A. P. E. I. Prize Winning Recipe

Miss Edna Kierstead of York, P. E. I., deserves credit for this Baked Mackerel recipe: Wash mackerel, drain, and cut to serving size. Top with butter and cover with milk. Bake 45 to 60 minutes. Remove and salt both sides of each piece. Thicken the hot milk with tablespoon of flour blended with water. Put fish back and let simmer but not boil for 10 minutes. Never add salt until fish is cooked or milk will curdle.

NATIONAL MACKEREL

These were iced as soon as caught and frozen as soon as landed so are much like fresh caught fish. They bridge over the fish famine caused by trouble our trawlers have had with stormy seas and unprecedented weather. At your dealer's.

Why Buy a Car

If factory treatment will restore the old car to its former buoyancy, power, speed and economy of operation, you can save the outlay called for by a new car.

Because we make gasoline engines, and because our plant has everything for repairing and restoring all types of them, we can put your car in as good running order as the day it left the factory.

For instance, we have the Heald Cylinder Re-grinding equipment and re-grind cylinders and fit new pistons and rings as low as $23.00. Write.

MOTHER OF TWIN BOYS

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Her of Inflammation and Great Weakness

West St. John, N. B.—"I was in a general run-down condition following the birth of my twin boys. I had a great deal of inflammation, with pains and weakness. Finally my doctor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. He said that your medicine would be the only thing to build me up. I am sure he is right, for I am feeling much better and am gaining in weight, having gone down to ninety-three pounds. I was in bed for over a month, but am up again now. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to my friends and give you permission to use my letter."

Mrs. ELIZABETH A. RITCHIE, 22 Rodney St., West St. John, N. B.

There are many women who find their household duties almost unbearable owing to some weakness or derangement. The trouble may be slight, yet cause such annoying symptoms as dragging pains, weakness and a run-down feeling.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for such conditions. It has in many cases relieved those symptoms by removing the cause of them.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN HUGH ROSS

On Saturday January 27th 1923, John Hugh Ross, Pinette, ended this life after much suffering and entered into the "rest that remaineth for the people of God." The deceased was of a kind and genial disposition and always obliging and kind to everybody. He was a great sufferer for two years or more, and although he knew there was no cure for him, he was quite reconciled and patiently waiting for the end. He was attended through his illness by his kind pastor Rev. J. W. MacKenzie who visited him frequently, and by the Rev. Ewen MacDougal who called to see him often. He was nursed through his illness by his loving and devoted wife and niece. He leaves to mourn his death his four brothers, Magnus, Donald, Hector, and Alexander all of Flat River, and two sisters, Sarah C. (Mrs. J. A. Ross) and Mrs. William Finlayson of California and one adopted son Peter A. Smith Malden, Miss.

The funeral was largely attended which showed the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

The services were conducted at the church and grave by his pastor.

The pall bearers were, Charles Ross, J. R. Ross, Finlay McDonald, W. A. Ross, J. A. MacDonald and D. Ross.

MR. JOHN MCKAY, AND MRS. J. LIVINGSTONE

Mr. John McKay was born at Hartsville Queens Co. in 1874, when about 20 years old he, along with his father removed to Mount Hope and did pioneer work in that place. He was a successful farmer and served his generation well and faithfully. He took an intelligent interest in the affairs of the community and always kept in touch with the church of Christ of which he was a faithful member. Of late years he resided with his son Dan. Some time ago rheumatism gripped him and partly confined him to the house. Finally complications set in and he quietly passed away on the 23rd Dec and was laid to rest in the family burying place, Dundas on the 1st January. He married Mary McLeod of Surry, Belfast who predeceased him 12 years ago. He had four children two of whom are still alive Flora (Mrs. Gus Clay) Dundas and Dan on the home stead. These along with one sister Mrs. McPhee, Mount Hope and one brother Neil (Merchant) of Belle River, mourn his departure. There also passed away to quiet even a heavenly one Mrs. John Livingstone (nee Gillis) mother-in-law of the above mentioned Mr. Den McKay. She was not confined to her room and passed away at about 11 o'clock on the night of Jan. 30th and was buried in Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Dundas on the 1st inst. A quiet kindly god soul was she; truly "He giveth his beloved sleep."

MRS. ELIZABETH SENCABAUGH

At the home of her son-in-law Angus J. Martin, Glen William, on January 16th, there passed to her eternal reward, Elizabeth Sencabaugh, at the advanced age of 82 years.

The deceased was born at Vernon River and was the daughter of John Masters and his wife Marjorie Smith, pioneer settlers of that place in the early part of the last century.

In her early womanhood she was united in marriage to Donald A. Shaw of Ugg. She resided with her husband for a short time at Cardigan Bridge, later they removed to Stanley Bridge where Mr. Shaw conducted a successful mercantile business until his early death, when his widow, with her only child, again returned to her old home at Vernon, where she remained until her second marriage to the late William Henry Sencabaugh of Murray Harbor South.

A few of the friends of her youth still remain to bear tribute to the memory of one who was steadfast and loyal in friendship. Many will remember her for her hospitality, for in her thrifty and well kept home the stranger was always welcome. All will remember her, for deceased her a few months ago her kindness and unselfishness, especially during the last years of Martin remains to cherish her earthly pilgrimage when that memory of a kind and affectionate beautiful attributes of her character were so wonderfully shown. Though called upon to endure great suffering, she was seldom heard to complain. Cheerfully, patiently she waited for the voice of the Master to call her to the home on high.

Funeral services were conducted at Vernon River by Rev. D. McDonald, Murray River. Near many nansions be- mains were borne to Caledonia cemetery there to rest in the family burial plot beside those of the well beloved step child who pre-
