—P. E. ISLAND MOVIES.—The famous fox pictures and other pictures representing Prince Edward Island in motion were shown at Happyland last night for the first time in Canada. The pictures showed the interiors of the principal fox ranches in the province as well as the Charlottetown Fire Department, the "police force in action," street scenes, both in Charlottetown and Summerside, and a number of public buildings and public men, including Governor Rogers and Premier Matheson. The views, although somewhat dark in places, make an excellent series.—J.

—FOX OPTIONS ON 1914 PUPS.—The Directors of the Alberton Dark Silver Fox Company, Ltd., have decided to sell a limited number of options on the season's pups. Intending purchasers are reminded that this Company owns 8 pairs of highest grade animals, being the early selections from the old established ranches in the vicinity of Alberton, the home of the industry. —PRESENTATION.—A very pleasing event took place on Tuesday evening when a large number of the congregation called upon Rev. J. M. Rice, Pastor of the Methodist Congregation, and presented him with an elegant and valuable fur coat. The presentation was made by Mr. Alex. Campbell, while Mrs. H. H. Beer, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mrs. Rice with a purse of gold. Short addresses were given by Messrs. J. D. Gass, Levi Silliphant, Thomas Frizzle, the chairman, Mr. J. A. E. Forsythe. Mr. Larkin is partner in the Forsythe-Larkin Fox Co. Before going to Seattle he will take a tour through Wyoming, Utah and Mexico, for the purpose of getting his friends and others interested in establishing a number of Fox ranches through northern British Columbia. Mr. Larkin proposes stocking these ranches with Alaskan Black foxes and it is probable that he will import some of the best Island males, that can be produced by crossing with his western stock. We wish Mr. Larkin every success, and regret that the community will lose a young man who is such a valuable asset to the town of Alberton.—A.

—CANDLE PINS.—The first game of candle pins for the trophy recently presented by the P. W. Ellis Co., (through Mr. E. R. Crockett) was played on the Summerside Alleys on Tuesday evening last between a team from the Charlottetown Bowling Alleys and one from the Summerside Alleys, the latter winning out by a large margin. The scoring of the Summerside players was large three of the games being over 100. The visitors did not strike their play until the last game, the strangeness of the Alleys being in a great way responsible for their small scoring in the first game. The following are the scores in the different games. Charlottetown Bowling Alleys:—Burke—93, 78, 99—270. J. McLean—86, 95, 83—264. D. A. Wedlock—81, 87, 94—262. R. Beer—72, 75, 94—241. P.
