NEW GLASGOW AND VICINITY

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gass and family, Albertson, spent the week end at New Glasgow, the guests of Mrs. Gass's mother, Mrs. E. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dixon and young son, Mooton, who have been spending a week in New Glasgow, have returned to their home.

Among those who attended the Teachers' Convention at Hunter River were the Misses Annie and Margaret Lowther, Cavendish, Mrs. McLeod, from New Glasgow, and Margaret Wright, South Rustico.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, of Moose Jaw, Sask., who have been visiting the latter's old home in Long River, have returned to the Canadian West. Mr. Campbell, who has not been on the Island for several years visited all the places of interest, renewing old acquaintances.

The August meeting of the New Glasgow Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Ruth Dickieson, on Monday the 3rd. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Carol, followed by all repeating the Creed. Roll call was answered with a verse from a Canadian poem.

The state law sets maximum length of single motor vehicles at 33 feet and of combinations coupled together at 70 feet.

Particular attention will be paid the bureau said, to "long-swinging motor trucks used to transport new automobiles from manufacturers to dealers."

State Highway Patrolmen will be stationed at all important bridges and highways leading into the state and suspected motor vehicles will be halted and measured.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 27.—More than 100,000 channel catfish will be produced in Oklahoma this season, according to Ben E. Mobley, state fish warden.

EAGLE STEALS FISH BAIT

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 27.—A huge eagle frequently seen flying between the Ohio river and the hills on the Ohio shore, near here, recently swooped into a skiff in which a negro woman was fishing, took her supply of bait and flew away.

IS OPTIMISTIC

Mr. Found is particularly optimistic concerning the oyster industry. He has spent several days in the Malpeque Bay area, has also looked into conditions in the rivers tributary to the Hillsboro Bay.

CRASHED

the stronger helping the weaker, until they finally were sighted by the Nova Julia.

SIX of the passengers were taken to Addison Gilbert Hospital here, but none of them were seriously hurt. They were, S. Louis M. Draper, 46, Wellington Street, Waltham; Mabel F. Ryan, Waltham; Mrs. Mildred Finneson, 801 West 181 Street, New York City; Bernard M. Finneson, Irving Bloom, Hotel Mayflower, New York City; Gilbert E. Hodges, 201 West Madison St., Baltimore.

Women Acted Bravely

Dr. H. E. Whittaker of the hospital said that the injured would be kept overnight, but that their injuries were of minor character. He was loud in his praise for three women who were at the hospital. In the accident, he said they kept themselves every bit as well as the male passengers. The rescued told hospital authorities that the missing passenger was an old man and that he went down with the plane. The Coast Guard Patrol Boats 154 and 2394 began a patrol of the waters in the vicinity of the crash in a search for the missing passenger.

Few Injuries

The plane was a twin motored twelve passenger Amphibian and was operated by the Pan American Airway, Inc., on a recently opened air route between Boston-Maine points and the Maritime Provinces. W. L. Eismore of Boston was the pilot; John Navarro of Boston, the steward and Alfred W. Eston, North Abington, the radio operator. They also were taken to the hospital suffering from immersion. Of the six passengers at the institution, Hodge suffered a cut on the head; Finneson, a cut over the eye and the other four from immersion.

NEW CREDIT

carried on with London by trans Atlantic telephone during the past few days.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 27.—A private banking credit believed to be the largest in financial history, is being marshalled in New York and Paris, Wall Street learned today as an invincible bulwark for the British pound sterling. Both New York and Paris bankers, it was said in highest Wall Street banking circles, propose to make the credit so large that there can be no further question as to the stability of the pound, which is so widely used as the common medium of international exchange.

While bankers were not prepared as yet to reveal the exact size of the loan, it is believed that it will be between $300,000,000 and $500,000,000 provided in equal portions by New York and Paris bankers. It is known that each portion is expected to be larger than the $100,000,000 credit granted to the British Government in 1925 by a syndicate headed by J. P. Morgan and Company. It was informally stated at the Morgan offices today that discussions are under way both here and in Paris with reference to the credit, and decided progress has been made within the past twenty-four hours.

The arrangements are such that if no unforeseen developments occur, some official announcement may be made tomorrow. It was explained however, that the bankers were concerned merely with fundamental principles of sound finance, and were not concerned with specific measures of economy, which the British Cabinet may see fit to adopt. Recent charges in British Labor circles that United States bankers have brought pressure to bear for a reduction of the role have been emphatically denied. In some of Wall Street's highest banking circles, the return of stability to British finances is regarded as vital to world economic recovery, and the economy programme of the new coalition government, together with the bolstering of it by a large international loan, are regarded as major steps toward lifting the world from the mire of depression.

