

S. A. McDonald. THE CASH STORE

Our system of selling for cash seems to commend itself to the general public. Since our announcement a day or two ago that in future we would conduct our business on a cash basis we have been commended on all sides for the stand we have taken. We made this change believing it to be in the best interest of the general public. By selling for cash it places us in a position to sell at a closer margin of profit, as every one knows that a store selling on credit has to charge a higher price than a cash store. This is a statement that challenges contradiction. We are going to demonstrate it right here in Charlottetown that by selling dry goods, clothing and the various lines we handle we can sell the consumer at a lower price than similar goods sold in this City. Our aim is to make the great cash store the most popular store on P. E. I. We ask your cooperation in assisting us to place seasonable goods on the market at the closest possible margin.

HOUSE WALLS ADORNED WITH HUMAN SKULLS

Terrible Aspect of Den of Sorceress Raided by the Police. The Terrible Discovery Made in a Modest Home in City of Rome.

ROME, July 5.—In a modest house hidden in a maze of alleys in a suburb of the city of Perugia strange ceremonies, it is reported, take place and mysterious rites are celebrated.

The house was frequented by women of the suburb, and now and again by some daimon who had been crossed in love, or some wife who was jealous of her husband. The police heard vague rumors of the proceedings, but had not until now succeeded in probing the mystery.

A FLAG INCIDENT IN WINNIPEG

Americans Celebrated the Fourth but Refused to Honor Dominion Day.

WINNIPEG, July 6.—On the Fourth of July the Royal Alexandra Hotel at Winnipeg was profusely decorated with United States flags while it was remarked that no decorations were shown on Dominion Day. When spoken to the manager said: "I am an American and am out for American dollars." The American Casket Company, an industrial concern, at Winnipeg, also refused to close for July 1, but gave their employees a holiday on the Fourth. These incidents have created much talk.

Yesterday a chauffeur, who was accompanied by a groom carrying under his arm a bundle of papers, stopped his automobile opposite the mysterious house the doors of which were closed. The car had, apparently, broken down. The chauffeur and the groom, who were actually police agents in disguise, left their machine and knocked at the door to ask for a pair of pifers. The door was opened by a woman, who, suspecting nothing, was going to search of the desired implement, when the two men shut the door in her face. Strange and terrible was the aspect of the interior. The walls were hung with mysterious symbols, human skulls and crossed bones, bottles, large and small; swords of strange shapes, heads of dogs, cats and other animals, and, in fact, all the traditional implements of medieval witchcraft. A thorough search was made and several books were found containing a quantity of various invocations to the evil one. The sorceress, a woman 50 years of age, who possessed vast property, purchased with the money she had wheeled from her credulous clients, was arrested and carried away in the motor car. Her trial will give rise to some interesting revelations with regard to the dark doings of witchcraft in Perugia.

THE U. S. FLEET FOR FAR EAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6.—Fresh from drydocks, with bunkers full of coal and magazines filled with ammunition, newly painted and looking as spruce as ever, the sixteen battleships of the United States Atlantic fleet are riding at anchor today in the harbor ready to sail next Tuesday for Honolulu on the second half of the long cruise around the world. At two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, two months and a day after it entered the portals of the Golden Gate, at the end of a 13,000 mile voyage, the flower of the United States navy, headed by the flag-ship Connecticut, will steam out of the harbor of San Francisco, under the command of Rear Admiral Sperry, the third commander in chief since the fleet sailed from Hampton Roads.

The fleet will reach Honolulu on July 16, to remain a week and then proceed to the Antipodes.
