CHARLOTTETOWN IS HONORED

By the Presence of Distinguished Persons

Dr. Borden and Hon. Raymond Prefontaine Came to the City Last Night—Warm Reception.

Charlottetown is honored to-day by having in its midst two distinguished members of the Canadian Parliament and two leading politicians representative of the great political parties of the Dominion.

Dr. Borden, Leader of the Opposition, accompanied by A. C. Bell of Pictou, reached the city last night by the Princess at half past eight. They were met at Pictou by Senator Ferguson; A. A. McLean, K. C.; Dr. R. McNeill, President of the Liberal-Conservative Association; J. J. Johnston, Secretary; and W. L. Cotton, Editor of the Examiner.

When the boat reached the wharf there was a large crowd present to meet the distinguished gentlemen. After introductions they disembarked and were greeted by three rousing cheers after which Dr. Borden drove to the residence of A. A. McLean, K. C., where he will be a guest during his stay in the city.

Dr. Borden attended the Scotch Soiree and replied to the toast of Our Guests as referred to in another column. He retired about midnight.

Today the Liberal Conservative leaders with other prominent politicans go to Georgetown where a political meeting will be held at two o'clock. They will return to the city in the evening.

After waiting in vain till after one o'clock for Hon. Mr Prefontaine to arrive from Pictou by the Minto those who were to receive him at the wharf returned to their homes. It is probable the Minister will reach the city early this morning.

FIFTY CENTS A MONTH

A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month—a few drops in its bottle each time it is fed. That's a small outlay for so large a return of health and comfort.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action. It seems to contain just the elements of nourishment a baby needs most.

Ordinary food frequently lacks this nourishment; Scott's Emulsion always supplies it.

THE OLD-TIME SCOTCH SOIREE

In Celebration of St. Andrew and Scotland

A Splendid Festival Graced by R. L. Borden and Others—Speeches, Songs and Good Cheer.

The Caledonian Soiree in honor of St. Andrew filled the large hall to the doors and was in every way successful. "Tea and Haggis" turned out to be a quite sumptuous repast which was partaken of with hearty zest. President Small who presided had on his right Chief McIsaac, Hon. D. A. McKinnon, M.P. and Alexander Martin ex-M. P., and on his left Dr. Borden M. P., Rev. T. F. Fullerton and A. C. Bell, M. P. of Pictou. When the haggis was brought in to the music of the pipes President Small addressed the "great chieftain o' the puddin' race with the accustomed formula delivered with great effect. At the close of the feast, and after the King had been very heartily honored the President delivered a brief but excellent address on the aims and objects of the Caledonian Club at the conclusion of which he proposed the toast of the evening, The Day and all who honor it. Rev. T. F. Fullerton responded very happily. A mandolin solo and a well rendered reading by Miss Flo McKenzie followed after which Chief McIsaac in well chosen words proposed Our Guests, coupled with the names of Dr. Borden, M. P., A. C. Bell, M. P. Pictou, J. H. Bell, ex-M. P. and Dr. F. P. Taylor. Each of these gentlemen responded pleasantly but with brevity.

The Leader of the Opposition was very cordially received. He had been when younger fond of tripping the "light fantastic toe" and had not got over it yet, so would not keep the young folk waiting. He could not claim to be more than part Scotch, with an admixture of English and Irish blood, something of a meogrel in fact, but he trusted, a good Canadian. He eulogized the different strains of blood which mingled in Canada—English, Scotch, Irish and French, and commended the hearty patriotism and Canadianism of the latter. Perhaps we do not make enough of our great country, he said. We might learn something from our neighbors in that regard. They all believed their country the greatest on earth. As a Harvard College student put it the Republic was bounded on the north by the north pole, on the south by the southern cross, on the east by the precession of the equinoxis, and on the west by the day of judgment. We should be proud of our country and of the Great Empire to which we belong.

Mr. Bell of Pictou, a man of generous size, was proud of his Scottish blood and of his Canadian citizenship. Our scenery was grander in both highlands and lowlands than that of Scotland. Some day we would have poets and literary men to make it famous. The Canadian man was the equal of any, and the Canadian girl has no equal,

J. H. Bell in fitting words praised Scotland and Canada. He loved them both, but with a preference for Canada.

Dr. Taylor briefly expressed his pleasure at being present and hearing Dr. Borden who though not of his party was "a good man, some day to be Premier of Canada, a sentiment which was very heartily cheered.

Stipendiary Magistrate McDonald replied very happily to the toast of The Ladies. This completed the list of toasts. It was nearly midnight when dancing was begun and it was continued by the young people with great zest for some hours.

AN OFFICIAL VISITATION MADE

To Victoria Lodge A. F. and A. M. Last Night

By Benjiman Rogers Grand Master —A Most Enjoyable Time in Speeches, Feasting and Song.

Victoria Lodge was en fete last night. A crowded Lodge room betokened the popularity of the new chief executive officer and the desire of the craft to see the third degree exemplified before Grand Master Rogers and his associate Grand Officers. These present were Deputy Grand Master A. John McLean, Junior Grand Warden W. J. Brown, Grand Treasurer Adam Murray, Grand Lecturer R. M. Johnson, Senior Grand Deacon Walter P. Doull, Grand Pursuivant F. Beers and Grand Organist W. H. Watts.

The beautiful ritual of the third degree was then proceeded with. Organist Watts and a male quartet added materially to the pleasure and profit of the occasion. The Grand Master heartily commended the excellent work of the various officials who conferred the degree and complimented in no measured terms the zeal and enterprise of Victoria Lodge. The large number present evinced the true Masonic spirit.

A collation followed the work. Speeches were in order interspersed with songs. The evening was a memorable one and a fitting prelude to their patron Saint's (St. John's) Day, December 27.