TWO MEN WITH SAME NAME

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 27.—While his wife was away on vacation W.C. Bartels was astonished, angered, and worried to read in the paper that he had been arrested and fined $10 for "one-armed driving." Realizing that she might receive the news with similar feelings, Bartels hurriedly interviewed court officials and policemen to ascertain who had been using his name on an evening when he had been visiting at a neighbor's home. He learned, in time to notify his wife first, that a Milwaukee salesman legally entitled to the same name was the one really arrested.

SEIDESTEPPING FAILED FARMERS

HARPER, Kan., Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Bert Cristes and Dewey Calton, who have farms on a county line, evaded arrest on charges of violating the prohibition law by stepping over the county line in either direction when the Harper and Sumner sheriffs called. Recently the sheriffs "got together" and met Cristes and Calton at the line, declared "there'll be no sidestepping the issue now" and lodged them in jail.

HUGE TURTLE FEROCIOUS

TURIN, Italy, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—The new turtle, aged 80 and weighing 245 pounds, recently purchased by the Aquarium here, started off badly. It took six men to get him out to the receptacle in which he traveled from Fiume, where he was caught. When the keepers of the Aquarium here sought to put him into his nice new tank, he bit off the little finger of one of the crew.

GERMAN STORES SHOW DECREASE

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—The sales in German department stores during May and June, 1931, show a decline of over seven per cent from the corresponding period last year. It was during these months that the German economic crisis was foreshadowed in the form of announced cuts in wages and salaries, and sales fell off accordingly.

141 TURTLES MAROONED

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—When a fenced swamp on the farm of George Tiedman dried out this summer, he found 141 turtles trying to escape from the barren enclosure. Tiedman picked the turtles up in baskets and carried them to a nearby lake.

THE MARITIME

LADIES GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP AT AMHERST

(Canadian Press) SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 27.—The unexpected defeat by Mrs. Goodwin, of Amherst, N. S., of Mrs. D. Leo Dolan of Fredericton, N. B., and the stellar performance of Miss Edith Bauld of Halifax, who eliminated Mrs. Hugh B. Gillis of Sydney, featured play today in the semi-final round of the Maritime Ladies Golf Championship tournament on the Lingan Links.

The defeat of Mrs. Dolan, five up and four to go was the big surprise of the meet to date. After making a brilliant showing since the opening of play in the qualifying round, the New Brunswick star fell before the accurate stroking of Mrs. Goodwin today. Miss Bauld, many times a former champion, was carried to the sixteenth green by Mrs. Hugh B. Gillis before victory was conceded. Mrs. Goodwin and Miss Bauld meet in the final round for the Maritime ladies title at 2.30 tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. McKinnon, of Charlottetown, and Mrs. Snook, Truro, survived play in the consolation round of championship play and will meet in the finals tomorrow.

MOSCOW LETTER

(By Eugene Lyons, United Press Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Efforts are being made to introduce profit as an incentive to Soviet trusts and other economic units in line with Stalin's recent proposals. A decree has been issued by the Council of Labor and Defense which provides that economic organizations may retain for their own use all surpluses which are earned by the lowering of the cost of production, improving capital turnover, etc., above their estimate.

Hitherto organizations which had exceeded their expectations received honors and official decorations but cash was usually given by the government. Under the new decree they will be enabled to utilize sums under the above plan as a "Private Fund" for the improvement of their business, or better living conditions for their workers, whichever may be desired.

Stand On Own Feet

The same decree aimed at fortifying the system of cost accounting which Stalin demanded where-by Soviet economic enterprises must depend on their own resources. As an illustration the State Bank may issue short term credits only for temporary needs against documentary obligations which borrowers must pay. Instead of depending upon the capital resources of some Higher Trust, or Commissariat, every undertaking must be assigned specific sums which must be made to manipulate profitably.

BETTER WORK BONUSES

The decree is only one of many recent measures which are calculated to fix the responsibility for inefficiency and wastage and simultaneously to offer inducements for better work. Hundreds of unprofitable manufacturing and distributing units are likely to be forced out of existence by this method, whereas the worthy ones will be strengthened and relieved from the necessity of supporting the weaker economic brethren.

PERUVIAN GNATS WRECK CAR

TAHLEQUAH, Okla., Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—A swarm of Peruvian gnats caused Billy Barnes to run his car off a steep embankment, completely demolishing the car and severely injuring Barnes. The gnats attacked him viciously, and while fighting to protect himself, he lost control of the car. The youth was hysterical when found by a police officer.

