the time they reached the liner which was bearing the chief back from America, which, under police orders, waited outside the breakwater. The suffragettes did not arrive at the steamer's side until the police were landing and Mrs. Pankhurst was going down the gangway. Then they shouted to her: "Don't you land, the cats are after you!"

Mrs. Pankhurst protested against arrest and asked to see the warrant but it was explained to her that such a course was unnecessary.

Six policemen and a wardress boarded the steamer to prevent any interference with the arresting party. In the meantime the ordinary tender in which were many suffragettes armed with clubs, was kept standing off and the armed bodyguard was rendered helpless. Bodies of suffragettes were on guard outside the prisons in Southwest England where it was thought Mrs. Pankhurst might be brought but their efforts were unavailing.

JUAREZ, Dec. 2—Reports received from Villa Asumada, state that hundreds of men, women and children are fleeing across the desert from Chicuahua to Ojinaga. Long wagon trains followed by hordes on foot are seen. Among the refugees are a number of wealthy families whose lives were threatened by rebels.

Annoying Dandruff

Will make Canada a Bald headed Nation if not Checked.

M. Pasteur the great French Physician of Paris, once said: "I believe we shall one day rid the world of all diseases caused by germs."

Dandruff is caused by germs, a fact accepted by all physicians.

Dandruff is the root of all hair evils. If it were not for the little destructive germs working with a persistency worthy of a better cause, there would be no baldness.

Parisian Sage will kill the dandruff germs and remove dandruff in two weeks or money back.

It will stop itching scalp, falling hair and make the hair grow thick and abundant.

It puts life and lustre into the hair and prevents it from turning grey.

It is the hair dressing par excellence, daintily perfumed and free from grease and stickiness. It is the favorite with women of taste and culture who know the social value of fascinating hair.

Comes in large 50-cent bottle at Geo. E. Hughes and leading druggists and toilet goods counters everywhere. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" is on every package.
