"Gladys celebrated her birthday last week."

"Did she take the day off?"

"The day off? She took two years off!"

Mary Tempest Has Long Career

LONDON, June 28—(C. P.)—One of London's most popular actresses, Marie Tempest, will celebrate her 68th birthday July 15th next. She made her first appearance on the stage at the Comedy Theatre in 1885, and still has power to charm and please her audiences. She made her appearance at St. James' Theatre, London, recently in "The Vinegar Tree," by Paul Osborn, an American author.

E. A. Baughan, drama critic of the News-Chronicle, pays her the following tribute: "The cryptic title, 'The Vinegar Tree,' will soon become synonymous with Marie Tempest at the very top of her form. She is a middle-aged wife of a rude, old man, Augustus Merrick, who beats her well and truly with his tongue. In the end she is grateful for a poor sort of an apology, and murmurs 'What a fool I have been.'"

Bomb Turns Out A Printing Press

MONTREAL, June 28—(By The Canadian Press)—The quiet of Montreal police headquarters was disturbed recently when what looked like an "internal machine" was found.

From the desk of a down-town brokerage office, a strange black box had been carried to headquarters by trembling officers. Others quailed visibly as they passed by. The box was about one foot long and eight inches square. It did not belong to the brokerage office, no one knew how it had found its way there, and fertile imagination filled in the gaps. It must be a bomb. Ears strained for any sound of clockwork mechanism popularly associated with such contrivances. Finally the man of the hour stepped up in the person of Inspector Armand Brodeur. With bated breath, subordinates watched from discreet distances while he carefully prised off part of the tin cover to reveal a printing press driven by a small electric motor.

So far no claimant has come forward, and there is no answer to the question as to who put it where it was found.

"I see in the Weekly Banner of Spruceville that Lem Higgins has 'fallen asleep'."

"Dead, eh?"

"Yes."

"Well the only difference between Lem as he is now and as he was for twenty years is that he doesn't snore anymore."

"Douglas' Egyptian relieved toothache and neuralgia. Invaluable in case of cramp, sore throat and quinsy. Keep a bottle handy."