Miss Breta: "You have had many chances to get married."

Mr. Shybird: "Oh plenty, but, you see, I'm not taking any chances."

ANTELOPE HERDS SEEKING WATER

BEND, ORE., Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Even nature, inherent protector of game life, is taking its toll of the antelope herds of southeastern Oregon and northern Nevada counties. Thousands are facing starvation and death because of a lack of water, according to Dr. J. C. Vandeventer of the Oregon State Game Commission. Sportsmen soon may be called on to aid in preserving the fast disappearing herds. Dozens of suggestions have been made to the game commission, but only two recommendations indicate possibilities of materializing.

Establishment of an antelope reserve—the first in the United States—or the leasing of what few waterholes remain in that section from ranchers will receive consideration from the commission shortly.

One of the last waterholes of antelope in the interior of Lake County, known as Desert Lake, is drying up and the animals already have begun migrating. In desperation, the antelopes have invaded farms and ranches, only to be repulsed and frightened away by game wardens sent to prevent depredations.

DAMAGE TO CROPS BROUGHT PROTESTS FROM RANCHERS AND THE GAME COMMISSION WILL BE ASKED TO PAY FOR THE DEPREDATIONS.

BOTTLED PICKLE DISPLAYED

PAWHUSKA, Okla., Aug. 27.—A bottled pickle grown in his home garden is being displayed here by Ben McDonald. The pickle is three inches in diameter and six inches in length, and was bottled when it was a young cucumber, small enough to enter the bottle. It is sealed in a bottle with a neck less than an inch in diameter.

OFFICIAL'S SON GETS JOB

DETROIT, Aug. 27.—Destined to learn the business from "the ground up," W. Ledyard Mitchell, Jr., son of the vice-president of Chrysler Corporation, has secured a job as salesman for the Detroit Chrysler Company. He applied in the usual way for the job, and was given one, after his references were checked.

ENGLISH RAILROADS REPORT

LONDON, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Seventeen million animals, 200,000,000 tons of coal and 63,000,000 tons of minerals traveled by rail in Great Britain during the year ended July 1. Tons of merchandise transported came to 55,000,000, while 218,000,000 gallons of milk and 76,000,000 parcels, apart from those carried in His Majesty's mail bags, were carried.

It was Willie's first ride in a railway train, and the succession of wonders reduced him to a state of hysterical astonishment. The train rounded a slight bend and, with a shriek of its whistle, plunged into a tunnel. There were gasps of surprise from the corner where Willie was kneeling. Suddenly the train rushed into broad daylight again, and a small voice was lifted in wonder: "It's to-morrow!" exclaimed the small boy.

THE BRITISH

POUND TAKES SUDDEN RISE

Rose To Best Level Yesterday Since the End of July in the Foreign Exchange Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The British pound sterling, in terms of dollars rose to the best level since the end of July in today's foreign exchange markets, as the new non-partisan ministry took office in London.

At the same time, there was considerable talk in highest private banking circles over a loan to the new government, to make the position of sterling doubly secure. It was said in well-informed quarters that no formal negotiations had yet been opened, but there was a distinct tendency to expect early conversations. It is believed that the new government could negotiate a short term loan without approval by Parliament, although a long-term bond offering would require such approval.

Restoring World Economic Balance

Reports as to the probable size of the loan are vague, but private bankers here believe it should be impressive enough to allay all doubts as to British financial stability. One of Wall Street's leading bankers informally expressed the belief that restoration of complete confidence in British stability would represent an important step in restoring world economic balance.

The sailing for Europe today of Thomas Cochran, prominent partner in J. P. Morgan and Co., was noted with interest in Wall Street although there was no indication that his trip has anything to do with a British credit. It is expected in well informed quarters, however, that the Morgan firm may head the syndicate if such a private banking credit is arranged.

The pound sterling rose to $4.86 1/4, in terms of dollars, or only 3-8 of a cent below gold parity. British Government bonds were active and moderately higher in the New York Stock Exchange.

"OLD MAN RIVER" FURNISHES HOME

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Richard Burton, 60-year-old unemployed machinist, has built one of the coolest little homes in New Orleans. Three years ago, when Burton was "laid off" by the machine shop where he worked because he was "too old," he found a job as night watchman of a large, idle steam shovel. The job paid $15 a week, $5 of which he paid for a room. A year ago his pay checks stopped and he faced the prospect of eviction from his home.

It was then that he decided to build a home. He went out on the Mississippi river in a borrowed rowboat and towed planks and timber ashore for his home. He sold enough of the lumber to buy food and necessities. Hoping that some day he will get paid for his services, he has stuck to his job of watching the large, rusting steam shovel each night. By day he works on his home.

It is almost finished and consists of two well-bull rooms eight feet above the ground, so he need not fear the floods. He has sold surplus lumber salvaged from the river to buy nails, screens and hinges for the little house. He hopes to paint it soon. "Everything has come from the river that went into the place," Burton said. Cypress for the foundation, oak for the flooring, pine for the walls and strong beams for the framework have been towed to the bank of the river, a few feet from his door.

Not The War

(J. Butterfield in Vancouver Province) In his article "In the Salient Today" Mr. Lukin Johnston has drawn an arresting and beautiful picture of the charm and prosperity of the old battlefields of France and has made a striking contrast between that present appearance and the horrors of thirteen years ago. It is interesting to revisit with him the old stamping ground of the Canadian Corps and to strive to recall almost forgotten adventures.

BANDITS ROB

HALIFAX BANK WORK AT AIRPORT

HALIFAX, Aug. 27.—Two masked men walked into the Quinpool Road branch of the Royal Bank of Canada shortly after the branch opened for business this morning, slugged Manager Frank O. Robertson over the head with a gun, herded four employees into the vault and escaped with $14,000.

They were wearing long raincoats, the manager said, when he regained consciousness, and had arrived at the bank in a cream colored roadster.

PROVINCE-WIDE MAN HUNT

A Province-wide man hunt was in process of organization this morning as various forces of law and order combined to comb Nova Scotia for two masked men who calmly walked into the Quinpool Road Branch of the Royal Bank. Just as the office was opening for business, and walked out again with $14,000.

Manager Frank O. Robertson, who was today handing the branch over to his successor, was slugged over the head with a gun but as he reached for the telephone. The four employees were herded into the vault and looked there while the bandits went about the business of cleaning out the teller's cage.

WILMOT VALLEY

Miss Louise and Norman Marshall of Fort William, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Wilmot, North Bedouque and New Annapolis, have left for their homes.

We are glad to know that Mr. Lyman Huestis is making good progress toward recovery from her recent serious illness. She is still patient in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Hedley Mutiart, Carleton Place, visiting friends in Wilmot and New Annapolis. On Monday, she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bremner Waugh.

Mr. Willard C. Picketts, Theological student, preached very acceptably on Sunday, Aug. 23rd in the Lot 16 United Church Congregation in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. E. Aitken.

Mr. Willard C. Picketts is at present visiting each Teachers' Convention and giving a practical and scientific demonstration of how alcohol affects various kinds of food and in turn how the use of alcohol seriously injures the work of the body as it affects the good used daily. Mr. Picketts is doing this under the direction of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, of Prince Edward Island.

A musical recital by the pupils of Emerson Huestis was held in the Central Bedouque Hall on Monday evening, August 24th, under the auspices of the Central Bedouque Protestant Orphanage Auxiliary. Rev. L. P. Archibald capably acted as chairman for the evening, and made some very interesting remarks. A sale of candy also was part of the evening's enjoyment. The following programme was featured: Piano solos, Alga Reeves, Ruth Reeves, and Gladys Bernard, Lower Freeborn; Jean MacCaull, North Bedouque; Elva Staver and Dorothy McCurdo, Kelvin; Alden Leard, Fernwood; Altha Noonan, Centreville; Muriel Leard and Eileen Dawson; Piano solos and duet, Central Bedouque, also vocal solos by Miss Verna Schurman and Eileen Dawson, Central Bedouque; Piano solos, Miss Margaret Curtis, Rosamond Wright, Wanda Bradshaw, Cottie Bradshaw and Norma Craig, Middleton, and two very humorous readings in the French and Irish dialect by Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, of North Bedouque, which were heartily applauded by the audience. A goodly sum of money was realized by the Committee to carry on the very splendid work of caring for those who are not in a position to care for themselves.—W.

SWITZERLAND TAKES ON FOURTH LANGUAGE

GENEVA, Aug. 27.—(U.P.)—Switzerland, which already has three official languages—French, German and Italian—has just decided to add a fourth. The latter, which is known as "romanche" or "romancche," is regarded as Switzerland's only native language. It is believed to have been used originally by fugitive Tuicans when they sought refuge at the time of the first Roman kings.

The language is spoken principally in the Canton of Grisons and especially in the Engadine, although its use also is found in other portions of Switzerland.

The Canton of Geneva has just decided to create a special chair at the University of Geneva for furthering its study and use.

WASHINGTON, Kan., Aug. 25.—(U.P.)—A second set of twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Sisco Scheets here within 19 months.
